

JAPS GOT THERE

After two Days Continuous Fighting

THEY WON TWO SEPERATE BATTLES AND PUT ENEMY TO FLIGHT.

Defeat Admitted by the Russians.

(Special to Daily Herald.)

Tokio, Aug. 2, Noon.—After two days fighting General Kuroki has defeated the Russian forces in two separate actions, fought at Yushu-likau and the Yangse Pass.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 2.—It is officially announced that the Russians have fallen back from Yangsee Pass, but are holding their positions on the Saimatza road.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 2.—General Kuropatkin reports that the Japanese have occupied Ikhavuen east of Liao Yang and the Yangsee Pass, thirty miles east of Liao Yang.

His Morning's Despatches.

London, Aug. 1.—A despatch to a news agency from Tokio says there is reason to believe that after two days' fighting the Japanese occupied Simoucheng, thus cutting off General Stakelberg from General Kuropatkin.

General Zassalitch may now command the First Siberian army corps. The loss of General Keller is deeply felt in court circles. He was a personal favorite of the emperor. His sister, Countess Kleimichelle, is one of the leaders of St. Petersburg Society.

Tien Tsin, Aug. 1, 6 p. m.—It is reported here that General Kuroki was successful in the battle fought near Hai Cheng yesterday. Heavy firing was heard at New Chwang today. The Japanese have removed ten electric mines from Liao river and others have been located. A strong Japanese guard has been placed at the Yinkow railroad station.

London, Aug. 2.—The British correspondents with General Kuroki in the field, in brief despatches dated July 31 concur in the statement that the Japanese have carried positions, leaving only one defensible position between them and Liao Yang.

The Standard says: "The attack on the position beyond Motien Pass was fully justified by its success. Every advantage was in favor of the Russians, whose position was strong and force superior, but again they showed inferiority in tactics and in power of resistance. While they made a vigorous stand on our left, they were unable to resist our right."

BOLD ROBBERS.

Held up Train and Secured Valuable Loot.

(Special to Daily Herald.)

Chicago, Aug. 2.—Five masked and heavily armed men boarded the Chicago-St. Louis express of the Illinois Central near Chicago, and held up and robbed all the passengers in two Pullman cars, securing, it is said, over one thousand dollars in cash and valuables.

They then pulled the bell cord and as the train slowed up, they jumped, disappearing in the darkness.

A PARIS JOURNALIST.

Who Has Come Over to Investigate the French Shore Question.

North Sydney, N. S., Aug. 2.—Robert De Caix, who is specially sent out by Journal Des Debats of Paris to write up the Newfoundland French shore question, arrived at North Sydney today from St. Pierre by the Hospital Ship St. Francis De Assisi.

He reported the feeling at St. Pierre quite bitter in connection with the settlement of the French shore dispute, the idea being that Newfoundland got everything. He is of the opinion that a modification will have to be made in the convention.

Speaking of the expulsion of the religious orders from the schools, he said the feeling against the step is still strong.

The French people he continued, are not really anti-religious but anti-clerical and clericalism unfortunately made one plank in the platform of certain politicians who pushed the idea to an unreasonable extent.

CHAMBERLAIN'S DEFENCE.

Says Tariff Question is Ripe for Opinion of the Country.

London, Aug. 2.—In the House of Commons yesterday, the Liberal leader, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, moved the vote of censure which he announced July 15, as a result of the prominent part taken by the leading members of the cabinet in the proceedings of the Liberal Unionist Council, July 14, during which a resolution was passed approving the fiscal policy of Joseph Chamberlain.

Colonial Secretary Littleton, defended the action taken by Foreign Minister Lansdowne and Lord Selborne, first lord of the admiralty, in becoming officers of the new Liberal Unionist Association.

Joseph Chamberlain, in defending himself against the heated attacks of Lord Hugh Cecil and other free traders, declared the only difference between himself and Premier Balfour was that the latter did not think the country would consent to colonial preference, as it involved a food tax.

Personally Mr. Chamberlain said he was certain the question was ripe for submission to the country, and the sooner the general election came the sooner he would be pleased. The policy of preference, Mr. Chamberlain maintained, was more urgent than that of retaliation. The opportunity for establishing preference was slipping away and would soon disappear. He urged Mr. Balfour to call a conference of the colonial representatives to ascertain what they wished and were prepared to do in order that the country might discover whether he had based his policy on knowledge and experience.

At the meeting of the newly constructed Liberal Unionist Council in London, July 14 the Marquis of Lansdowne and the Earl of Selborne were elected vice-presidents.

Premier Balfour said he thought the motion was one of the most foolish which had ever been submitted to parliament. He declined to be a party to restricting representative institutions like the Liberal Unionist Council. He had, he said, always been and still was a free trader but it was the duty of the government to see whether the evils produced by protectionist countries in neutral meetings could be restricted.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman's motion was rejected by a vote of 288 to 210.

It was noticeable that Premier Balfour made no reference whatever to Mr. Chamberlain's suggestion for the calling of a conference of colonial representatives.

The London Evening Standard, in commenting on the meeting, said it considered the fact that the "two principal members of Mr. Balfour's cabinet have become vice-presidents of an active electioneering association, of which Mr. Chamberlain is chief," raised a grave constitutional question. The paper further said that the opposition intended to raise the question in the House of Commons and invite Mr. Balfour to explain how to members of his cabinet came to be supporting a policy so different from that enunciated by the premier himself.

Great Picnic To-morrow.

Everything possible has been done by the committee in charge of St. Mary's picnic to make tomorrow a day of rest and pleasure for their friends. The grounds are tastefully decorated, the different booths brightly decked out with bunting and flags, a handsome band stand erected for the band boys, and to crown all, when the shades of evening fall, the place will be ablaze with electric lights. Amusements and games of all kinds have been provided, so there will be no dearth of fun. Among the booths are a chance table and an apron table. At the chance table many useful and fancy articles, worth three times the sum asked, 10 cents, may be yours if you have the lucky number. Try your luck at it. At the apron table the ladies of the parish have donated good big working aprons and these are given for a mere song, so those wanting working aprons will have a real snap. A peerless cooker given to holder of lucky number. Admission, 15 cents, children, 10 cents. Supper 35 cents. Supper, and a good one, served in the large hall, from 5 till 8.—d

The young man who serves the Sun with Fredericton news says the Conservatives of York have received word to expect a federal general election at an early date, but fails to remark on the effect such intelligence had on the various factions composing the party here. There is nothing York Tories want less just now in their divided condition, than an election.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.
