ACHING KIDNEYS.

Can Only be Cured by Enriching the Blood by the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

The kidneys filter every drop of your blood. The purity of the blood depend upon the kidneys—and the health of the kidneys depends upon the blood. If your blood is weak the kidneys have not strength for their work and leave the blood unfiltered and foul. If your blood is bad the kidneys get clogged with painful poisonous impurities. That is what causes your backache with the dull pains or sharp stabs of sick kidneys. And kidney disease is one of the most deadly and hopeless things that can attack you. The only hope is to strike without delay at the root of the trouble in the blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They actually make new blood. They flush the kidneys clean, heal their inflammation and give them strength for their work. Common kidney pills only touch the symptoms—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure the cause. That is why they cure for good and at the same time improve the health in every way.

Mr. Geo. Johnson, of the village of Ohio, N. S., gives strong proof of the truth of the above statements. He says: "My son, now nineteen years old, suffered greatly with kidney trouble. He was constantly troubled with severe pains in the back, and often passed sleepless nights. His appetite failed, he grew weak, and could hardly do the usual work that falls to the lot of a boy. We tried several kidney medicines, but they did not help him on a farm. We tried several kidney medicines, but they did not help him any. Then a friend recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and this was the first medicine that reached the cause of the trouble. He used the pills for a couple of months and I am thankful to say is now as strong and healthy as any boy of his age."

There is no disease due to bad blood that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will not cure simply because they make new, rich red blood that expels disease from every part of the body. That is why they cure the worst cases of anaemia, indigestion, neuralgia, rheumatism, headache, and backaches, and the special ailments from which women alone suffer. But only the genuine pills can do this and you should see that the full name, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," is printed on the wrapper around each box. Sold by all medicine dealers or direct by mail from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50.

A Record Wolf Drive.

Lawton, Okla., Dec. 9.—One of the largest wolf drives in the history of the south west has just occurred in the pasture reserve near Chatanooga.

Fifteen hundred persons and seventy dogs participated. Forty square miles of territory were covered, and about fifty wolves corralled, ten of which were captured and killed. Several were lamed by cowboys while running at full speed over the prairie. Four lines were formed in the immense square, and the wolves were herded to the centre.

Mrs. Williams and Miss Clara Sharp, in full riding costume, participated in the drive and the wild stampede, each coming into town with a dead wolf across her saddle.

SLEEPLESS BABIES.

Well babies sleep soundly and wake up brightly. When babies are restless and sleepless it is the surest possible sign of illness—in all probability due to some derangement of the stomach and bowels, or teething troubles. Baby's Own Tablets are the only proper remedy. They remove the trouble and in this way give the little one sound, refreshing sleep, and it wakes up healthy and happy. Guaranteed to contain no harmful drug or opiate. Mrs. Thos. Cain, Loring, Ont., says: "My baby suffered from stomach trouble and teething, and was quite cross. I got Baby's Own Tablets and they seemed to work almost like a charm. I think nothing can equal the Tablets for children's ailments." You can find them at drug stores or get them post paid at 25 cents a box by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

If a man has faith in himself he has little to fear from the outside world.

We must go from heated rooms to the cold outer air, and the change sets us coughing. Curing winter colds is not hard if you take Allen's Lung Balm. A neglected cold is troublesome and dangerous.

His Excellency Sworn Into Office at Halifax Today.

GRAPHIC PEN PICTURE OF THE NOBLE LORD AND HIS CAREER.

The appointment of Lord Grey, who was sworn in at Halifax today, to succeed his brother-in-law, Lord Minto, as Governor-General of Canada, has been hailed with general satisfaction both at home and abroad, for Earl Grey, to use an expressive North Country phrase, is "as good as they make them." He has long since won recognition throughout the empire as an almost ideal type of the younger generation.

ONE OF THE ELIZABETHANS.

Earl Grey is one of the Elizabethans, a breed which will never die out in England until the English race is extinct. In his person, in his ideas, in his restless energy he recalls the type of the great adventurers who sailed the Spanish main. He is one of those rare and most favored of mortals who possess the head of a mature man and the heart of a boy. His very presence, with his alert eye and responsive smile; his rapid movements and his frank abandon, remind one of the heather hills of Northumberland, the bracing breezes of the North Country coast, the free, untrammelled out-of-door life of the romantic border. He is personally one of the most charming of men, one of the most fascinating of personalities. By birth an aristocrat, no one can be more democratic in his sympathies.

He is a Liberal in church as well as in state; Liberal in the catholicity of his friendships and in the breadth and variety of his sympathies. It is something to find a member of the House of Lords suffering from an excess of cerebral activity. A man more mentally alert and more physically active it would be difficult to find in a day's march. He turns up everywhere, whenever any good work is to be done at home or abroad, and seems to find time for every kind of social and political effort.

Thirty years ago he was interested in church reform; today he is enthusiastic over the work of the Salvation Army.

HIS BIRTH AND ANCESTRY.

