Young Tartars Won.

The base ball match at Scully's grove last evening between the young and old Tartars, resulted in a defeat for the latter. The score was 13 to 9. It was a good game and was witnessed by a large crowd of spectators.

Town Topics.

The A. F. Scammon Company put on "Town Topics" at the Opera House last evening in the presence of a large audience. It is a sparkling comedy and all the parts were well taken. The singing and dancing specialties were quite up to the average.

Military Matters.

The last militia general order announces the appointment of Capt. Nagle as adjutant of No. 4 Regimental Depot, in succession to Capt. Lister, seconded for duty in the signalling service. Capt. Nagle's many friends are congratulating him on his well deserved promotion.

The first recruit for the engineering detachment of the R. C. R. arrived yesterdey from St. John, where he was enlisted by Col. White. A detachment of engineers is to be enlisted at all the regimental depots, and they will be known as the Royal Canadian engineers.

Must Leave Town.

At the police Court this morning two women named Emily Allen and Charlotte Thompson were before the police magistrate for disorderly conduct on St. John street. They stated that they had formerly belonged to Keswick. His Honor gave them until Wednesday morning to leave the city, and stated if they were found here after that time he would have them sent to jail.

Two cases for violation of the Canada Temperance Act were before the court and stood over until Tuesday the 27th, when a number of cases from outside the city will also be taken up.

A Crack Rifle Shot.

The weekly spoon match of the York County Rifle Association was held at St. Mary's on Saturday and was won by Lt. Col. Loggie with the magnificent score of 94 points, made at queen's ranges. He put on 31 at 200 yards, 31 at 500, and wound up with 32 at 600. His last shot at the 600 yards range was a magpie, a sharp gust of wind having carried him to the left. The popular colonel has long been regarded as one of the crack shots of the Dominion and his work of Saturday would seem to prove that his rifle eye is as keen as ever. Other scores in the match were Sydney Thomas 84, Arthur Pringle 83 and Jack Neill 82.

A MUSICAL TREAT.

Mr. Lemont's Organ Recital was Greatly Enjoyed.

The Baptist church held an audience of music loving people last evening, to hear the organ recital given by Mr. L. A. Wilmot Lemont, the talented young organist of this city, assisted by Mr. L. W. Titus, tenor soloist of St. John. Mr. Lemont is not a stranger to Fredericton audiences, but he was never heard to better advantage than last evening, when he played with great taste and feeling. His selections were well chosen, pleasing in their variety, and rendered in a manner which was greatly enjoyed and showed very clearly that Mr. Lemont is a most accomplished organist. His selections were all very popular, but Mendelssohn's Spring song and Adagio from 1st organ sonate were particularly enjoyable. Two other choice selections were Lemare's Andantina in D flat and The Answer by Wolstenholme, in which the soft effects of the organ was shown by Mr. Lemont to the best advantage. A selection from Wagner's Lohengrin was also delightful. In this the soft effect was also shown, and the rich, full, sonorous tones of the new organ was well displayed.

Mr. Lemont was fortunate in having the assistance of Mr. Titus of St. John, who is always heard with pleasure in Fredericton. His sweet, rich, sympathetic voice was heard to great advantage last evening and his selections were all enjoyed, particularly his rendition of Face to Face. Mr. Lemont is to be congratulated on the success of his recital.

A STEAMBOAT GRIEVANCE.

The Majestic Does Not Hold Out Much Inducement to Water Wagonites.

Passengers from St. John to this city by the steamers of the Star Line complain that some of the accommodations on the Majestic are scarcely up to the standard of a first class up to date boat. One gentleman who made the trip to Fredericton on a recent warm day, from a point near St. John, declares that he suffered all the way up for a good drink of water. To be sure there was some water on the boat, he said, but it was from the river and being without ice was totally unfit for drinking purposes. Then the condition of the tank in which the water was kept and the mug attached it, were not very inviting, to say the least. The gentleman's statement in regard to the water, or rather the lack of water, was borne out by others who were passengers on the day in question.

As the Herald has frequently pointed out, the Majestic is altogether inadequate for the river service, but there is no reason in the world why she should not carry a supply of decent drinking water for the convenience of her patrons. We feel that it is only necessary to call the attention of Manager Orchard to this grievance in order to have steps taken to remove it.

GEE BAPTIZED.

Geremony Was Performed in Woodstock Jail Last Night.

A Woodstock despatch of the 18th says: George Gee, condemned to die on Friday, for the murder of his cousin, was this evening baptized in jail by Rev. Mr. Currier, an adventist.

The baptism was effected through means of a large tank, placed in the jail corridor.

The condemned man expressed true repentance and said he did not fear death.

Radcliffe, who is to hang Gee, was expected to arrive tonight, but did not come. Sheriff Hayward was at the station on arrival of the train, besides many people, filled with morbid curiosity, but all were disappointed.

Radcliffe did not even send a message of explanation. The scaffold is not yet erected, and no preparations have been made.
