ALBERT MILLS BURNED.

Wright & Co's Valuable Property at Little River Prey to the Flames.

FIRE BELIEVED TO BE WORK OF INCENDIARY WHO SOUGHT REVENGE.

Large Number of Men Thrown Out of Employment.

Moncton, July 10.—(Special)—Wright's lumber mills, situated at Little River, Albert county, three or four miles from Salisbury, were burned down yesterday morning.
Few particulars of the fire are obtainable. The mills were built by A. L. Wright, fifteen years ago, and recently passed into the hands of A. L. Wright Co.
The mills employed a large number of hands. The loss is probable $20,000. Insurance, it is thought, is about $10,000 or $12,000.
A. L. Wright, and his son, L. W. Wright, were the principal owners of the property. Some lumber was also burned.
It is thought that the fire was of incendiary origin, and suspicion rests on a tramp who was held at Salisbury on the charge of stealing a horse from A. L. Wright.
The prisoner, who was being guarded by two men in a hotel in the village, escaped between four and five o'clock on Sunday morning, and the fire occurred about three hours later. He escaped by tearing up the sheets, and lowering himself out of the second story window, and at last accounts he was still at large.

AN ASSASSIN'S PREY.

Prominent Rancher Decoyed to Deserted Cabin and Murdered.

Cheyenne, Wyo., July 10.—(Special)—According to information received at Thermopolis, Bob McCoy, a well known rancher residing at Big Horn River, above Thermopolis, has been killed by an assassin, who decoyed him to a deserted cabin and shot him in the back as he was about to enter.
The body was then weighted with stones and sunk in the river.
Several times during the past two months McCoy has received anonymous letters warning him, to leave the country and threatening his life.
In each of the messages the statement was made that it had become necessary to kill him.
One of his ears would be cut off so that others who had been warned to leave might know how he came to his death.
One of the ears of the corpse is missing.
Indignation is high and every effort will be made to capture the assassin.

JUMPED TO HIS DEATH.

Tragic End of a New York Man Who Jumped from Fourth Story Window to Escape Flames.

New York, July 10.—(Special)—Arthur Neely, of Chicago, a brother of F. Tennyson Neely, publisher, was killed in a fire which destroyed his boarding house on East 44th street early today.
Neely, to escape what he thought would be death by flames, jumped from a fourth story window and landed on his head, and died on his way to the hospital.
F. Tennyson Neely saw his brother killed. Arthur slept on the top of fourth floor of the burning building. His escape was cut off and he cried from his window for help, while his brother on the roof of bay windows on the third story implored him not to jump.
When the frenzied man could restrain himself no longer, his brother dragged a mattress out on the roof of the bay window for him to jump on, but he missed it and rolled to the street where he struck on his head.

A MONCTON WEDDING.

Mr. Seymour Peters and Miss Thompson United in Holy Wedlock.

Moncton, July 10.—(Special)—The marriage took place at twelve o'clock today of Seymour Peters, son of Joseph Peters, to Miss Annie Thompson, daughter of the late C. D. Thomson, cashier of the I. C. R.
The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's brother-in-law, A. E. Holstead, and was performed by Rev. D. MacOdrum, pastor of St. John's Presbyterian church.
Mr. and Mrs. Peters left on the Ocean Limited on an extended tour to the west.

BUTLER'S SUCCESSOR.

Macpherson of the C. P. R. Appointed Assistant Chief Engineer of Transcontinental Railway.

Ottawa, July 10.—(Special)—Mr.

Macpherson, engineer of the C. P. R. has been appointed assistant engineer of the National Transcontinental Railway, in the place vacated by M. J. Butler, who is to become deputy minister of railways and chief engineer of canals.

YORK COUNTY BRIDE.

Wedding Ceremony Celebrated at Beaulah Camp Grounds.

YOUNG COUPLE WILL SPREAD GOSPEL AMONG THE HEATHEN.

Brown's Flats, July 10.—(Special).—Two young people who have consecrated their lives and talents to the work of spreading the gospel among the heathen, were united in matrimonial bonds at Beulah camp tabernacle, Brown's Flats, Saturday evening.
The wedding, which was witnessed by an audience that filled the sacred edifice to overflowing on to the camp grounds, was the culminating feature of a series of very interesting missionary services.
A silver collection was taken up as a result of which the funds of the Reformed Baptist church were swelled by $240, and offerings were not confined to silver, but bank notes and pledges flowed into the collection plates and when the report was announced all were satisfied.
The principals in the marriage contract were Rev. I. F. Kierstead, of Royalton, Carleton County, and Miss Ida Morgan, Millville, York county.
Rev. Samuel A. Baker performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. S. Greenlaw and Rev. W. H. Hoople.
Mr. and Mrs. Kierstead will sail shortly for South Africa, where they will engage in missionary work for the Reformed Baptist Church.
The marriage was somewhat of a novelty, inasmuch as such ceremonies are not frequent at the big tabernacle at Brown's Flats and a number of those who attended say that it was an impressive occasion.
From a financial standpoint it was certainly a success.

ORANGEMEN AT DIVINE SERVICE.

Marched to the Cathedral and Were Addressed by Rev. Dean Partridge.

The Orangemen of the city and vicinity held a very successful church parade to the Cathedral yesterday afternoon and were addressed by the Very Rev. Dean Partridge. The brethren assembled at the lodge room at 2.30 o'clock, and forming in procession were played to the Cathedral by the Fredericton Brass Band. The order of the procession was as follows:

Fredericton Brass Band,
John Oldham, County Master,
Whitestone Precinctory,
Royal Black Knights of Ireland,
Royal Scarlet Chapter,
Marysville Lodge, P. A. P. B.,
Graham L. O. L. No. 20,
Walker L. O. L. No. 35,
Rossmore Lodge, No. 21,
Equal Rights Lodge, No. 32,
Pickard Lodge, No. 40.

There were about one hundred and fifty of the brethren in line and they made a good appearance and marched well. The route of the procession was down Queen street to St. John, out St. John to Brunswick, down Brunswick to the Cathedral. Arriving at their destination the brethren halted, turned inwards and the County Master and Black Knights led the way into the edifice.
The service was of a most interesting and appropriate character and despite the exceedingly worn weather attracted a large number of people in addition to the brethren.
One of the hymns sung was specially written for the occasion by Dean Partridge.
Rev. Dean Partridge preached from I Peter, II, 17: "Honor all men, love the brotherhood, fear God, honor the King." The text was expounded and the principles which underlie true manliness, as depicted by the apostle, were laid down and enforced.
Upon leaving the Cathedral the procession reformed and proceeded up Brunswick street to York, out York to King, up King to Northumberland in Northumberland to Queen, down Queen to the Orange Hall, where it disbanded.
Past Grand Master A. D. Thomas performed the duties of Director of Ceremonies in a most efficient manner.