The son of the great earl died childless, and was succeeded by his nephew, the present earl, in 1894. Albert Grey went to school at Harrow. He graduated at Trinity College, Cambridge. In 1877 he married Alice, the third daughter of Mr. Slayner Holford, M. P., whose residence in Park Lane is one of the most famous places in London. It was not until the year 1880 that he entered the House of Commons. He was elected Liberal member for South Northumberland. The wave of Gladstonian enthusiasm was then at its flood. Mr. Albert Grey was a Gladstonian, despite the misgivings of his uncle. Mr. Gladstone failed to do many things he hoped to do, but he did succeed in carrying another Reform bill, which entailed, among other things, the division of the counties into electoral divisions. At the general election of 1885, Mr. Albert Grey elected to stand for Tyne-side, one of the constituencies into which South Northumberland had been cut up. In the following year, Mr. Gladstone plunged for home rule. Mr. Grey refused to follow him, and his place in the Liberal party and the House of Commons knew him no more. He became a Liberal Unionist.

WITH CRICK IN THE BACK.

You are up against a whole lot of trouble unless you have a strong remedy like Nerviline to settle pain and dislodge stiffness from the muscles and joints. Just rub Nerviline on the painful spot—not much rubbing because Nerviline has more power than ordinary remedies. You won't suffer long after Nerviline is applied for it relieves instantly. Mr. Philip Adams of Oakland, says: "If I hadn't used Nerviline I guess my back would be stiff yet. A few applications of Nerviline took out all the soreness and stiffness. I can recommend Nerviline for any kind of muscular pain, also for rheumatism. Price 25c."

ist. He did not reappear in parliament till his uncle's death, in 1894, opened for him the portals of the House of Lords.

HIS IMPERIALISM.

Lord Grey's chief interest in politics has been the maintenance, the extension, and the consolidation of the empire. His ardent and enthusiastic temperament predisposed him to be a leading spirit among the young optimists who believed that in the union of the English-speaking race there might be discerned the dawn of a new heaven and a new earth. Mr. Rhodes found in Mr. Grey a man after his own heart, full of passionate enthusiasm for the empire, and keen to do his part in the revival of the old Elizabethan tradition of adventure and romance. He became one of the founders of the Chartered Company and was thereby committed to a close connection with the destinies of central South Africa. He became a Rhodesian, and he is a Rhodesian to this day.

RECORD IN RHODESIA.

The task which Lord Grey attempted as administrator of Rhodesia in 1896-97—years of native war and of profound political unrest—did not afford him much experience likely to be helpful to him as Governor-General of the Dominion. The Rhodesians, a handful of white men, were fighting for their lives against overwhelming numbers of savage Matabele. Lord Grey was a novice in South African affairs, and he was necessarily overshadowed by the colossal personality of Cecil Rhodes. He had a divided allegiance. He was the representative of the crown, as well as a founder and leading spirit of the Chartered Company. He was an English noble, bearing a name that is famous in the annals of Liberalism. Yet he was Mr. Chamberlain's agent in South Africa. After he returned home he became a director of the South African Company and a trustee and joint heir of the Rhodes' estate under Mr. Rhodes' will.

PEACE CRUSADER AND JINGO.

When the Russian Czar launched the Peace Rescript, Lord Grey threw himself heartily into the popular agitation, which secured the meeting of the Hague conference. As lord-lieutenant of Northumberland, he presided over the peace meeting in Newcastle Town Hall at the beginning of 1899. That this did not stand in the way of his presiding, a few months later, over a meeting in the same place clamoring for the dispatch of more troops to South Africa to compel Mr. Kruger to climb down, is a fact thoroughly in keeping with Lord Grey's impulsive enthusiasm for every cause that seems to represent a struggle toward a loftier ideal.

CO-OPERATION AND TEMPERANCE.

In home politics Lord Grey has devoted himself with untiring enthusiasm to two great causes—the cause of co-operation and the cause of temperance reform. The Bishop of Chester had formed a small company to manage a public house for the public good, and not for private profit. At this stage of the discussion Lord Grey came into the field and what might have been a mere local experiment was taken up all over the kingdom. Everywhere Lord Grey was to the fore. He argued, pleaded, persuaded until at this moment public house trusts have been formed in nearly every English county, and every month sees an addition to their number.

The essential principle of Lord Grey's trust public house is that the profits arising from a monopoly created by the public authority should be devoted to purposes of public usefulness, and not to build up the fortunes of private individuals.

Lord Grey, as sufficiently appears from this brief and rapid survey of his public career, is a man of great public spirit, of keen intelligence, and of passionate patriotism. No man is less of a fanatic either in church or state. He is a Liberal who supports the Conservatives, a temperance reformer who runs public houses, a free trader who takes the chair for Mr. Chamberlain, a peace crusader who promoted the South African war. In his mind there is room for many anomalies or apparent contradictions. Yet he is consciously consistent even in his greatest apparent inconsistency.

He is no stranger to Canada. He has thrice visited the Dominion, and the fact that his sister was the wife of his predecessor at Government House will make him feel at home in his new position.

