M. FICKLER & CO.'S

WHISKEY JOINT RAIDED.

An Important Capture Made on the Maine Border.

(Woodstock Dispatch.)

There is an interesting edifice on the boundary line between Woodstock and Houlton where two Houlton men, McLean and Russell, engage in the lucrative pastime of selling liquor.

Their building sits on the line, the entrance to it being on the United States side. The thirsty applicant for booze enters the building and passing through the reception room enters another room on Canadian territory. Here in a large cage, made of half inch iron, the booze clerk dispenses the stuff.

The Canadian officers of the law have been trying for some time to catch these lawless men and were only successful a few days ago. When an officer would call on the joint the bar tender was always safe in his iron cage, and had only to open the door at the back of it and step on to United States territory. It was a clever dodge and has been cleverly worked for some time, but the impudent violators of our law were not always to escape.

One day not long ago Inspector Colpitts, Constable Woolverton and Mr. Estey set out to catch the owners and clerk of this boundary line booze joint. Mr. Colpitts had a warrant to search the place, but in order to use it he must first have served on one of the parties a summons on a charge of keeping liquor for sale. Such a summons had never been served and it was difficult to effect a service. However, Estey went on alone, ahead of the other two men, and passing in to the bar asked for a bottle of brandy. He found the bar tender smiling, ready to do business, with a six shooter on the bar within easy reach in case of emergency.

When the bar keeper handed out the bottle Mr. Estey promptly served him with the summons. At that moment the other two officers entered the building armed with the search warrant which they were now able to use.

Constable Woolverton, who had a warrant for the clerk's arrest, took an axe, broke the lock on a door entering the iron cage from the Canadian side, and tried to get him, but the clerk opened the other door and stepped out into the United States.

As the matter stood at the moment the Canadian officers were in charge of that part of the building on this side of the line, with power to search, the clerk was on the other side of the line with a revolver, and the owners of the joint were in Houlton.

The clerk telephoned to McLean & Russell who at once drove to the line and interviewed the inspector from across the International boundary.

The stock of spirituous and fermented was not large, and a search would not have done the country much good, nor have wrought a severe rebuke to McLean & Russell.

Considering this the Inspector was willing that they should plead guilty in four cases, and pay $200.00 and cost, which they did.

A TWO MINUTE CRAMP CURE

That isn't equalled the world over is Nerviline, the greatest relief for cramps and stomach pains ever discovered. Nerviline acts promptly and is very pleasant to take. "I think Nerviline is the finest remedy in the world for colic and cramps" writes W. B. Wilton of Toledo. "When I take Nerviline I know it's going to relieve quickly and for that reason I am never without it. I have found Nerviline good for sick headache and stomach troubles and recommend it for strength and sureness. Excellent for inward use—good to rub on. Price 25c.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

This preparation is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received giving accounts of its good works; of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured of severe colds that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects, and of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough, has shown that it robs that disease of all dangerous results. It is especially prized by mothers because it contains nothing injurious and there is not the least danger in giving it even to babies. It always cures and cures quickly. Sold by all druggists.

How It Affected Him.

Mrs. Brownovich—I understand your husband is seriously ill.
Mrs. Smithinsky—Yes. He's too ill to do anything except make good resolutions.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Croup.

The peculiar cough which indicates croup, is usually well known to the mothers of croupy children. No time should be lost in the treatment of it, and for this purpose no medicine has received more universal approval than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by all druggists.

SUFFERED FOR THREE YEARS.

HEADACHES AND RUSHING OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD.

APPETITE WAS GONE.

TRIED MANY DIFFERENT REMEDIES BUT

MRS. WALTER MANTHORNE, BROOKLYN, N.S.

She says: "I suffered for three years with terrible headaches and rushing of blood to my head. I lost my appetite and became very thin and weak. I tried many different remedies and consulted doctors, but all in vain until I started to use Burdock Blood Bitters. I had not taken more than two bottles when I began to feel better, my appetite improved wonderfully and I increased rapidly in weight. I took altogether four bottles and am now as well as can be, for which I owe my thanks to Burdock Blood Bitters. I can recommend it to all those suffering as I did."
