

Events of a Day.

Disbanded.

At Half Mast.

Flags are flying at half mast today over the Parliament buildings, City Hall, Barker house, Queen Hotel and Waverly out of respect to the memory of the late Pop Leo XIII.

Police Court.

A young man connected with a city barber shop was before the police court this morning, charged with destroying property at a farm house on the Woodstock road. On his consenting to make good the damage and pay the costs the complaint was withdrawn.

Lost His Money.

A Glace Bay, N. S., despatch says: A New Brunswick commercial traveller whose name is kept secret by the police, lost his purse containing $100 on the Glace Bay Electric line last evening. The car was crowded and it is supposed that his pockets were picked. After the loss was discovered the car was brought to a standstill and each person searched. As several people got off the car before this was done the search was fruitless.

Successful Picnic.

Miss Annie McKay was the hostess at one of the most successful picnics of the season, given at Kaskisebo camp last evening. About forty young people were present, and it is needless to say enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. After justice had been done to an elaborate repast, the floor was cleared for dancing, and all hands joined heartily in the fun, which was kept up until nearly midnight. Sam Wheary's famous orchestra furnished the music.

Great Bear Hunters.

Mr. Arthur Pringle, the well known guide of Stanley, and his brother, David Pringle, returned last week from a most successful trapping expedition to the Bald Mountain country of the Northwest Miramichi. They brought with them the pelts of no less than eighteen large bears, besides a live bear cub, three months old. They succeeded in capturing a pair of cubs but one afterwards choked to death in an effort to swallow a piece of raw meat. The other is an exceedingly lively and humorous youngster and gets along swimmingly in captivity.

New Hampshire Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Johnson, of Littleton, New Hampshire, are on a visit to the city, the guests of Recorder and Mrs. Colter, George street. Mr. Johnson is a native of Nashua, this county, and a cousin of John V. Johnson of that place. He left his old home 35 years ago going to New Hampshire, where he has since resided. He engaged in the lumbering and milling business, and has had a remarkably successful career. This afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Johnson accompanied Recorder Colter and wife on a drive to Keewick.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY.

A Fredericton Banker Who Was Mistaken for President Roosevelt.

Mr. R. P. Foster, the genial and good looking manager of the Royal Bank of Canada in this city, bears a somewhat striking resemblance to President Roosevelt, and the likeness proved somewhat embarrassing to the modest banker one day last week. He happened to be standing near the B. and N. Club landing when two American ladies, who had been enjoying a canoeing trip under the guidance of Joe Paul, reached the spot, and one of the fair ones, rushing up to Mr. Foster, exclaimed, "Excuse me, sir, but are you not our president, Mr. Roosevelt?" The banker perceptibly colored at the compliment implied in the enquiry, but was able to explain that it was a case of mistaken identity. Apologies followed, and Mr. Foster confided the incident to some friends, with little expectation that it would get into print.

New York Visitors.

The first Raymond and Whitcombe excursion party, numbering fifteen persons, arrived from St. Andrews this morning and is domiciled at the Queen hotel. This afternoon they are busy visiting the points of interest, and it is their intention to go to St. John by boat in the morning. John W. Gay, of New York, is in charge of the party, which is made up as follows: Mr. George D. Stone and wife, Mrs.

SERIOUSLY HURT

Frederictonian Working at Repairs on Covered Bridge

FELL A DISTANCE OF FOURTEEN FEET.

Sustaining Cuts and Bruises with Concussion of the Brain.

A telephone message from Covered Bridge, Nashua, to the Herald, conveys news of a serious accident that happened to a Fredericton young man there this morning.

Mr. R. Fletcher, of St. Marys, has a contract for repairing the highway bridge across the Nashua river at that point, and among his employers is Mr. William Parker, son of Mrs. George Parker, King street this city, a young man of some twenty-two years of age.

This morning young Parker was engaged on repairs at the top of the superstructure, and losing his balance fell to the flooring, a distance of fourteen feet. His fellow workmen were horrified, and picking the injured man up found him in an unconscious condition, stunned and bleeding.

The young man was made as comfortable as possible, and Dr. Moore, of Stanley was summoned with all possible speed. The doctor found Mr. Parker's nose broken, with other injuries about the head and back, and also slight concussion of the brain, and while the injuries are serious, the doctor does not think they are necessarily fatal.

Mrs. Harry Walker, of this city, a sister of the young man, visiting in the locality, was also summoned to his assistance, and with good nursing and careful medical attendance which he will receive, it is hoped that he will survive his injuries, although it is probable it will be some weeks before he will be able to resume work.
