Work For His Sheep.

A resident of London with a taste for deviled kidneys found himself recently in a remote west of England village, where a sheep was killed about once a week. Not knowing that mutton was a luxury and kidneys, for obvious reasons, therefore, a rarity, he presented himself day after day at the village butcher's with the same request for his favorite breakfast dish. The butcher, looking upon his customer as a lunatic, bore it as long as he could, but on the fifth day said indignantly, "If you think, young man, that my sheep have nothing better to do than to lay kidneys for your breakfast you be mortal mistook."

Easy Divorce In Old Times.

The code of King Khammurabi of Assyria, whose date is approximately 2200 B. C., which has been deciphered from a pillar discovered at Susa, deals exhaustively with the subject of divorce. One of the most interesting clauses is the following: "If the wife of a man who dwells in the house of that man has set her face to go forth and has acted the fool and wasted his house and impoverished his house, they shall call her to account. If the husband shall say, 'I put her away,' he shall put her away. She shall go her way; for her divorce he shall give her nothing."

The Home of Musical Fish.

Lake Batticaloa, Ceylon, has the probably unique distinction of being the home of musical fish. The sounds emitted by these are said to be as sweet and melodious as those which would be produced by a series of Aeolian harps. Crossing the lake in a boat one can plainly distinguish the pleasant sounds. If an ear is dipped in the water the melody becomes louder and more distinct.

He Knew Her.

"I'm sorry, but I really can't let you see my wife if you wear that beautiful new hat. She's quite sick, and the doctor has expressly stated that nothing must be allowed to excite her."

Liquid Glue.

To make liquid glue dissolve the glue in strong, hot vinegar, then add one-fourth as much alcohol and a little alum. This is a very useful cement for mending various things and will keep a long time in a closely stoppered bottle.

Geneva.

Only 32 per cent of the inhabitants of Geneva are natives of the city; 21 per cent are from other Swiss places, and 47 per cent are foreigners.

Saved by a Poodle.

French poodles, for all their foppishness, are cast in the heroic mold, as witness the latest story from Paris. A fire was raging in the Rue Monsigny, and while the family shivered on the cobbles their poodle sprang through the flaming door, raced up the smoldering staircase and in a trice returned with the baby's doll in his jaws.

The Pound Sterling.

The pound was first called "sovereign" in the time of Henry VIII., who issued a gold coin of that value stamped with the king in royal robes.

In Sackcloth and Ashes.

Great crowds went to see a Manchester Salvation Army man who was advertised to preach "in sackcloth and ashes." His "makeup" was a khaki colored dressing gown with a sprinkling of ashes on top of his cap.

Waters of the Amazon.

It often happens that sailors run short of water when they are off the southern coast of South America. They then make for the mouth of the Amazon, where they can procure fresh water 200 miles from the coast. The volume poured out by the river is so great and so strong that it sweeps back the ocean itself.

The Proper Treatment for Sprained Ankle.

As a rule a man will feel well satisfied if he can hobble around on crutches two or three weeks after spraining his ankle, and it is usually two or three months before he has fully recovered. This is an unnecessary loss of time, for in many cases in which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has been promptly and freely applied, a complete cure has been effected in less than one week's time, and in some cases within three days. For sale by all druggists.
