END OF THE SESSION.

Canadian Parliament Formally Prorogued by Lord Grey.

SPEECH FROM THE THRONE RECOUNTS GOOD WORK DONE AT THE CAPITAL.

Trading Stamp Bill Finally Passed.

Ottawa, July 20.—(Special)—The first session of the tenth parliament of Canada was prorogued at three o'clock this afternoon by Lord Grey.

There was the usual closing ceremonies. The governor general's foot guards furnished a guard of honor, the 86th Princess Louise dragoon guards supplied an escort to His Excellency, the governor-general to and from Rideau Hall and the Ottawa field battery fired a salute from Nepean Point.

The governor general's speech was as follows:

Honourable gentlemen of the senate, gentlemen of the house of commons:

"In relieving you from this laborious and long protracted session, I desire to express my hearty congratulations on the passage of the two most important measures, providing for the entry into the confederacy of the provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan.

The unparalleled increase in the population during the last three years, of the areas that the new provinces embrace, affords the strongest evidence that at no distant date they will be homes of many millions of prosperous and contented people.

The fair prospect of an unusually large harvest not alone in the prairie provinces, but also in other parts of the wide Dominion, will, I trust, under a kind providence be fully realized, justifying the hope that the stream of immigration now flowing into the Dominion will continue for many years to come, adding wealth to this highly favored land.

The addition to the number of permanent force which you have authorized will enable my government to relieve the taxpayers of the United Kingdom of the burden of keeping up the garrisons at Esquimaux and Halifax.

It is very gratifying to note that the revenue of the dominion continues, to maintain the high level it reached two years ago, thus enabling my government to meet the increased expenditures chargeable against consolidated revenue, leaving a surplus to apply to capital account.

The number of private bills, increasing industrial objects to which I have assented point to the existence of many enterprises.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

I thank you in His Majesty's name for the supplies that you have so liberally voted.

Hon. gentlemen of the senate, gentlemen of the House of Commons:

In returning to your several homes allow me to express the hope that you will find abundant evidences of the country's growing prosperity, and that before we meet again at another session some progress may have been made in the construction of the national transcontinental railway so soon to become a necessity for the transportation of the annually increasing products of the west.

Ottawa, July 20.—The commons met yesterday for a few minutes and discussed the report of the debates committee, which was held over until next session. The house adjourned until 11 o'clock today.

The senate met yesterday and discussed the trading stamp bill. A stiff lobby was put up against the bill and it was hoped to talk it out, as prorogation was expected yesterday. The government said that prorogation would not take place until the bill was put through and to help it along they kept the salary and indemnity bills behind it.

Mr. Landry, alone, kept the senate going from 11 o'clock yesterday until 9 at night. The house of commons for lunch and dinner as usual. Senator Young suggested some amendments to make the bill more stringent. Senator Landry took the hint, and stopped his obstruction.

The session of the dominion parliament which closed today has been the second longest on record. The longest session was in 1903, when parliament sat from March 12 until October 19, seven months and seven days.

It was 1903 that the Grand Trunk Pacific was first discussed and this contributed largely to the long sitting. Besides this there was the redistribution bill, the railway commission bill and the resignation of Hon. A. G. Blair, which made it one of the most eventful sessions in the history of the dominion.

The session of 1873, the Pacific scandal session, is one which old timers still talk of and an exciting session was that of 1891 when scandal after scandal was unearthed and when Sir Hector Langevin was driven from office.

The 1885 session which was the year of the Northwest rebellion and the great franchise debate will always be one of the most memorable of all the sessions.

The Liberals of the commons like to talk of the 1896 session when the Remedial Bill which resulted in bringing them power was under consideration.

The present session opened on January 11 and closed on July 25, which is six months and nine days. The whole business before the house should have been disposed of in three months.

LOOKS UNLIKE PEACE.

Czar Said to be Promising Linevitch More Men-- An Interrupted Congress.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION OF THE CHIEF PROCURATOR OF THE HOLY SYNOD.

St. Petersburg, July 28.—(Special)—Reports of attempt to shoot Constantine Petrovitch Pobiedonostseff, chief procurator of holy synod in Tsarskoe-Selo, St. Petersburg, as recounted by the Associated Press last night, have been confirmed.

In spite of his greatly advanced age and illness, M. Pobiedonostseff was unshaken by the attempt on his life.

He drove to the Holy Synod and presided at the meeting, telling none of his colleagues of the occurrence until after the session closed.

