

WEDDING BELLS.

The Limerick--McFarlane Nuptials at St. Mary's.

CAPTAIN NAGLE'S SISTER MARRIED AT WINDSOR.

An Out of Doors Ceremony at Harvey.

McFarlane--Limerick.

A pretty house wedding and one that was looked forward to with interest for some time was celebrated at the residence of Mrs. Walter McFarlane, St. Marys, at seven o'clock last evening, when Mrs. McFarlane's youngest daughter, Miss Nellie Tilley McFarlane was united in marriage to Mr. Walter Limerick, attorney at law, and second son of Mr. Joshua Limerick of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Willard Macdonald in the presence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties.

The bride who was unattended was attired in a beautiful gown of white silk and presented a very winsome appearance.

After the ceremony a wedding repast was served after which the happy young couple drove to this city and took the nine o'clock train for St. John, whence they sailed by the "Calvin Austin" this morning to Boston. They will visit several cities in the United States and return in about three weeks.

The bride received a large number of handsome and costly presents. The bridegroom's present was a handsome sunburst of pearls and the presents from the parents of the bride and bridegroom were checks.

On their return from their wedding tour Mr. and Mrs. Limerick will reside with Mrs. McFarlane at her residence at St. Mary's.

Nagle--Sangster.

A great amount of interest was manifested in the wedding at Christ Church Wednesday, says a Windsor, N. S. despatch to the Halifax Chronicle, of W. H. Sangster, one of our most prominent barristers and son of Dr. Sangster, Sackville, N. S., and Miss Nagle, daughter of the late Colonel Richard Nagle formerly stationed at Halifax, and sister of Capt. Nagle of the R. C. R., Fredericton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. Weston Jones, assisted by Rev. W. H. Bullock, formerly Chaplain to H. M. Forces at Halifax.

The friends of the bride decorated the church most artistically with ferns and palms, and it was crowded to the doors.

The bride, who was gowned in a charming creation of cream brocade with Limerick lace flounce, and wearing a veil of Limerick lace which was worn by her mother on her wedding day, was given away by her brother-in-law, Mr. A. E. Jones, of Halifax, owing to the unavoidable absence of the bride's brother, Capt. Nagle, of the R. C. R. I., Fredericton.

The bridesmaids, Miss Albro, daughter of Mr. John E. Albro, Halifax, and Miss Kathleen Jones, niece of the bride, came in for an equal share of admiration, in beautiful gowns of champagne voile over reed green with lace trimmings caught up with diamond and pearl pins, the gift of the groom. His present to the bride was a handsome diamond and pearl star.

Mr. E. N. Rhodes, barrister of Amherst and Mr. W. Gerald Hamilton, of the Canadian Bank of Commerce staff at Windsor, supported the groom.

After the ceremony the party drove to the home of the bride's mother, and partook of refreshments. The bride's traveling dress was a pastel green cloth with white and gold trimmings and she wore a pretty green rose hat. The wedding trip will include a visit to Toronto, Washington, New York and the World's Fair at St. Louis.

Grieve--Speedy.

Our Harvey Station correspondent writes:

The residence of Mrs. Annie Grieve was the scene of a large and festive gathering Wednesday afternoon, the occasion being the marriage of her eldest daughter Charlotte Louise, to Mr. Geo. A. Speedy of Manners-Sutton.

The ceremony was performed by Rev.

J. A. McLean in the open air in front of the house in the presence of upwards of one hundred guests. The bride was attired in a costume of white cashmere and looked admirable.

The tea tables were tastefully arranged outside and splendidly spread and ample justice was done to the good things thereon.

The bride's popularity was attested by the large number of valuable presents she received. These included articles of silver, china and glassware. She also received some pieces of furniture, among which was a handsome polished maple side-board given by some of the young people at the station.

The weather was ideal for a wedding day and a very enjoyable time was spent at games and dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Speedy will reside at Manners-Sutton.

Financial Reports Submitted to Congregational Meeting

SHOWED ANOTHER YEAR OF PROSPERITY.

Substantial Balance and Debt Nearly Wiped Out.

NEW TRUSTEE BOARD.

There was a good attendance at the annual congregational meeting of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in the old Kirk last night, and the financial reports presented were of a most satisfactory character. Trustees were elected for the current year, and the pleasing announcement was made that the congregation is entirely free from debt with the exception of a $1,000 debenture on the new church, which is not due until July 1, 1905. There is one to be taken up the first of next month, but funds are in hand for the purpose. All the societies in connection with the church were also shown to be in a sound financial condition.

Mr. L. W. Johnston, occupied the chair at last night's meeting, and the first business was the reception of the Trustees' Financial Report.

The total receipts from all sources for the year ending May 31st last, including balances left over from last year amounted to $5,521.05, and the expenditures were $4,738.29.

In Detail.

For the current expenses of the church the receipts were $3,793.13, and the expenditures the same. The receipts included envelope collections $843.15; loose collections, $606.72; pew rents, $1,198.75.

The session received $487, and have a balance to credit of $22.83. Among the expenditures were: for foreign missions $120, home missions $90, augmentation fund, $80, college fund, $50, French evangelization, $15, foreign missions debt fund $38.

The Sunday school's receipts were $262.30, and there was a balance to credit of $9.51.

The Ladies Aid Society, with a balance in their favor of $317.54, to start the year raised $337.53 during the past year and have now a balance of $550.23.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society's receipts were $147.95, and their expenditure a like amount.

The Christian Endeavor Society raised $69.17, and have a balance of $2.87.

The Benevolent Society's receipts were $73.80, including a former balance and their cash on hand is $47.37.

The Senior Mission Band's receipts were $32 and cash in hand $2.

Supplementary Reports.

The reports were received and adopted, and as a supplementary report of the Sunday School Superintendent, S. H. McFarlane, reported that the number of officers is 7, teachers 15, scholars enrolled 222, average attendance 148.

Mrs. Geo. W. Hodge, treasurer of the 20th century fund, reported $913.35 to meet the $1,000 debenture due July 1st next, and that the balance required $86.65, is in sight. Mrs. Hodge's work in connection with raising the fund, was warmly commended by the chairman and others.

New Trustee Board.

The meeting then proceeded to the election of the board of trustees for the ensuing year, and those chosen were:

J. H. Dickson, T. G. Loggie, O.

S. Crockett, Ald. J. S. Scott, L. C. Macnutt, Joseph Walker, Jas. R. Howie, H. M. Campbell, E. A. McKay, W. L. McFarlane, Geo. W. Hodge, W. R. Logan.
