

Money trouble Quickly Cured

For Four Weeks, Mr. T. J. Coe, of Toronto, Was Confined to His Bed in a Paralyzed Condition, Unable to Move.

Drug Preparations Did Him No Good, But Powley's Liquefied Ozone Soon Destroyed the Disease Germs.

The Second Dessert-Spoonful Gave Him Marked Relief--In Two Days He Was on His Feet and in Less Than a Week at Work at His Office.

After the miraculous cure Ozone performed on myself I feel it my duty to you and to suffering humanity to give you my testimonial regarding your most wonderful remedy.

I lay on my back for four weeks with a most acute attack of kidney trouble. I was so ill that I was unable to move in my bed. I was in a paralyzed condition in the region of the Lumbar Vertebra. I employed, whom I consider, one of Toronto's best physicians, but after four weeks' treatment I was little (if any) better.

While in this condition I read an advertisement about a cure of kidney trouble by Ozone, and decided to try a bottle. After the second dessert-spoonful I felt a marked relief. After using Ozone for two days I was able to stand on my feet for the first time in four and a half weeks, and the fourth day I was strong enough to walk around. On the sixth day I came to my office and have been attending to my business ever since.

I feel that I cannot find words with which to express what Ozone has done for me, and I will be most pleased to meet any person or persons you may wish to send to me in regard to the above.

I have the honor to be,
Yours very truly,
(Signed) T. J. COE,
Mechanical Superintendent Creelman Bros.' Typewriters.

MR. T. J. COE.

Kidney Troubles Cannot Exist Where Ozone Is Used. Here Is More Home Proof.

Besides being a most prevalent trouble kidney disease is a most dangerous one. Hundreds of people are suffering from kidney disease to-day and do not know what ails them. They know they are in a languid, half-sick condition, but do not know the exact cause of it. Kidney trouble, besides being dangerous in itself, leads to many other complications, and if neglected the entire system soon becomes disarranged. The most perfect safeguard against kidney trouble and the most certain cure is Powley's Liquefied Ozone. As in the case of Mr. Coe, it immediately destroys the germs causing the disease, with the natural result that a speedy and permanent cure is effected. Here are a few of the many Canadians who have been cured of kidney trouble by this great drugless preparation:

INDIAN TRADING.

The Way to Beat the Red Man Down in His Prices.

"Few white men know how to trade with an Indian," remarked a Denver man who has made a study of Indians for ten years past. "I once met an Indian with a magnificent mountain lion skin. He was willing to part with the ornament, but his price was too high. I offered him $12.50, but he indignantly refused. Later, on the same day, after I had learned to trade with an Indian, I bought the skin for $1.50.

"The secret of trading with the Indian is to appear indifferent. The most successful trader is the one who goes with a supply of the same article he is most desirous of buying. The Indian sees that the stranger has had experience, and negotiations are carried on upon a strictly business basis. An Indian refused $10 for a bow and arrow. It was bought for $1 by a man who carried several bows and arrows in his hand. This wily individual leased the supply from a store in order to impress his copper colored friends, and he succeeded.

"The Indian," said the speaker, telling of traits of character he has observed in his red friends, "is one of the most faithful followers in the world if he has confidence in you. If he takes a liking to you, there is nothing you can ask he will not do. If he dislikes you, the less you have to do with that Indian the better."—Rocky Mountain News.

A Knockout.

A young lawyer was engaged in a case not long ago when a witness was put in the box to testify to the reputation of the place in question.

This witness, a stage driver, in answer to a query as to the reputation of the place, replied, "A poor shop."

The lawyer inquired, "You say it has the reputation of being a 'poor shop'?"

"Yes, sir."

"Whom did you hear say it was a 'poor shop'?"

The witness did not recollect any one he had heard say so.

"What!" said the lawyer. "You have sworn this place has the reputation of being a poor shop and yet cannot tell of any one you have ever heard say so?"

The witness was staggered for a moment at the words of the lawyer. The lawyer was feeling triumphant when the witness gathered himself together and quietly remarked, addressing the lawyer:

"Well, you have the reputation of being a poor lawyer, but I have never heard any one say so."

His Innocent Client.

This story is told of a celebrated North Carolina lawyer who was practicing in a backwoods mountain district:

While he was waiting for his case to be reached the trial of a notorious highway robber, who had been caught red handed, was called. The prisoner had no counsel, and the presiding judge requested the distinguished lawyer to defend him. The trial lasted two days and, to the court's astonishment, the jury returned a verdict of acquittal. As the prisoner was about to be discharged, the lawyer stepped up to the judge and requested a few words in private.

"What is it?" asked the court.
"I would ask your honor," replied the lawyer, "to have the prisoner detained in jail tonight. I have to cross a lonely field on my way home and the rascal happens to know that I have money about me."

Cold Feet.

Cold feet are a sign of disordered circulation. Continual warming with artificial heat is but temporizing with the evil, and the difficulty should be overcome by proper dressing when that is in fault and by foot and ankle exercises. The latter can be taken at frequent intervals during the day, and they will assist in stimulating the circulation of the blood. Point the toes down to the extreme limit till you feel the muscles strain over the ankles and work the feet up and down eight or ten times; then devitalize them and shake them from the ankle, as one does the hand with a loose wrist. Sufferers from cold feet in bed can quickly warm them by this exercise, and it will bring relief and comfort during a long ride.

The Vulgar Voice.

What constitutes the vulgar voice? In an article in the London Spectator a writer concludes that this evidence of vulgarity, "springs, like almost all vulgarity, however displayed, chiefly from two causes—an undue love of conspicuousness and an undue fear of the same." The person whose chief aim is to keep himself or herself in the eye of the world rarely makes a remark without desiring that it shall reach the ears of others besides the one directly addressed, and here the peculiarly false sound of the voice is attributed to the absence of singleness of motive. On the other hand, the wavering tone and affected accent of the timid vulgar are ascribed to another form of insincerity—namely, the wish to imitate others with whom one happens to be when they are of a supposedly higher social standing. The attempt is sure to fail and the result only in the suppression of all evidence of the speaker's own personality—in the voice as well as in

A Primitive Clock.

A naturalist, while visiting Great Sangli, one of those islands of the Indian ocean known as the Celebes, or Spice Islands, found a curious time recorder lodged at the house of a rajah. Two bottles were firmly lashed together and fixed in a wooden frame. A quantity of black sand ran from one bottle into the other in just half an hour, and when the upper bottle was empty the frame was reversed. Twelve short sticks, marked with notches from one to twelve, were hung upon a string. A hook was placed between the stick bearing the number of notches corresponding to the hour last struck and the one to be struck next. The sentry announced the time by striking the hours on a large gong.

An Adequate Supply.

"Henpeck has given up smoking, eh? That takes a good deal of will power."
"Yes. His wife has it."—Puck.
