

USE DIAMOND DYES

If Your Toboggan Suit is Soiled or Faded.

Thousands who love the sport that tobogganing affords are now using Diamond Dyes to renew and beautify last year's faded and dingy suits. Diamond Dyes dye anything any color. The only warranted dyes in the world.

The Life of a Dime.

The life of a dime is only four or five years, because it changes hands ten times while a half dollar is moved once from one person's pocket into the till of another.

Where Water Ascends the Hill.

In White county, Ga., there is a mountain stream which runs uphill at a steep incline for almost half a mile. It is supposed to be the continuation of a siphon which has its source in a spring at a higher elevation at the opposite side of the mountain.

A Child's Teeth.

A child of six who has not yet lost any temporary teeth has in its jaws, either erupted or nonerupted, no fewer than fifty-two teeth more or less formed.

Steam For Convicts.

The vessels on which French convicts are taken from the island Re to New Caledonia have an arrangement enabling the captain in case of attempted mutiny to fill the place where the prisoners are confined with scalding steam.

Dislocated Her Shoulder.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Fergus Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep which she had not done for several days. For sale by all druggists.

AGGRESSIONAL

Lord of our far-flung battle line,
Theodore, the war god's favorite son,
Why sittest thou upon thy spine?
Arise, and hand Columbia one!
Hand her the bomb and bayonet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget—

Lest we forget how strong we are,
How terrible on land and sea;
Lest we forget that puissant tar,
G. Dewey, or San Juan and thee,
Our Attila, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget—

Far called, our heroes melt away,
Where's Hobson, Evans, Shafter, Schley?
Where are the winds of yesterday,
The roarback, or the campaign Me?
But you are with us still, you bet—
Do something, Ted—we may forget,

Sweep like a scourge upon the foe!
Burst on him like a thunderclap!
Soak him a solar plexus blow!
Oh, wipe Columbia off the map!
Show us that we're the hottest yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget.

SALISBURY'S FIRST ELECTION.

The Whole Proceeding Was Something of a Farce.

Lord Salisbury's first plunge into political life is described by his biographer, Frederick Douglas How, as happening under conditions such as have now been for many years impossible. There was no splash and no troubling of the waters when the young Lord Robert Cecil slipped into a Parliamentary career as member for the pocket-borough of Stamford in 1853.

The town at that time was represented by two members, both of whom were simply and absolutely the nominees of the Marquis of Exeter, the patron of the borough. When one of the existing members retired, it was not unnatural that the Marquis should appoint one of the name of Cecil to the vacant seat, and so it came about that the young Lord Robert, only twenty-three years of age, entered Parliament with none of the difficulties, expense or excitement of a contested election.

The whole proceeding was something of a farce. The electors had never heard of him until a letter from Lord Exeter's lawyer told them they were to change their representative, and informed them of the member selected for them. That was quickly a personal visit from the candidate, when a so-called canvass was made.

The notices which invited his supporters to assist at this function were issued for both the Wednesday and Thursday morning of his visit, and were in the following form:

STAMFORD ELECTION.

The friends of Lord Robert G. Cecil are respectfully requested to meet His Lordship at the George Hotel, St. Martin's, to-morrow morning, at ten o'clock, precisely, to accompany him on the canvass.

J. PHILLIPS,
Chairman.

On the Thursday afternoon a hand-bill was issued by Lord Robert saying that the result of the canvass was most satisfactory, and earnestly requesting the attendance of his friends on the following Monday morning to accompany him to the hustings. Meantime he had put out an election address.

When he was elected he made a speech, and a local paper states that when he stepped forward he was "slightly cheered." He spoke well—that was conceded by those who heard him—but he does not seem to have given the people of Stamford, in those early days, any idea of the real power that lay beneath his quiet exterior. They did not expect to see their new member become, in a few years, one of the leading statesmen of Europe.

Knew His Value.

Tit-Bits tells a story of an English boy who evidently had a high opinion of his value.

A gentleman called on a member of Parliament one day, and while waiting in the reception room, was attracted by the manner of the small attendant, and started a conversation, which resulted as follows:

"How much do you earn a week, my boy?" asked the caller.

"Ten pounds," said the youngster, promptly.

The visitor had no time to express his surprise or incredulity, because he was admitted to the member's private office just then; but once inside he said:

"Mighty bright youth you have there, to be getting £10 a week."

"Ten pounds a week! What are you talking about?" said the member of Parliament. "He gets 22 shillings."

"But he told me just now that you are giving him £10 a week," persisted the caller.

"Nonsense!" said the member of Parliament, and touched the bell. "Billy," said he, "did you tell this gentleman I was paying you £10 a week?"

"No, sir."

"You didn't? Well, what did you say?" asked the indignant caller.

"I said I earned it," was the prompt rejoinder.

Divorce Laws and Divorces.

The country with perhaps the most lenient divorce laws in the world is Sweden, and there the divorce rate is lower than in the Netherlands, which, after England, has the strictest laws in the world.

Stomach Troubles.

A disordered stomach may cause no end of trouble. When the stomach fails to perform its functions the bowels become deranged, the liver and kidneys congested, causing numerous diseases, the most fatal of which are painless and therefore the more to be dreaded. The important thing is to restore the stomach and liver to a healthy condition, and for this purpose no better preparation can be used than Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by all druggists.

SHOT GUN

- PRESCRIPTION -

We suppose we are not revealing any trade secrets when we say that many medicines are made up on the principle of the so-called "Shot Gun" Prescriptions, which were formerly somewhat in vogue. The idea of the Shot Gun Prescriptions was to put into a medicine a large number of different drugs, each useful for different purposes, in the hope that some of them might hit the case.

The most successful physicians we know use a more direct method. The medicine we sell under our own name, and guarantee, does the same. This medicine is called Staples' Dyspepsia Remedy.

It is the best remedy we know of for Dyspepsia in all forms, such as Indigestion, Costiveness, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Water Brach, Sick Headache and all the terrible diseases caused by Dyspepsia. It is not a scattering "Shot Gun" Prescription but it goes straight to the mark, and has cured so many people right here in town, that it gives us confidence to sell it on an absolute guarantee, as follows: If you use a bottle and it does not help you, we will give you your money back without a word of complaint. We could not afford to guarantee it so boldly if we had not seen it succeed ninety-eight out of every one hundred cases.
