Too Great a Risk.

In almost every neighborhood someone has died from an attack of colic or cholera morbus, often before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. A reliable remedy for these diseases should be kept at hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has undoubtedly saved the lives of more people and relieved more pain and suffering than any other medicine in use. It can always be depended upon. For sale by all druggists.

BEFORE THE BAR.

For Sending Offensive Note to an M. P. P.

Toronto, June 26.—In the course of his speech on the Gagey commission's report in the Legislature yesterday, Mr. Pettypiece, of East Lambton, said that Mr. J. S. Willison, managing editor of the News, was employed by the Conservatives to write Conservative articles. No fault was to be found with that except that he tackled the world independent to his title. Hector Charlesworth, a member of the News staff, who has been reporting the Legislative proceedings, thereupon wrote a letter to Mr. Pettypiece criticizing him. When the session opened this morning the Attorney General rose to a question of privilege. A member of the press gallery connected with the News staff had, he said sent Mr. Pettypiece a note of an extremely offensive nature. It was a clear breach of the privileges of the House, and he hoped that the reporter in question would apologize therefor. He was sure that he regretted the note was written.

When the House resumed in the afternoon the bar across the entrance was placed in position and attracted attention from all sides from its unusualness. Col. Gibson drew the attention of the Speaker to the fact that the member of the News staff referred to earlier in the day was present and that he desired to make a statement at the bar of the House. Mr. Charlesworth then appeared before the bar of the House and said:

"With reference to the letter addressed by me to the member for East Lambton, on which I appear in justification, I can say that the communication was an attack on his ideals as a journalist and not upon his conduct as a member of the House; that it was a personal communication passing between old and intimate acquaintances containing but one offensive word, which I should not have used under any circumstances, and that it was written under what I deemed extreme provocation. Since I am advised that it was an offence to the general honor of the house I desire to apologize for it, and regret this occurrence.

"The Speaker then said: 'On behalf of this assembly, I accept the apology of the gentleman. I hope that nothing of the sort will ever occur again.'

I was so bad with kidney trouble that I could not get around the house. My feet and ankles were so swollen and painful that I could get no rest day or night.
