THE ROBINSON MURDER.

The Prisoner on Trial for His Life at Kentville.

(Special to Daily Herald.)

Kentville, N. S. July 21.—The court opened in the Robinson murder case here this morning. A lengthy argument ensued as to admission of the deposition made by the prisoner at the coroner's inquest in Berwick. Mr. Wickwire contended that the prisoner made no objection to giving evidence and that under the code such such disposition is admissible. Mr Tufts for the drisoner, argued that the desposition was inadmissionable and cited cases in the support of his contention. The Judge while not quite clear in deciding, said he would rule in favor of defendant and exclude the prisoner's evidence given at the inquest. In deciding the point the judge said the prisoner was entitled to all doubtful points in such a serious case. This was one of the most important points in the case and the defence thus won a big victory.

The balance of the morning was taken up by medical testimony.
