

Events of a Day.

No Herald Monday.

Monday next being labor day and a public holiday, the Herald will not be published on that day.

Lumber Laden.

The Schooner Stella Maad cleared today for Maine with a cargo of lumber shipped by T. E. Babbitt & Sons.

Life Imprisonment.

William Albert, the former Fredericton negro, convicted at Bangor of murdering a policeman, has been sentenced to life imprisonment.

Stores Closed.

Next Monday being a public holiday the stores will be closed and people generally will cease from their labors and enjoy the day. Any necessary shopping can be done tonight.

Rifle Club Meeting.

A meeting of the Fredericton Civilian Rifle Club will be held at the B and B club house on Tuesday evening Sept. 8th inst. A full attendance is requested, by order. A. E. Maesie, Captain.

Sutherland Estate.

Letters of administration in the estate of the late J. B. Sutherland of Milltown have been granted to his widow, Mary Alice Sutherland. The estate is entered at $1700 real property and $2000 personal.

Successful Sportsmen.

Messrs Joseph Moore and William Ferguson, of this city returned last evening from a successful and enjoyable hunting expedition to Sheffield, and the Portabella. They bagged in all thirty birds, including black ducks, green winged teal, shell ducks, wood ducks and snipe.

Surprise Party.

A number of young people from this city, St. Mary's and Gibson, drove to the home of Mr. Harry McCloskey at Upper Maugerville last evening and enjoyed a delightful evening in various amusements. Dancing was kept up until an early hour when the merry party returned home.

Enjoyable Party.

Misses Josephine and Georgie Sewell entertained their friends at their hospitable home at Lincoln last evening, to what was conceded to have been one of the most enjoyable social functions held in Lincoln for some time. A number of young people from this city were present.

Broke Her Leg.

Mrs. Henry P. Craig while alighting from a carriage at Coburn's store, Harvey Station, Thursday morning, had the misfortune to break her leg just above the ankle. Dr. Keith set the broken limb and had her removed to her residence. The fracture is a bad one, but she is doing as well as can be expected.

Cathedral Music Tomorrow.

The music at the Cathedral tomorrow will be selected from that sung at the Jubilee services. In the morning the Communion service will be sung to Dr. Dyke's setting in F. In the evening Magnificat Tour in F. Munc Dimittis Medley in B. Anthem "Send out Thy Light.—Gounod. The sermons will be preached by the Dean.

A Great Shot.

Capt. H. C. Blair of Truro, N. S., well known in Fredericton military circles, had the honor at Ottawa of winning the grand aggregate in the Dominion Rifle matches, with 319 and will have first place on the Boley team. No other maritime men got in the first 20, but a number are placed in the first hundred. The twentieth man's score was 306.

Died in the West.

News has been received here of the death at Stillwater, Minn., from typhoid fever of Harry Sullivan, son of Philip Sullivan, of Cross Creek, York county. He was a young man about twenty-five years of age, and had been in the west about two years. The body is expected to arrive here on Monday, and will be taken to Cross Creek for interment. The deceased was a nephew of Edward McMinaman of this city.

King's Daughters' Convention.

The convention of the King's Daughters will open in this city on Friday next. The sessions are to be held in the Knights of Pythias Hall on Carleton street, the opening service being at 8 o'clock on Friday evening. There will be two public meetings, the first one in the Presbyterian church at the close of the regular Sabbath evening service, Sept. 13th. The second will be in the Methodist Church Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The public are most cordially invited. A full program of the convention will be published next week.

Recent Weddings.

Miss Hattie Craswell, one of the teachers of Lakeville Corner, Sanbury Co., was united in marriage on Tuesday evening in the Methodist church to Thomas Falton, one of Little River's enterprising lumbermen. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Harry Harrison, in the presence of a large assembly of friends and invited guests. After the service the party repaired to the home of the groom, where a reception was held. The home was beautifully decorated by a florist from Fredericton.

The marriage took place Wednesday at the residence of the bride's parents, Lower Cape, Albert county, of Miss Lena G. Calhoun, to Ernest Shields of Gagetown, Queens county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Milton Addison, pastor of the Baptist church, in the presence of the relatives of the bride and groom and a number of invited guests. After the wedding breakfast the bridal party drove to the station, where the newly married couple took the train for St. John, where they will reside.

Labor Day Excursion.

The Black Knights excursion to St. John on Monday next promises to be a great success. The steamer Victoria which has been chartered for the trip, will leave here at 7.30 a. m., arriving in St. John early in the day. The excursion will leave St. John on the return trip at 7 o'clock p. m., thus giving the excursionists a whole day in the city by the sea. The 71st band will accompany the excursion.

Arrangements have been made whereby parties going by this excursion can remain in St. John the whole week, until Saturday the 12th inst., by presenting their excursion ticket and fifty cents in addition on the return. This is a snap for any one wanting to enjoy a week's outing in St. John.

The 71st band which is to accompany the excursion to St. John on Monday, will give an open air concert this evening in front of the post office.

The Big Game Season.

Mr. Charles Cremin, the celebrated guide of Scotch Lake, is to leave on Monday for his camps on the Nepesquit to make ready for his season's hunting operations. He has a party of five Tennessee sportsmen coming on the 13th inst.

Mr. Edward B. Holmes and son of Brookline, Mass., are now on their annual hunting expedition to the Bald Mountain country on the Northwest Miramichi. They will spend their time hunting bears until the season for moose and caribou opens on the 15th. Arthur Pringle of Stanley has been engaged by them as guide. Mr. Holmes, sr., is a very expert photographer, and has a splendid collection of hunting scenes.

Two Men Killed.

Brandon, Man., Sept. 5.—A traction engine with two men went through a bridge here yesterday and both men were instantly killed. The engine crashed through a bridge, turned a complete somersault and landed in the mud thirty feet below, crushing the men under death. It took a large gang of men several hours digging away the debris to recover their bodies. The names are Richard Chambers, of Brandon, aged 35; William Carle, of Aikenside, aged 60. Both are married, leaving wives and children.

Sunday Services.

Baptist Church.—Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m., by the pastor, Rev. J. H. MacDonald, B. A., Sunday school and Bible classes at 2.30 p. m. B. Y. P. U. on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock and the regular church prayer and praise meeting on Friday evening at the same hour. Strangers are cordially invited to all these services. Seats free.

St. Paul's Church.—Rev. William MacDonald has returned from his vacation trip, and will occupy the pulpit at St. Paul's church at both services tomorrow.

Methodist.—Rev. J. A. Rogers, pastor. Social service at 10 o'clock a. m. The pastor will occupy the pulpit at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Communion service at close of evening service. Miss Edythe Crisp of Marysville will preside at the organ tomorrow.

Mrs. H. G. Winter leaves early next week to visit her brother in Michigan, and will be accompanied as far as Toronto by Mr. Wiltier.

A Violent Storm.

An electrical storm of great violence passed over the city at an early hour this morning. During its progress the rain came down in torrents, and the thunder crash was very loud and distinct, and no doubt aroused many people from their slumbers. Early in the evening a heavy storm passed over to the north west of the city, making a magnificent electrical display. People from the Keswick region, in the city today, report that the storm raged there from eight o'clock in the evening until three in the morning. So far as can be learned there was no damage to property.
