

POPE TELLS CLERGY

To Refrain From Taking Part in Politics.

DECLARES MISCHIEF IS CAUSED BY INTERFERENCE IN ELECTIONS.

Repeats Advice of Leo XIII.

SAYS THAT WHEN A PRIEST TRIES TO SWAY VOTES HE COMPROMISES HIS SACRED FUNCTIONS.

(Special to Daily Herald.)

Paris, May 6.—Mgr. Lacroix, Bishop of Tarentaise, in a letter to the clergy of his diocese, has given an account of an audience granted to him by the Pope on April 17.

Among the questions discussed was whether the clergy should intervene in electoral conflicts. There were differences of opinion on the subject even between the bishops themselves, some advising abstention and others intervention. Mgr. Lacroix was among the former, basing his attitude upon instructions from Leo XIII.

The bishop has now received similar counsels from Pius X. in almost the same terms. The Pope said:

"When I was Bishop of Mantua and afterward Patriarch of Venice I found that conflicts between the people and the priests almost always originated in some question affecting the elections.

"In those delicate matters the faithful are very susceptible and suspicious. When a priest is tempted to encroach on their independence in order to induce them to vote in a particular way, and above all when he is so imprudent as to reproach them after the elections with having cast their votes on the wrong side he arouses bitter animosity which infallibly compromises his sacred functions.

"Nothing could be more laudable on the part of a priest than to take advantage of his rights as a citizen to vote in accordance with his conscience, but if he should unhappily rush into an electoral fray he would soon lose that esteem and sympathy which he needs for the fruitful exercise of his spiritual mission.

"This rule applies not only to the Italian priests, but to the clergy of all countries in which universal suffrage is in force."

SERMON PROMPTS CONFESSION.

(Special to Daily Herald.)

Dallas, Texas, May 10.—Fred A. Beach of Chicago, who under the name of George A. Collins surrendered at Fort Worth last Tuesday night as a fugitive from justice, has made a written confession to United States District Attorney Atwell of Dallas. According to the confession, Collins was led to give himself up as the result of a sermon by the Rev. George W. Truett of Dallas.

According to a signed confession, Beach robbed a dry goods establishment in Chicago, cashing a $10,000 check and then disappearing. He came to Dallas and married Miss Ethel Miller.

GREAT COW CASE DECIDED.

(Special to Daily Herald.)

Middleton, N. Y., May 10.—The great Curren-Forshee cow case, which has so upset the town of Greenville, Orange County, has been brought to a finish, the fifth trial resulting in a verdict of "no cause of action."

Two years ago John Curren bought three cows of Edward Forshee. He was not pleased with the deal, and sued Forshee for $125, later reducing the amount to $49. Each previous trial resulted in a disagreement of the jury. The whole town was in a turmoil, the inhabitants of the town being about evenly divided. The entire jury list was used up, and it was necessary to start over the list again, taking as jurors those who had been refused before. Each party spent about $500, and the plaintiff would undoubtedly carry the case further if it were possible.

ATTEMPTED POISONING.

Prominent Halifax People the Victims.

Halifax, N. S., May 6.—The house of Charles H. Cahan, a prominent lawyer of Halifax, was robbed last night, and a dastardly attempt was made to poison Mrs. Cahan and Miss Hetherington, her daughter. Four months ago James Rouse, an English immigrant boy, seventeen years old, arrived on a steamer, and secured employment as a servant with Mrs. Cahan. Early this morning, while the family were asleep Mrs. Cahan's room was entered and $125 stolen. On arising Mrs. Cahan discovered her loss. Rouse was also missing. The matter was placed in the hands of the police, and Detective Power ascertained that the boy had left on an early train. The detective proceeded immediately to Truro and found Rouse asleep in a hotel, where he registered at James Burchell. Sixty dollars and a ticket for Winnipeg were found in his possession. Last night, after being served with tea by Rouse, Mrs. Cahan and her daughter became violently ill and medical aid had to be summoned. The house dog also became sick. Tonight a detective searched the room occupied by Rouse, and found a quantity of poisonous drugs, and as a result of the investigation the police convinced that before committing another robbery Rouse attempted to poison the family, and dosed the dog in case he should be discovered at work.

The affair has caused a great sensation, as the Cahans are among the most prominent people in Halifax.

Mr. Cahan is prominently identified with the Mexican Light & Power Co.

A Farmer Cured of Rheumatism.

"A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and told him to use it freely and if not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says C. P. Ryder, of Patten's, Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.'" For sale by all druggists.

FROZE THE FISH.

Bad State of Affairs in Lake Scugog Owing to Hard Winter.

Toronto News.—It is reported that there has been a great slaughter of fish in Lake Scugog during the past winter, owing, it is thought, to the severity of the weather. Early in the season the water became very low and when the cold weather came the lake froze to the bottom. Naturally this killed the fish, and when the ice melted a few weeks ago, the dead fish, many of them maskinonge, rose to the surface and have since created a nuisance. The Provincial Fisheries Department have been notified and officials are now making an investigation.

Could Not Sleep At Night.

Was All Run Down.

Had No Appetite.

FOOD WOULD NOT DIGEST.

Mrs. I. W. Warner, Riverdale, N.S., is glad there is such a remedy as Burdock Blood Bitters.

IT CURED HER AND WILL CURE YOU.

She says: "I wish to add my testimony to the many others who have spoken, so highly as to the unfailing virtues of Burdock Blood Bitters. I was all run down, had no appetite, lost all ambition, could not sleep much and had terrible headache and backache, and my food did not digest properly. I saw B.B.B. advertised, so concluded to give it a trial, thinking if it did no good it could do no harm. But after using one bottle I began to feel better, and by the time I had used three bottles I was feeling like a new person. I am so glad there is such a remedy provided for suffering humanity, and cannot praise it enough for I think there is no medicine like it on the market."