Lord Grey's family seat is at Howick, in Northumberland.

THE EARL'S PERSONALITY.

Earl Grey possesses one of the most interesting personalities of all the governors the mother country has sent to her great colonies during the last fifty years. The more his character is studied the larger it looms, and the stronger becomes its color. It is claimed that he is the most original of Lord Maxwell, the nobleman whom Mrs. Humphrey Ward portrayed in "Marcella" and "Sir George Tressady." Earl Grey lives up to his responsibilities, and his life work has been similar to the great character sketched by Mrs. Ward.

In appearance the new Lord of Rideau Hall is big boned and loose jointed. He has a high smooth-domed forehead, the baldness extending well down the back and sides of the head. The hair and mous-

FERROZONE

Braced—Invigorated, Toned and Strengthened.

Men and women, married or single, whether old or young, will find abundance of health in Ferrozone. It completely vitalized Mrs. F. Levine, a well known resident of Point Alexander, Ont., who writes:

"I was on the verge of nervous prostration. When I got up in the morning I had to force myself to go to work."

"I felt blue and depressed, took no real comfort out of life. Dragging weakness and lack of spirit seemed to be killing me. How I wished for strength!"

"Kind Providence brought Ferrozone to my notice and I commenced to take it. The change was wonderful. I picked up every day. Strength developed, appetite increased. I grew cheerful and strong. Ferrozone made me feel like a woman. My cure is complete and I recommend it as an unsurpassed."

The one medicine that's sure to lift you from a weak, miserable condition is Ferrozone, 50c. per box, or six for $2.50, at all dealers in medicine, or Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U. S. A., and Kingston, Ont.

tache are sandy, the latter brushed and clipped off in a ragged looking manner. His general appearance is that of a typical, well-to-do English north countryman. He is never fastidiously dressed, but assumes clothing that looks comfortable and serviceable. The frock coat, which so many of his countrymen practically live in, he wears only upon special occasions, seeming to prefer a sacque coat which is termed in this country a "business suit." However, being conscientious in all things, he is also careful in his attire. His estate comprises 17,000 acres, much of it bare moorland, and other parts are rough and hilly, but the cultivated portions are as fine as can be found in any part of England. The Earl has a model tenantry, and by them he is regarded as a model landlord. Among his tenantry he has encouraged modern and scientific cultivation, and as a result they are for the most part better off than their neighbors.

COUNTESS GREY.

Lady Alice Grey is a very handsome woman, with large regular features, and a restful manner. She is classed by her friends as an intellectual, clever woman, though she is somewhat reserved in her deportment. She is in the fullest accord with her talented husband in all his plans, and her sympathy with his projects has more than once been of the utmost value to him. Her manners are simple and pleasing and her experience has been sufficiently wide to fully equip her for the difficult role she will assume as mistress of Rideau Hall. Their eldest son, Howick, was formerly a lieutenant in the First Life Guards.

Put a new life into you! A strong statement but it is borne out by facts by those who have taken "The D & L" Emulsion; write Miss Black, Supt. Grace Hospital, Toronto, and ask her what she thinks of it.

AN AWFUL TRAGEDY

Boy Kissed His Mother and Then Killed Her.

Luraw, Va., Dec. 9.—Home from a gunning trip after kissing his mother at the door, Bud Stroop, aged thirteen, in putting his gun away, accidentally discharged it and blew his mother's head off.

The accident occurred just while the other children, three brothers and four sisters were in school. When they came home they found their brother almost crazed, running in and out of the house trying aimlessly to do something for his mother, but she had died instantly.

As the children caught sight of the woman's body lying bathed in blood on the floor and her head shattered, an awful wail came from each one, as they stumbled toward her body and kissed the bloody face. Neighbors came and took charge, but it was some time before the poor, motherless children could be pacified.

When your joints are stiff and your muscles are sore from cold or rheumatism, when you sprain or bruise yourself, Perry Davis' Painkiller will take out the soreness and fix you right in a jiffy. Avoid substitutes.

Archibald McKinnon, brother of Gordon McKinnon of St. John, died at Halifax yesterday after injuries received as he tried to board a moving train at Alton, N. S., Tuesday night. He was thirty-three years old and leaves a wife and five children.

The Toronto Globe says the time seems near for the taking over the scars of Halifax and Esquimaux, adding: "Barkis seems to be willing and there should be no difficulty in arranging the matter." In this connection the Globe prints a number of interviews with prominent local military men, who agree that the time has arrived for Canada to garrison Halifax and Esquimaux herself.

BLINDED WITH HEADACHE

People often get blinding headaches that suffer from constipation. Simplest remedy is Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut. They are mild, certain and safe. For headache and biliousness use only Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Price 25c.

Uneasy lies the head that would ignore lies harder.

Mark this distinction: A purely local disease of the skin, like barber's itch, is cured by Weaver's Cerate alone. But where the blood is loaded with impurity, as in Salt Rheum, Weaver's Syrup also should be used.
