PRINCE WILLIAM, ALLENDALE AND MUNIAC THE CONTRIBUTORS.

Wheeler-Boddy.

Our correspondent at Lower Prince William writes:

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, 24th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, Wm. W. Boddy, when his second daughter, Miss Allie Boddy, was united in marriage to Walter Wheeler, second son of the late Richard Wheeler. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Mr. Sables in the presence of a number of friends and relatives.

The large number of useful and costly presents received by the bride testify to the esteem in which she is held by her many friends.

The Herald extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler and wishes them a happy and prosperous future.

Clayden-Simmons.

A Herald correspondent at Aliendale, parish of Dumfries, writes:

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, June 3rd, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Simmons, when their daughter Jessie Maude was united in marriage to Mr. John E. Clayden, of Prince William, by Rev. C. H. Fullerton. The bride looked charming in a dress of white organdie with lace trimmings. After the ceremony the bridal party with relatives and friends numbering about thirty-five, sat down to a sumptuous wedding supper.

The bride was the recipient of a number of useful and beautiful presents as follows: The groom's present was a handsome raincoat.

Mavor-Miles.

The Herald's correspondent at Muniac, Victoria Co., writes: A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, 24th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. William Miles, proprietor of the Miles Hotel of this place. Mr. Alexander Mavor and Miss Lulu Miles were the contracting parties. The bride was neatly attired in white muslin trimmed with lace. Mr. Frank Taylor and Miss Bertie Miles waited on the bride and groom. At twelve o'clock a. m., they took the lawn in front of the door, before a number of friends and relatives. The Rev. Mr. Anderson of Florenceville officiated, and happily made them man and wife.

After the ceremony the guests were seated at a well filled table where they were well cared for. After dinner the young couple, through a shower of rice, took their departure on the C. P. R. to Fredericton, thence to St. John and Montreal, with greetings and best wishes following them. After their return they will take up their abode in this vicinity. McCarthy-Long.

A very quiet but pretty wedding took place this morning at the R. C. Church at Oromocto, when Rev. Father McDermot united in the holy bonds of matrimony Miss Catherine Long and Mr. Dennis McCarthy. The bride who is a very highly esteemed and popular young lady, was charmingly attired in a handsome grey dress trimmed with white silk and chiffon and wore a pretty hat to match. She was attended by Miss Agnes McCann of Beverley Mass., who looked very pretty in a becoming dress of fawn trimmed with applique trimming, and wore a hat to match. The bridegroom was ably assisted during the tying of the knot by his friend, Mr. Gerald O'Brien of this city. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to this city where an elaborate wedding breakfast was served at the residence of Mrs. Charles O'Brien, Charlotte street, sister of the bride. The esteem in which the bride and groom are held by their many friends was attested by the large number of useful and costly wedding presents. The bride and groom were highly respected residents of Lincoln, but will make their home for the present in this city.

Nodden-Hawkins.

Mr. Thomas H. Nodden, farmer and merchant of Billville, Carleton County, and Miss Minnie Hawkins, second daughter of Mr. Frederick Hawkins of Millville, were married at the bride's home June 24, Rev. J. J. Barnes performing the ceremony in the presence of a large number of guests.
