

GOVERNMENT'S REPLY

To the Request of Temperance Men.

PROVINCIAL PROHIBITION IS NOT CONSIDERED PRACTICAL.

The local government has given the temperance representatives an answer to their request for prohibition, or failing that, amendments to the license law.

The reply is over the signature of Premier Tweedie, and in part is as follows:

"It is proper that I should first acquaint you with the opinion entertained by the Committee of Council in regard to the wisdom of enacting a prohibitory law. This question has from time to time received the most serious consideration of the government, which is sincerely desirous of promoting the cause of temperance, and recognizes that the members of the Legislature, as well as the people of the province generally whose wishes they not only desire, but are bound to respect, are animated by the same feeling.

The Committee of Council, however, does not feel that a prohibitory law can be satisfactorily enforced throughout the province, and in the opinion of the committee it is unwise to place among the statutes any law which cannot be enforced. Such a course would certainly tend to bring about a disregard for other laws necessary for the well-being of society. I would call your attention to the fact that the Canada Temperance Act, from which so much was expected, and which has undoubtedly produced good results in certain localities, more especially in the rural districts, is in many places, particularly in cities and towns, openly violated, and in some places, by the tacit consent of local authorities, the payment of fines, periodically exacted, has taken the place of fees under the License Act. The Canada Temperance Act is in force in most of the Counties of the Province, and if the people were so minded, it could be brought into operation in all.

"The Committee of Council has been forced to the conclusion that the better course to pursue, in the true interest of temperance, is to prevent the issue of licenses in localities where the sentiment in favor of prohibition is sufficiently strong to warrant the expectation that the prohibitory clauses of the statute will be enforced, and in several sections of the province this course has been pursued, with, I am pleased to be able to state, very satisfactory results. It seems to the committee that it would be better to move slowly in the direction of prohibition, and allow the people to exercise their right of local option under the present law, than to repeat the experiment of enacting a general prohibitory law, which was, as you are aware, once tried in this province, with results which were very discouraging to the then most sincere friends of temperance."

Here follows a detailed reference to the amendments proposed to the license law, with a number of which the government agrees.

RUSH—MOORE.

Pretty Wedding Celebrated This Morning at St. Dunstan's Church.

St. Dunstan's church was the scene of a very pretty, but quiet wedding at 5.30 o'clock this morning, when Miss Alice Moore, the fourth daughter of ex-Ald and Mrs. John Moore was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Benjamin J. Rush, a popular and highly esteemed young resident of St. Mary's.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, was charmingly gowned in a handsome blue Venetian cloth travelling suit trimmed with Persian band trimming, also blue buttons, and wore a very pretty white felt hat trimmed green, and looked very winsome and pretty. She was attended by Miss Annie Rush, sister of the groom, who was most becomingly attired in blue voile trimmed with lace and applique and wore a large picture hat to match. Mr. Michael Moore brother of the bride, was groomsmen. After the marriage ceremony had been performed Rev. Father Carney gave the young couple some excellent advice and his best wishes for their future happiness.

Notwithstanding the early hour a large number of the friends of the young couple were present at the interesting ceremony. The invited guests which included only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom repaired to the home of the bride's parents where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was partaken of, after which the young couple took their departure by the 6.25 train for a trip to Bangor. On their return they will reside in this city. The bride, who is one of the city's fairest, most popular esteemed and lovable young ladies, was the recipient of a host of magnificent and costly wedding presents, testifying in a slight measure to her great popularity among her friends in this city and elsewhere.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
