Origin of "Cravat."

The word "cravat," said a man who makes neckwear, "came into our language about 1636. Prior to that year a feature of the uniform of the Austrian cavalry was a wide band of coarse linen worn in folds around the neck under the short hussar jacket. This cavalry organization was called the Cravate, its members being styled the Cravates. Later, in the seventeenth century, France recruited a regiment of cavalry, adopting for it the uniform of the Austrian regiment in Croatia, calling it the Royal Cravates. Later, in England, the word "cravat" was applied to a neck handkerchief. After the battle of Steenkirk, in Flanders, in 1692, English officers brought home the 'steenkirk,' a long, flowing neck scarf edged with fine Flemish lace, the ends of which were drawn through a buttonhole of enormous size. The neckwear of today is clearly traceable to the 'steenkirk' and the modifications it underwent."

Odd Dwelling Sites.

The people of Tupusei have no need to travel far when they want to take a salt water bath. The town is built on piles which have been driven into a submerged coral reef situated far out in the Torres strait to the south of New Guinea. Opposite this extraordinary settlement on the mainland is another village that is perched high in the air among the gigantic palm trees with which the coast is fringed. The object of both communities in choosing these curious sites for their dwellings is identical. They desire to assure themselves against being surprised by their numerous enemies, and especially they seek safety from the prowling Dyak head hunters.

The Oldest Known Bookkeeping.

In the primitive villages of the Andes, scattered through Peru, Bolivia and Ecuador, the descendants of the ancient Incas depend upon the "kipu" for keeping all their accounts. It was in use when Pizarro conquered Peru, and the Andean Indians have never improved on it. It is the oldest known form of bookkeeping. The "kipu" is simply a collection of knotted strings. Differently colored strings denote different articles in daily use and ten distinct knots the ten numerals. In the absence of a written language it is a marvelously perfect system. Large transactions are conducted as accurately by it as if double entry bookkeeping were employed.

Value of Recreation.

There are wisdom and strength in genuine pastime. One often accomplishes more by spending a pleasant evening in some innocent games or other amusement than he would by poring over books with tired brain and exhausted body. He may have had qualms of conscience about it and thought that evenings given to social enjoyment were practically lost out of his life.

far from it! To better purpose than he dreamed of was the time employed. Body and mind were strengthening and, unconsciously, without effort, being fitted for better work in the future.—Success.

Taking It Out on the Family.

Mrs. Ferguson—George, what particular failing of yours did the preacher touch on in his sermon this morning?

Mr. Ferguson—What do you ask me that question for?

Mrs. Ferguson—Because you have been as cross as a bear ever since you came home from church.

A Battle of Wits.

Mr. L., the foreman at a certain factory in Liverpool, the other day lost a cuff-link whilst going round the workshop. After some time had elapsed, and the cuff-link had not turned up, he caused the following notice to be put up in a conspicuous position in the workshop: "Mr. L., having lost a gold cuff-link, would be very glad if the finder would return it as soon as possible to the owner." Imagine his feelings when a few hours later on passing the notice he found the following appended:

"The finder of the above cuff-link would be very much obliged if Mr. L. would lose the other one."

Australian Rabbits.

A few years ago the rabbit was a plague and dread of the whole pastoral class in Australia. Australians are learning now to turn the rabbit itself into a commercial asset. Twenty millions of Australian rabbit skins were sold in London last year, while nearly 3,000,000 rabbits, frozen in their furs, were sent to the London market from Victoria alone. The Australian rabbit is thus supplying the tables of the United Kingdom with food and the wardrobes of the civilized world with ornaments.

SHOT GUN - PRESCRIPTION -

We suppose we are not revealing any trade secrets when we say that many medicines are made up on the principle of the so-called "Shot Gun" Prescriptions, which were formerly somewhat in vogue. The idea of the Shot Gun Prescriptions was to put into a medicine a large number of different drugs, each useful for different purposes, in the hope that some of them might hit the case.

The most successful physicians we know use a more direct method. The medicine we sell under our own name, and guarantee, does the same. This medicine is called Staples' Dyspepsia Remedy.

It is the best remedy we know of for Dyspepsia in all forms, such as Indigestion, Costiveness, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Water Brach, Sick Headache and all the terrible diseases caused by Dyspepsia. It is not a scattering "Shot Gun" Prescription but it goes straight to the mark, and has cured so many people right here in town, that it gives us confidence to sell it on an absolute guarantee, as follows: If you use a bottle and it does not help you, we will give you your money back without a word of complaint. We could not afford to guarantee it so boldly if we had not seen it succeed ninety-eight out of every one hundred cases.
