

WEALTH FOR YOU BECAUSE HEALTH FOR YOU.

Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder

Only 50 cents for bottle and tube, and is worth—as much as your life is worth. Catarrh kills thousands through colds, bronchitis, pneumonia and consumption, and Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder cures all of them when other prescriptions have failed. It will relieve colds and catarrh and cure headache in ten minutes.

FRED H. HELB, JR., the well known distiller of Railroad, York Co., Pa., states:—"I have had catarrh of the head and stomach for two years in the worst form. I tried all the medicines I ever heard of, but without relief. I used two bottles of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder. It cured me entirely. I am now a well man."

In thirty minutes Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart will add strength to that organ. Feeding the body by a full supply of blood it fills life with the old time vigor.

TO EXPLOIT DEAD SEA.

French Engineers Considering Various Projects.

The London Daily Express of December 26th had the following from Paris: French engineers are at work on three different projects for exploiting the Dead Sea for industrial purposes. The level of the Dead Sea being more than 1,300 feet below that of the Mediterranean and Red Sea, it is thought by connecting either of these two seas by means of a canal with the Red Sea a stream of water would flow with a velocity calculated to produce some 52,000 horse-power. There would be no danger, it is asserted, of an overflowing of the Dead Sea, for the waters there evaporate at so great a rate (6,000,000 tons a day) that the incoming waters would make no appreciable difference in the level. One project is to start the canal from the Bay of Acre, lead it southwards past Mount Taber, and let it join at Baisan the waters of the Jordan.

Another plan is to build the canal along the railway line from Jaffa to Jerusalem. But this would mean blasting a tunnel of some 37 miles through the mountains of Old Judaea. The third project, the cheapest, proposes to start at Akaba, in the Red Sea, and pass through the desert of Wady-el-Jebel. Having obtained power in this manner it is thought many industrial works would be carried on.

Words and Ideas.

Definite words are necessary for the expression of definite ideas; hence scientific terms have to be employed. A term has one definite meaning which does not change with time. The rush of affairs drifts words from their original meanings, as ships drag their anchors in a gale, but terms sheltered from common use hold to their moorings forever. The word "let," for example, has drifted in 200 years from meaning "hinder" until now it means "permit," but the term "bisect" has remained unaltered in significance for centuries.—Engineering Record.

Children and Play.

Play distinguishes the higher from the lower animals, and it signifies possibility of education. Fishes do not play at all, the lower mammals can hardly be taught to play, and birds are entirely devoid of the instinct. But the kitten and the lamb are essentially playing animals. The human young, however, are the true players, and in reality it is play that develops them into manhood. "Children," says Dr. Hutchinson, "are born little amorphous bundles of possibilities and are played into shape."

A Wyoming Mound.

In Wyoming is a mound of rock and earth standing alone in the middle of a plain called Church butte. It is of most fantastic shape and looks in the distance like the ruins of some grand old cathedral.

Dislocated Her Shoulder.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Fergus Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep which she had not done for several days. For sale by all druggists.

Mr. Monk, the Absentee.

Mr. Monk still declines to fraternize with Mr. Tarte. The head of the Conservative party in Canada held a meeting at Richmond yesterday and had to apologize for Mr. Monk's absence. Among the speakers was Hon. Mr. Tarte. Still the leader of the opposition forgot his own political troubles long enough to point out, as a report says, that "the hesitancy of the government in announcing the date of the elections was not a sign of unity and strength among those who constitute the administration." Mr. Borden is to be congratulated upon his cheerful disposition, which enables him to look beyond his own troubles and see what he imagines to be those of his opponents. The elections may be held any time within the next two years. That Mr. Borden considers delay in bringing them on a sign of disruption is another manifestation of that great political sagacity his followers delight in attributing to him.

Whether uncertainty about the election date or uncertainty about Mr. Monk, the Conservative leader for Quebec, is the more striking indication of something wrong, the public is a fairly competent judge.—Montreal Herald.

Origin of the Bowery.

Even many native New Yorkers do not know how the Bowery came by its name, according to the Pittsburgh Dispatch, which thus proceeds to their enlightenment: No less a person than the famous old one-legged Governor Peter Stuyvesant was responsible for it.

When the city of New Amsterdam sprang into existence many farmers from Holland came over to seek their fortune in the new world, among them old Peter. They settled outside the town and proceeded to develop the land by clearing away the woods and planting it with grain, fruit trees and ornamental shrubs they had brought with them. Peter Stuyvesant called his residence and grounds the Bouwerie, and the lane connecting it with New Amsterdam became known as Bouwerie lane, the settlement itself taking the name of Bouwerie village. Stuyvesant's farm extended from the junction of what is now Third and Fourth avenues to Seventeenth street and eastward to Second avenue, where at the corner of Tenth street his home was located.

Laugh and Grow Fat.

"Laugh and grow fat" is an old saying, and there is more than a little truth in it, asserts a doctor. "The convulsive movements which we call laughter exert a very real effect upon the bodily framework. They cause the arteries to dilate, so that they carry more blood to the tissues of the body and the heart to beat more rapidly, so that the flow of the blood through the vessels is hastened. In other words, laughter promotes the very best conditions for an increase of the vital processes; the tissues take up more nutritive material and the waste products are more promptly removed. A good laugh sends an increased flow of blood to the brain; this immediately causes that instrument of thought to work better, with the result that gloomy forebodings are sent packing."

Stomach Troubles.

A disordered stomach may cause no end of trouble. When the stomach fails to perform its functions the bowels become deranged, the liver and kidneys congested, causing numerous diseases, the most fatal of which are painless and therefore the more to be dreaded. The important thing is to restore the stomach and liver to a healthy condition, and for this purpose no better preparation can be used than Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by all druggists.

SHOT GUN - PRESCRIPTION -

We suppose we are not revealing any trade secrets when we say that many medicines are made up on the principle of the so-called "Shot Gun" Prescriptions, which were formerly somewhat in vogue. The idea of the Shot Gun Prescriptions was to put into a medicine a large number of different drugs, each useful for different purposes, in the hope that some of them might hit the case.

The most successful physicians we know use a more direct method. The medicine we sell under our own name, and guarantee, does the same. This medicine is called Staples' Dyspepsia Remedy.

It is the best remedy we know of for Dyspepsia in all forms, such as Indigestion, Costiveness, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Water Brach, Sick Headache and all the terrible diseases caused by Dyspepsia. It is not a scattering "Shot Gun" Prescription but it goes straight to the mark, and has cured so many people right here in town, that it gives us confidence to sell it on an absolute guarantee, as follows: If you use a bottle and it does not help you, we will give you your money back without a word of complaint. We could not afford to guarantee it so boldly if we had not seen it succeed ninety-eight out of every one hundred cases.
