

"The square peg in the round hole" figuratively expresses the use of means unsuited to the desired end. A great many people who have been cured of dyspepsia and other diseases of the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery say: "We tried many medicines with only temporary benefit. It was not until we began the use of 'Golden Medical Discovery' that we found a complete and lasting cure."

It is undoubtedly true that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery holds the record for the perfect and permanent cure of indigestion and other diseases of the stomach and associated organs of digestion and nutrition. It is not a palliative. It cures the cause of disease and builds up the body with solid healthy flesh, not flabby fat.

"It is with pleasure that I tell you what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pell's' have done for me," writes Mrs. E. M. Palmer, of Peedee, Kauffman Co., Tex. "Two years ago I was taken with stomach and bowel trouble. Everything I ate would put me in distress. I lived two weeks on milk and even that gave me pain. I felt as though I would starve to death. Three doctors attended me—one said I had dyspepsia, two said catarrh of the stomach and bowels. They attended me (one at a time) for one year. I stopped taking their medicine and tried other patent medicines: got no better, and I grew so weak and nervous my heart would flutter. I could not do any kind of work. Now I can do my house work very well; am gaining in flesh and strength, and can eat anything I want."

Knew Papa's Limitations.

She was a doctor's little girl. In her father's office she had seen a number of boxes on which was written, "This side up with care." In answer to her question her mother had said, "You see, when papa gets these boxes he doesn't know what is in them, and if it is something that might break it wouldn't be good for it to set it upside down."

The little girl pondered over it for some time. A few days later she came to her mother, saying, "Mamma, when God made us did he put a sign on our left sides that says, 'This side up with care?' " "Why?" asked the mother, smiling. "Because I heard papa tell somebody that it was bad for people to lie on their left sides 'cause it wouldn't be good for their hearts, and I know papa doesn't know what is inside us."

Then She Remembered.

Near the elevated road in Park place is a news and apple woman. She is very absentminded. Also sympathetic. A ragged street urchin ran up to her.

"Say," he yelled, "your little boy has been run over by a big truck!"

"Where? Where? For goodness' sake, where?" shrieked the woman, rushing wildly down the street. She ran half a block and then stopped suddenly.

"Lord, what an old fool I am!" she said to herself disgustedly. "I have no little boy. I've never been married."

Meantime the street urchin had stolen four apples and a bunch of grapes.

A Wonderful Harbor.

Puget sound is one of the finest harbors in the world, if not the finest—a deep bay over a hundred miles long cut off from the ocean by the mountainous western peninsula of Washington. The waters nearly everywhere are deep, the shores abrupt, and the tide is moderate. Ships may go from Tacoma half way to Alaska without passing out of this great sound and its extensions northward.

By Way of a Lesson.

"One of our cars ran over another man last night," announced the superintendent of the street railway line.

"Well," replied the president, "after awhile the people will learn that the only safe place is aboard the car and that 5 cents is a small price to pay for safety."

The ironing of black goods requires particular care and particular starch—common starch gives a rusty appearance to the fabric and leaves it streaked with white.

Celluloid Starch gives a glossy stiffness and preserves the solid blackness. Use two tablespoonfuls to a quart of cold water and add a little boiling water to clear it. For mourning goods, skirts, delicate laces, etc., the results will be excellent.

THE LAND OF ANYHOW.

Beyond the Isle of What's-the-use, Where Slipsand Point is now, There used to be, when I was young, The land of Anyhow.

Don't Care was king of all his realm. A cruel king was he, For those who served him with good heart, He treated shamefully.

When boys and girls their tasks would slight, And cloud poor mother's brow, He'd say, "Don't care! It's good enough! Just do it anyhow!"

But when in after life they longed To make proud fortune bow, He'd let them find that fate ne'er smiles On work done anyhow.

TRIED TO HIDE IT.

A Charitable Deed of the Sovereign Recently Made Public.

A good story of King Edward's interest in the Salvation Army is told in a recent issue of The Social Gazette by Walsh Dawson, a supporter of the army's social work.

Two years ago Mr. Dawson, who had interested himself in obtaining donations for social work, was on his way one afternoon to call on a certain benevolent peer, when he lost his way in a thick fog. Suddenly he ran against a man near Buckingham Palace. Apologizing he asked the stranger if he could direct him to the house he was looking for. The reply was:

"Certainly. I am going there myself. I'll show you the house."

"We chatted away merrily," Mr. Dawson continues. "I told him all about my work and the labors of the Salvation Army. He seemed deeply interested, and when I reached the house he said: 'It is dreadful to think that so much suffering exists in this city. I want you to accept a little gift for the poor suffering ones,' and he placed in my hands 10 sovereigns."

"I was astonished and asked the unknown donor what name I should put down in the book. He replied hurriedly: 'No name at all, please. Simply anonymous.' Suddenly I saw his face distinctly for the first time; it was the Prince of Wales, now the King."

Lloyds in Time of Anxiety.

Only recently a great Atlantic liner was announced to be three days overdue. On the third day there was no noticeable advance in the rate charged for those who had neglected to insure property shipped upon it, but on the fourth day, when anxiety as to both the passengers and the property on board had increased, it was ominously announced from Lloyds that the rate of insurance upon that particular vessel had been advanced to $10 in $500. This was on Tuesday. On Wednesday, when no further news had been heard, the rate had jumped to $25 in $500. On Thursday it reached $50 and by Friday the enormous sum of $100 in $500 was declared to be the rate in any and all manner of insurance upon the missing vessel. It is needless to say how horribly these announcements confirmed the anxious fears of those most deeply concerned in the arrival of the vessel, for all the world knows that if there is any hope it will be longest found at Lloyds. It is also needless to say that when the great liner in question finally reached her dock in New York, nowhere was there greater rejoicing at the announcement than in the room where it was tolled out by the bell of the Lutine and read by the crier to the assembled crowd at Lloyds.—The World's Work.

The Vivacious One.

"The word 'vivacious,' " said the cynical codger, "is the polite social term for 'gabby.'"

Burdock
Blood Bitters
CURED THEM.

It is well-known to all that bad blood is the direct cause of all skin diseases and it is necessary for the blood to be cleansed before the eruptions will disappear. For this purpose there is nothing so equal Burdock Blood Bitters as the thousands of testimonials we have on hand will testify.

Mr. Willard Thompson, McNeill's Mills, P.E.I., writes us as follows: "I wish to state to you what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. Some time ago my blood got out of order and many boils appeared on my neck, legs and arms. They were so painful that I could not sleep at night. After having tried many different remedies without any success, I finally decided, on the advice of a friend, to use Burdock Blood Bitters. Before I had quite used two bottles the boils had completely disappeared, and I wish to emphasize the fact that I think Burdock Blood Bitters the best blood purifier on the market to-day."
