THE WORLD OF DOGS

FACTS ELICITED DURING RECENTLY FINISHED SHOW SEASON.

St. Bernards Are Not Holding Their Own, a Fact Which Is Lamented by Many Dog Lovers—Bloodhounds Coming to the Fore—Kings and Queens of Dogdom—Toy and Pet Dogs Continue Their Sway.

The dog season was recently at the very topmost notch of its annual swing, and exhibitions were being held, and doggy folk revelled in the feasts prepared for them.

The biggest show of the year, and one which attracts international attention, was that of the Westminster Kennel club, recently held at Madison Square Garden, New York. At this exhibit the kings and queens of dogdom vied for cash and medals, and the show is sure to set the fash-popularity to be on the wane. Perhaps, however, the slump is only a temporary relapse which soon will be overcome.

Bloodhounds are coming to the fore slowly, but none the less surely. They are splendid, strong animals and should have wider vogue. Terriers of practically every breed are coming on rapidly, and society people in the large cities have given them the seal of their unqualified approval.

Bull, fox, smooth and wire haired, Scottish, Irish and Airedale terriers are making desperate efforts to push him from his envied premier position, the saucy Boston breed, or "butcher's dog," as he is known in England, where he originated, despite the claims to the contrary advanced by Bostonians.

The toy and pet dogs continue their undisputed sway in their particular field. Japanese spaniels are getting to be very well liked, as also are the snappy, attractive little Pomeranians. These are distinctly

SPORTING DOGS, THE POINTER.

"dogs of fashion," as a well known breeder said a few days ago, and the members of the smart set in almost all of the prominent cities are numbered among the owners. The "Poms," as they are frequently termed, probably come closer to being worth their weight in gold than any other animal in the country. As high as $3,000 has been paid for one of these bunches of long haired fur and a fox shaped head with glistening eyes that weighed less than three pounds.

The Poms are generally believed to have come from Pomerania, although there are people who say that they are descendants of the Eskimo dogs. They have been given the names at various times of loup loup, wolf dog, fox dog and Spitz, the last named, however, being considerably heavier than the Pom and having an objectionable disposition.

Kitchener D'ad't Smile.

An Englishman tells this story illustrating, presumably, Lord Kitchener's lack of humor: "The writer had a narrow escape on the Nile, as his vessel was stranded on the mud and desperate exertions were needed to haul her off. I told part of the story to Kitchener on my return. 'And how did you get the anchor to the sand bank?' he asked. 'Oh,' I answered, 'one of the crew swam across with the anchor in his mouth.' 'Oh, really!' was all Kitchener said, as if it were the most natural thing in the world."

When we get what we want, we do not enjoy it as much as we had anticipated.

A Kidney Sufferer FOR Fourteen Years.

TERRIBLE PAINS ACROSS THE BACK.

Could not Sit or Stand with Ease.

Consulted Five Different Doctors.

Doan's Kidney Pills

FINALLY MADE A COMPLETE CURE.

Mr. Jacob Jamieson, Jamieson Bros., the well-known Contractors and Builders, Welland, Ont., tells of how he was cured: "For fourteen years I was afflicted with kidney trouble which increased in severity the last five years. My most serious attack was four years ago, when I was completely incapacitated. I had terrible pains across my back, floating specks before my eyes and was in almost constant torment. I could not sit or stand with ease and was a wreck in health, having no appetite and lost greatly in flesh. I had taken medicine from five different doctors and also numerous other preparations to no purpose. I finally began to take Doan's Kidney Pills and before I had taken five boxes the trouble left me and I now feel better than I have for twenty years. Those who know me know how I was afflicted and say it is almost impossible to believe that I have been cured, yet they know it is so. I have passed the meridian of life but I feel that I have taken on the rosy hue of boyhood."

Price 50 cts. per box, or 3 for $1.25, all dealers or
