

Dr. Wood's

Norway Pine Syrup

Cures Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Croup, Asthma, Pain or Tightness in the Chest, Etc.

It stops that tickling in the throat, is pleasant to take and soothing and healing to the lungs. Mr. E. Bishop Brand, the well-known Galt gardener, writes:—I had a very severe attack of sore throat and tightness in the chest. Some times when I wanted to cough and could not I would almost choke to death. My wife got me a bottle of DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP, and to my surprise I found speedy relief. I would not be without it if it cost $1.00 a bottle, and I can recommend it to everyone bothered with a cough or cold. Price 25 Cents.

THE GRAND PROMOTER

Major Crofoot Has No Ready Cash, but Millions In the Future.

[Copyright, 1903, by C. B. Lewis.]

THE German tailor had made a timid call on Major Crofoot, grand promoter and general schemer, with a little bill for repairs to a suit, and as the major received and glanced at the bill he said:

"My dear Mr. Schwartzhammer, this bill is made out in a business way and footed up correctly. It specifies that I owe you 90 cents for services rendered. I do not dispute it. On the contrary, I admit the indebtedness and will now proceed to discharge it and show my gratitude at the same time. I propose to take you into one of the most gigantic schemes of the age with me and divide the profits."

"I like my 90 cent," replied the tailor as he looked puzzled and perplexed.

"You shall have them, my dear man, and millions more on top of them. Listen to me. I am about to contract for the entire huckleberry crop of next year at 7 cents a quart and raise the price to 20. The estimated crop is 98,672,235 quarts; net profits, $890,000. A clean, tidy business, with no tar or grease to soil your hands and quick returns on capital invested. No politics or religion in it, and the public must have huckleberries no matter what the price. Capital stock limited to $50,000 and all shares nonassessable. Apply at once. All shareholders entitled to huckleberries at contract prices. You shall come in with me, and we will make an even whack of expenses and profits. I shall want $100 from you to help incorporate the concern. Can you pay it today?"

"You—you mean I was to give you one hoovered dollar?" stammered the creditor as his hair fairly stood up.

"Yes; that will do at present, provided you want to make about $250,000 during the next year. Perhaps, however, you don't want to waste your time on such small potatoes. If not let me call your attention to another sure thing strictly original with me. It is to buy 20,000 acres of New Jersey marsh lands and cultivate celery. The title of the organization is to be the Great Unlimited New Jersey Celery Growers' association. Our capital will be limited, but our celery will not.

"You can see for yourself what there is in it. Twenty thousand acres at $2 per acre is $40,000. Each acre will raise $60 worth of celery, making the season's crop turn in $1,250,000. Say it takes the $200,000 to pay for seed and labor and sundries, and yet there is a cool million to divide between us. Don't printing in colors. If you can bring me in $150 this afternoon as your half of the expenses of incorporation and buying postage stamps I will be ready to select the land and close a deal next week. What do you say?"

"I—I don't understand her," replied the tailor. "You owe me 90 cent, but you don't pay."

"That is a concise statement of the case, my dear Mr. Schwartzhammer—that is, I do not pay ready cash, but in place of it I offer you a fortune in the immediate future. Perhaps you do not care to go into huckleberries or celery? We all have our little idioms, you know. Very well."

"I now call your attention to the Great American Matrimonial and Trust company. A person, either male or female, desiring to enter into the bonds of wedlock calls at the office and leaves name and particulars and pays a fee of from $25 to $250 to be guaranteed. No sparking, no jealousy, no loss of time. Marriages brought about within an hour if so desired. Parties afterward supplied with money for the bridal tour and set up in house-keeping on the installment plan. Dispositions most positively guaranteed. No fear of marrying a drunkard on the one hand or a bleached blond on the other. Mothers-in-law kept at a safe distance or put out of the way entirely. Every marriage warranted for ten years if rules and regulations are lived up to. Are you catching on, my friend?"

"I bring in a bill for 90 cent," replied the tailor, "and you put him down on der desk."

"Just so, but let us continue a little farther and see where our millions are coming from. There are in the United States at this moment 478,245 mar-

The Elopement Philosopher.

"We're going to miss getting a roomful of presents, George," said the dear girl as she eloped with the youth of her choice.

"Yes," he cheerfully replied, "and we're going to bear the loss with a good deal of philosophy, when we remember that we don't have to give a roomful of presents in return."

Both Sides of It.

She—It's lots of fun to flirt with a man till you get him to propose, and then say "No."

He—Yes. And it's lots of fun for the man, too, but he runs an awful risk. She—How's that?

He—She might fool him and say "Yes."

Heaven's Monotony.

"But don't you want to go to heaven?" asked the Sunday school teacher, shocked and grieved.

"Nope," said the bad boy of the class. "There won't be nobody there but women and preachers."

Willing to Demonstrate.

"Tommy," said his distressed mother, "I don't see how you can get so dirty." "Come on out and I'll show you," was the prompt reply.

We don't know what it means to "bow to the inevitable," unless it means to take off one's hat to one's wife.—Atchison Globe.

Demosthenes.

Demosthenes took poison which for years he had carried about with him in a pen. He was disgusted at the tickleness and folly of the Athenians.

For Stomach Troubles.

"I have taken a great many different medicines for stomach trouble and constipation," says Mrs. S. Geiger, of Duck-rion, Iowa, "but never had as good results from any as from Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets." For sale by all druggists.

Shouting Isn't Proving

In the matter of the so-called Catarrh Cures: Others prate and promise; we perform and prove.

Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder

is a powder put in the nostril, not in the mouth. It is not a remedy but the cure, and the healing effect is felt at once. The breath will come freely, filling the system with a new vigor. Colds and Catarrh are relieved, and headache fully cured in ten minutes.

Catarrh of twenty years' standing cured in a few days.

Hon. George Taylor, the well known politician, of Scranton, Pa., writes:

Effect of Dr. AGNEW'S CATARRHAL POWDER can truly say was magical. First application cleared my head instantly. I used it according to directions, and I have not had the slightest symptoms since."

DR. AGNEW'S LIVER PILLS

make even a high liver a long liver. For dullness of the skin, eruptions, languor and bowel irregularities, every pill is as good as a physician, although they cost only ten cents for forty doses. 18.

SHOT GUN

- PRESCRIPTION -

We suppose we are not revealing any trade secrets when we say that many medicines are made up on the principle of the so-called "Shot Gun" Prescriptions, which were formerly somewhat in vogue. The idea of the Shot Gun Prescriptions was to put into a medicine a large number of different drugs, each useful for different purposes, in the hope that some of them might hit the case.

The most successful physicians we know use a more direct method. The medicine we sell under our own name, and guarantee, does the same. This medicine is called Staples' Dyspepsia Remedy.

It is the best remedy we know of for Dyspepsia in all forms, such as Indigestion, Costiveness, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Water Brach, Sick Headache and all the terrible diseases caused by Dyspepsia. It is not a scattering "Shot Gun" Prescription but it goes straight to the mark, and has cured so many people right here in town, that it gives us confidence to sell it on an absolute guarantee, as follows: If you use a bottle and it does not help you, we will give you your money back without a word of complaint. We could not afford to guarantee it so boldly if we had not seen it succeed ninety-eight out of every one hundred cases.