The procurator drove back to the station alone and unguarded, and returned to Tsarskoe-Selo.

Tokio, July 19.—It is believed that Emperor Nicholas recently sent an encouraging message to General Linevitch promising him men, provisions and other necessities for attaining an ultimate victory.

It was also reported that the Russian Emperor recently ordered the mobilization of four army corps.

FIRE AT SACKVILLE.

Big Fawcett-Copp Block Considerably Damaged.

TRIBUNE NEWSPAPER ONE OF THE SUFFERERS.

Sackville, N. B., July 20.—(Special)—Fire was discovered about six o'clock this morning in the Fawcett-Copp Brick block, Bridge street, occupied by the Tribune Printing Company as newspaper offices, W. E. Goodwin, bookstore, E. B. Snarr, confectionery shop, and the Citizens' Band as a hall.

An alarm was sounded the fire department was quickly on hand and promptly was turned on. The fire was much damage was done.

This fact taken in connection with the reported limitation of M. Witte's power as peace plenipotentiary is deemed to be a signal that Russia is not sincere in her expressed desire for the conclusion of peace.

Heavy seas are still raging off the coast of the island of Sakalin, and further reports of the Japanese operations there are not expected in the near future.

Moscow, July 19.—The Zemstvo congress opened at mid-day in the residence of Prince Dolgoroff.

The congress was attended by 225 delegates. Count Heyden, leader of the deputation representing the congress recently received by the emperor, presided.

M. Golovine, president of the organizing committee, had barely started a statement dealing with the obstacles placed in the way of the congress announcing that Governor General Koloff had promised that there would be no more extreme measures.

The police then departed in order to draw up summonses and the sitting was resumed.

St. Petersburg, July 19.—A circumstantial report of an attempt on the life of Constantine Petrovitch Pobiedonostseff, chief procurator of the Holy Synod, is current in St. Petersburg tonight, but The Associated Press is unable to obtain confirmation of it. The authorities, and even the police at the Tsarskoe-Selo Railway station here, where the attempt is reported to have been made, disclaim all knowledge of any such happening.

According to the report, as M. Pobiedonostseff stepped from one of the coaches on the train from Tsarskoe-Selo, where he is residing during the summer, to the platform, a man of about twenty-eight years old rushed up with a revolver in his hand, but he was seized by a quick witted passenger before he could shoot, and was turned over to the police.

DOG MAD IN BAGGAGE CAR.

Forced Baggageman to Build a Barricade.

South Orange, N. J., July 20.—(Special)—Harry Ball, a baggageman on the Lackawanna, had an exciting experience with a mad dog yesterday. At Stroudsburg, the dog, which had been chained in the baggage car and managed to get loose sprang at the baggageman, snapping, snarling and frothing. The baggageman barricaded himself behind piles of baggage.

Ball's assistant ran into the coach, when Mrs. R. L. Burnett, the owner of the dog, and her daughter went into the baggage car and attempted to quiet the beast, which sprang upon the child and bit her twice. It then fell upon a bundle of newspapers and worried them until it died.

WATCHED HUSBAND DROWN.

Mother Sees Ocean Take Two of Her Family Away.

Southampton, I. L., July 20.—(Special)—A tragic and pathetic ending has come to the yearly outing of George A. Hulz, a Southampton carpenter, and his family of eight. Hulz and his eleven year old son lost their lives by drowning, while Mrs. Hulz and her six little ones looked on, helpless to render aid.

The party had gone to the beach at Seabonck Creek, and the boy was bathing, while the others watched him from the shore. He was unable to swim, and when he ventured beyond his depth the father rushed to his assistance. Both were caught in a strong current and dragged down to death. With the aid of a clam digger, which she found a mile away on the beach, Mrs. Hulz succeeded in getting the bodies ashore, but by that time they were beyond help.

All day long the woman and her little children guarded the bodies of the father and son as they lay on the beach. She was relieved of her vigil when the coroner came many hours after the drowning and took charge of the remains.

Vancouver, B. C., July 20.—One of the largest real estate deals recorded in British Columbia this year is that in which P. A. Paulson and associates of Cranbrook have purchased from the C. P. R. a tract of land in East Kootenay on both sides of Kitchener, along Goat River and Meadow Creek.

The land extends about eight miles up and down the valley, and it is said, will make the largest hay ranch in the province. It also contains much fine timber, and Mr. Paulson intends to place a sawmill on it.
