FELLOWS-WILLS.

Swell London Wedding in Which Former New Brunswicker was Bridegroom.

(Bristol, England, Times June 11)

At St. Mary Abbots church, Kensington, yesterday afternoon, the marriage took place, in the presence of a large and fashionable assembly, of Mr. Ernest Gadesden Fellows, late 1st Suffolk Regiment, who served in South Africa, only son of the late Hon. J. I. Fellows, member of the Legislative Council of New Brunswick, and Agent-General in London for that province, of Saxon Hall, Palace Court, Bayswater, and of Mrs. Fellows, 41 Ennismore Gardens, S. W., and Miss Margaret Hamilton Wills, second daughter of Sir Frederick Wills, first baronet, M. P. for North Bristol, and Lady Wills, of Manor Heath, Bournemouth; Northmoore, Dulverton, Somerset; and 9, Kensington Palace Gardens, Bayswater, and granddaughter of the late Rev. James Hamilton, D. D., F. L. S.

The service was full choral, and the church, as usual, was handsomely decorated with tall palms and white flowering plants, intermixed with ferns and foliage, and white cut blooms were replaced in the altar vases. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Charles Isaac Atherton, Canon Residentiary of Exeter Cathedral, assisted by the Rev. E. J. Kennedy, vicar of St. John's, Brompton.

The bride was accompanied by her father, who, during the singing of the hymn "O, Father, all creating," preceded by the officiating clergy and surpliced choir, conducted her to the chancel entrance, where the first portion of the service was said, and, in due course, gave her away. Captain S. J. B. Barnard-Diston, D. S. O., 1st Suffolk Regiment, acted as best man.

There were no fewer than ten bridesmaids in attendance upon the bride—Miss Kathleen Mary Christina Hamilton Wills (sister), Miss Gladys Laurence (cousin), Miss Irene Hamilton Wills (cousin of the bride), Miss Lorna Fellows (sister), Miss Beatrice Sisson (cousin), Miss Kathleen Lambert (niece of the bridegroom), Miss Blanche Dalglish, Miss Carol Sandilands, Miss Ruth Sandilands and Miss Lucy Wrightson—who were charmingly gowned in rose-pink chiffon over glaze silk, gauged and trimmed with introductions of pink blonde lace, and large pink felt hats, trimmed with shaded pink and white ostrich plumes. The bridegroom's presents to them were unique pendants, in floral design, carried out in pearls and enamel, on gold chains, and each carried a bouquet of deep crimson roses in foliage, tied with streamers.

Miss Margaret Hamilton Wills was much admired in a wedding robe of white duchesse satin, embroidered and trimmed with accordion pleated satin, the corsege being draped with exquisite Brussels point lace (the gift of her mother, Lady Wills), and full court train of satin and monseeline de soie, lined with tulle, embroidered in silver and pearls, and ornamented with myrtle and orange blossoms. Her tulle veil covered a tiara of orange blossoms. Her ornaments were a diamond tiara (the gift of the bridegroom), a diamond neck lace (the gift of Sir Frederick and Lady Wills), and a massive diamond star (the gift of Mrs. Douglas Hamilton), and she carried a bridal bouquet of white orchids, exotique, intermingled with foliage, and tied with white streamers. The bride entered the church by the west door, being the fifth bride that has used that entrance during the last eighteen years, and was met by the bridesmaids at the bottom of the church. During the service Psalm lxxvii, "God be merciful unto us and bless us" (the chant being composed by Mr. Gilbert Hamilton Wills, brother of the bride) and the hymns "O perfect love, all human thought transcending" and "Thine for ever, God of Love" were sung by the full choir of St. Mary Abbots Church.

The reception held by Lady Wills at 9,

The Best Liniment.

"I have derived great benefit from the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism and lumbago," says Mrs. Anna Hagelans, of Tuckahoe, N. J. "My husband used it for a sprained back and was also quickly relieved. In fact it is the best family liniment I have ever used. I would not think of being without it. I have recommended it to many and they always speak very highly of it and declare its merits are wonderful." For sale by all druggists.

Kensington Palace Gardens, S. W., was very largely attended, among those present and at the church being Hon. Charles Doff Miller, Agent General for New Brunswick, and Mrs. Doff Miller.

Early in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. E. Gadesden Fellows left for a short stay up the river before proceeding for a motoring tour through Dorset and Devon, the going away gown being of white crepe de chine made in bolero style, trimmed with white lace and silver, and picture hat to correspond, with one long white feather. The presents were numerous and costly.

AN ORIGINAL WAY

Brussels, June 24.—Ecausseines is a small village in Belgium which possesses a good supply of girls, who realized lately that a good many of them were destined to be old maids unless they took the matter in hand themselves.

After many meetings from which all married folks were rigorously excluded, the girls determined to give a great dinner to which unwedded youths from far and near should be invited.

Notices of the coming festival and its reason was published all over the country and even in Holland.

This very original way of securing a husband has just come off, the preparations and decorations of the village having kept all agog for a week.

A table was placed in the centre of the village street, and the hostesses, "dressed to kill", awaited the arrival of the guests.

At three o'clock the girls with their parents and the bachelor guests, assembled in front of the town hall, whence numerous addresses were given on the subject of matrimony.

Then the event of the day took place. The loverless girls took their places at table first, each leaving an empty seat at her side, and waiting anxiously for the youth who should elect to sit beside her.

There was an awful pause ere the first man screwed up courage to leave the rest, who stood huddled together as if for protection from the danger that awaited them, but at last a brawny fellow of about forty, from some distance, whose hearth was comfortable without a wife, made a choice and took his seat, and then another and another, and soon all the places were taken.

Dinner lasted till seven o'clock; in true Flemish fashion, ending with songs and speeches. By this time acquaintance was made, hearts were warmed, and declarations made, and the girls who had succeeded in securing sweethearts made their appearance in the village square arm-in-arm with their captured swain.

Very few were left lamenting their prospective single-blessedness. The dinner was followed by a ball in the open air, and many wedding days are already fixed.

Nothing Like Experience.

"One truth learned by actual experience does more good than ten experience one hears about." Tell a man that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy will cure cholera morbus, and he will most likely forget it before the end of the day. Let him have a severe attack of that disease, feel that he is about to die, use this remedy and learn from his own experience how quickly it gives relief, and he will remember it all his life. For sale by all druggists.

Six Doctors Failed to Cure Him.

ERYSIPELAS AND SALT RHEUM WAS THE TROUBLE.

Burdock Blood Bitters

DID MORE THAN SIX DOCTORS COULD DO.

Mrs. Theo. Newell, Argyle Sound, N.S., expresses her opinion of this wonderful blood remedy in the following letter:

"It is with the greatest gratitude that I can testify to the wonderful curative powers of Burdock Blood Bitters. For years my husband suffered terribly from Erysipelas and Salt Rheum. He was so bad at times that he could not sleep on account of the itching and burning. He had been under the care of six different doctors, but they failed to do him any good. I had read different times of the wonderful cures being made by Burdock Blood Bitters, so advised him to give it a trial. He did so, and after taking five bottles was cured without a doubt. I would strongly advise any person troubled with blood disorders to give B.B.B. a fair trial for I am sure it will cure them."
