BIG JANUARY SALE.

HE WOULDN'T POSE.

Old Moonshiner Didn't Want His Picture Taken.

I was talking with old Mose Scott, the moonshiner, at his cabin door, when a tourist with a camera came along and asked the old man to allow him to take his picture.

"Stranger, I'm allus willin' to oblige in most things," was the reply, "but I'll have to say no to this. Thar was a feller up yere last fall with a squint in' masheen like that, and he met my brother Bill. He sot Bill on a rock and squinted at him, and jogged along. When he got down to Knoxville he fixed the pictur' up and was showin' it around when a feller says to him: 'Whar did ye meet this yere critter?'"

"Up above Cumberland Gap."

"And mought his first name be Bill?"

"I reckon."

"And his last name Scott?"

"The same."

"That's about all they said, but in the co'se of three days a lot of revenue officers cum along and gobbled on to Bill, and he's in the Albany prison doin' time yit. They dun reckoned he was in Texas till they saw his pictur'."

"But I didn't know as they wanted you," protested the artist.

"No, I reckon they don't, but they would as soon as they saw the pictur' some or 'em would recognize the inner-cent ole critter who locked seven of 'em up in a stable while the boys were totin' a moonshine still out of a ravine and over the mountains, and as I hain't much of a hand to talk I'm afeared I couldn't explain how I happened to fall asleep and leave 'em thar till they cut their way out through the roof. Ye can squint at the ole mevl and the cabin all day if it will oblige ye, but don't pull the trigger till ole Mose Scott gits down and hides behind a log!"

No Influence Above.

In Dr. John Hall's time it was the custom in his church to use the old fashioned, simple hymns, and the singing was congregational.

On one occasion the late William M. Evarts discovered E. Delafield Smith, the well known lawyer and then corporation counsel of the city, singing with all his heart and whispered to his friend:

"Why, there is Smith singing 'I want to be an angel. I knew he wanted to be district attorney, but I didn't know he wanted to be an angel."

The remark was repeated to Mr. Smith, and quick as a flash came the retort:

"No, I have never mentioned the matter to Evarts, knowing that he had no influence in that direction."—New York Times.

The Way of a Woman.

"I hate to be contradicted," she said. "Then I won't contradict you," he returned.

"You don't love me," she asserted. "I don't," he admitted.

"You are a hateful thing!" she cried. "I am," he replied.

"I believe you're trying to tease me," she said.

"I am," he conceded. "And that you do love me."

"I do."

For a moment she was silent. "Well," she said at last, "I do hate a man who is weak enough to be led by a woman. He ought to have a mind of his own—and strength."

He sighed. What else could he do?—Chicago Post.

A BAD CASE

OF

KIDNEY TROUBLE

CURED BY

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Kidney Troubles, no matter of what kind or what stage of the disease, can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of these wonderful pills. Mr. Joseph Leland, Alma, N.W.T., recommends them to all kidney trouble sufferers, when he says:—I was troubled with dull headaches, had frightful dreams, terrible pains in my legs and a frequent desire to urinate. Noticing DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS recommended for just such annoyances as mine, it occurred to me to give them a trial, so I procured a box of them, and was very much surprised at the effectual cure they made. I take a great deal of pleasure in recommending them to all kidney trouble sufferers.

Price 50c. per box, or 3 for $1.25; all dealers or The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.
