Visiting Oddfellows Hospitably Treated by Local Brethren.

About fifteen members of Milicete Encampment, I. O. O. F., No. 2, of St. John, paid a fraternal visit to Waloostok Encampment of this city last Thursday evening, on which occasion a very enjoyable evening was spent in song, speech-making and instrumental music.

The newspaper fraternity was ably represented by J. L. Steward, of the Chatham World, and H. E. Codner, of the St. John Globe, both of whom delivered very interesting and witty addresses.

During the evening light refreshments and cigars were served and a jolly time was spent by all in pleasant conversation.

The affair broke up about midnight and all present expressed themselves as having spent a very delightful evening.

These fraternal visits are certainly very beneficial to the order.

MR. BLACK'S FRIENDS

Will be Pleased to Hear he is Doing so Well---Interesting Letter from Dawson.

When a detachment of the R. C. R. of this city was sent to the Yukon country some years ago, Mr. Thomas Patchell was of the number, and after serving out his time in the corps he retired, settling at Dawson city, and engaging in mining and other enterprises, and meeting with good success. Mrs. Patchell remained with her friends in this part of the country until last February, when she left Fredericton to join her husband in a nice home he had made for her in the golden north. The lady made the journey in safety, her numerous friends will be glad to hear, and in compliance with a request from the Herald before her departure, for information of her trip, Mrs. Patchell writes her favorite home newspaper as follows:

Dawson City March 7.—I arrived here safe and well on March 4, having made the trip from Fredericton in twenty-three days, and enjoying it very much indeed. I met two ladies at Vancouver coming this way, and this added much to the pleasure of the journey, and there were also several gentlemen in our party. We had very pleasant weather right through, although some mornings the thermometer showed 50 below zero. We were well prepared, however, for the cold and did not feel uncomfortable. Sixty miles of the trip were made by stage from White Horse to Dawson.

My husband met me on my arrival, and I found him looking very well after his five years residence here. He had a comfortable home ready for me, and I think I shall like it here very much.

Dawson is quite a large city with some beautiful residences, much prettier than any in Fredericton, and handsome stores with everything in them that could be mentioned, and you would indeed be surprised at the variety and value of the stocks.

I have already met quite a number of former Fredericton people, among them Mr. and Mrs William Black. They look real well and their sons are fine young men doing well.

I also met Mr. John Black, ex-M.P.P., formerly of Fredericton. He is looking real well, has not changed much, is well liked out here, and is doing a good business.

We are having very nice weather, and I am told that the summers are beautiful, with three months all daylight.

Yours, etc.,
S. E. PATCHELL.

Makes Both Bread and Pastry.

Ogilvie's "Royal Household" flour is said to be good for both bread and pastry. As a bread flour for home baking it is without doubt the best ever sold in this country. The cost, of course, is a bit higher than ordinary flour, but the quality of the bread or pastry made from it is well worth the difference.

STUDENTS ENTERTAINED.

Members for Carleton Made it Pleasant for Constituents' Sons and Daughters.

The University, Business College and Normal School students from the county of Carleton were very pleasantly entertained at the residence of Mrs. David Hatt last Thursday evening by the Messrs. Flemming, Smith and Jones, the representatives from that county. There were about forty present who thoroughly enjoyed the evening. Whist and other popular games were provided. Mr. Morehouse was present with his phonograph and added wonderfully to the evening's entertainment. Light refreshments were served. Misses Kathleen Hatt and Beatrice Payson very charmingly carried out the duties of waiters and were very attentive to the wants of the assembled guests.

During the evening Mr. Flemming, on behalf of his colleagues, presented the students with a group phorograph of the members of the Legislature. Much regret was felt at the absence of Mr. Smith, who was compelled to leave for home Thursday morning on urgent business.

A vote of thanks was moved by Mr. Bedell of the University and seconded by Mr. Stevens of the Business College, for the kindness extended by the honorable gentlemen to which Messrs. Flemming and Jones made very eloquent and witty replies.

A letter of regret was sent to Miss Tompkins, who was unable to be present on account of illness.

The jolly party broke up at midnight and was voted one of the most pleasant functions of the season.
