Other Ceremonies in and About the City.

Colquhoun--McBean.

The nuptials of Rev. J. G. A. Colquhoun, the popular pastor of the Presbyterian church at Millerton, formerly of New Glasgow, N. S. and Miss Annie McBean, only daughter of the late John R. McBean, were celebrated at the bride's home at Taymouth, at five o'clock this afternoon.

The wedding was a quiet only immediate friends and relations being present. Rev. J. C. Robertson of Milltown, was the officiating clergyman, and had the assistance of Rev. Willard MacDonald of this city.

There was no bridesmaid nor groomsmen but little Miss Helen McBean daughter of Mrs. Martin McBean was maid of honor.

At the conclusion of the ceremony a sumptuous wedding repast was served. The bride who is a estimable and popular young lady, was the recipient of a host of beautiful and costly wedding presents.

The happy couple took their departure by the Canada Eastern express for Chatham, en route to Nova Scotia, where the honeymoon will be spent. They will return at the end of three weeks and take up their residence at Millerton. The Herald joins with the many friends of the young couple in wishing them every happiness.

McKay--Howland.

At the Baptist parsonage this morning, Rev. J. H. MacDonald performed the ceremony uniting in marriage Mr. Geo. McKay of Kingsclear, and Miss Nellie Howland, daughter of George Howland of St. Mary's. The happy couple will make their home at Kingsclear.

Grant--Love.

At the Free Baptist parsonage this afternoon, Rev. F. C. Hartley performed the ceremony uniting in marriage, Mr. Harry Grant of Marysville, and Miss Christina Love of the same place. The young couple have many friends who will wish them every happiness.

Cachran--Carr

A quiet wedding took place at Long's Hotel at two o'clock this afternoon, when Mr. Charles A. Cachran and Miss Laura A. Carr, both of Geary, Sunbury County, were united in marriage by Rev. G. B. Trafton, of Marysville.

Booker--Yeomans.

Mr. George Booker of this city and Miss Annie L. Yeomans of Nahwaak, were united in marriage at the Baptist parsonage this afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. MacDonald.

Y. M. C. A. Auxiliary Festival.

The ladies of the Y. M. C. A. are planning for a festival at old government house on July 1st, which will begin at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and last until 8 in the evening, so as not to interfere with other events on that day. There will be games and music, and supper will be served from five to seven, p. m. Other refreshments will be on sale for the benefit of hungry and thirsty mortals. This is an ideal place for an outing and no doubt a large crowd will spend a portion of the day on this historic spot. Admission to the grounds will be 10 cents.

Professional.

Dr. A. Pierce Crockett, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, of St. John, will be at the Queen Hotel, Fredericton, Wednesday, June 15th, where he may be consulted professionally.—d

About Pickles.

15 cents for a bottle of English mixed pickles is a pretty low price, but 95 cents for a gallon jar of the same kind is a little cheaper. G. T. Whelpley is making this offer.—d
