GREAT ANXIETY IN RUSSIA.

Revolutionary Flame Likely to Burst out at any Moment—Witte's Life in Danger.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 17.—Apprehension is convulsing Russia. While the government claims it has given battle only to the "Red" revolutionists, the populace generally believes that the "White Terror" has returned. Already the leaders of the proletarian organization who escaped capture Saturday night at the Economic Society, and even men of the rank of Professor Milukoff, are in hiding from the police, who are hunting them down. The government evidently anticipates a battle royal and has made its dispositions accordingly.

The Workmen's Council and the League of Leagues Saturday night issued a declaration of a general strike to begin immediately, and consequently by an imperial ukase published this morning, all governors general, governors and prefects throughout the empire who are cut off by telegraph are clothed with almost dictatorial powers, being authorized, without consulting St. Petersburg, to declare a state of siege, and, if necessary, even martial law. As most of the provincial authorities are reactionary officials of the old regime, the advantage they will take of such power to terrorize the populace can be easily imagined.

PAPERS SUSPENDED.

The Novoe Vremya was the only paper, with the exception of the Official Messenger, to appear today, and in the centre of the first page is a half column of blank paper, showing where the censor had forbidden an article. The Novoe Vremya seceded from the Publishers' Union and was published under the protection of police and Cossacks.

The Slovo and the Novosti, two other papers that have not suspended publication, were unable to appear, as the printers walked out in obedience to orders of the Council of Workmen because these papers refused to print the manifesto of the proletarian organization.

Although practically all the ring-leaders of the proletarian organization were arrested Saturday night, the resourcefulness of the Council of Workmen was proved by the fact that in less than an hour a new council, the head of which is M. Lent, editor of New Life, had replaced the old and had elected officers.

The editors of the newspapers suspended for publishing the proletarian organization's manifesto, including the famous M. Hessen of the Pravo, were with the single exception of Professor Milukoff, who managed to evade arrest, taken into custody. M.

Souverein, editor of the Russ, furnished $5,000 bail and was released. In addition to the general strike, it is expected that the revolutionaries will have recourse to the old methods of fighting the government. It is stated that the terrorist organization held a meeting in the small hours of the morning.

WITTE'S LIFE IN DANGER.

Count Witte's life is considered to be in danger, and the annex to the palace, where he is residing, is heavily guarded.

The most significant news comes from Tsarskoe-Selo, where a regular campaign is being conducted, with the purpose of firing the loyalty of the guard regiments from St. Petersburg who is reviewed and addressed by Emperor Nicholas and with much ceremony His Majesty passes up and down the lines and speaks personally to the officers and men.

A DESPERATE MOMENT.

The government has chosen a desperate moment to repress the proletariat. It is fighting for its life in the Baltic region, where a revolt is admitted to be in full blast, with almost a practical certainty that it cannot be crushed and its flames will spread to Poland.

At Moscow the government is confronted with a mutiny of troops so serious that it has been obliged to send a regiment of cavalry from St. Petersburg to aid in the suppression of the mutineers.

The government today succeeded in restoring cable communication abroad but it is utterly unable to guarantee how long it will be able to keep the cables in operation.

Petitions from the nobility of Riga, Windau, Libau and other places in the Baltic provinces have been received by the government, imploring it to abolish martial law, which, the petitions say, is only inflaming the situation.

The editors of The Signal and several other satirical papers of mushroom growth, which have been printing the most dangerous cartoons of imperial personages, have been arrested, charged with lese majeste.

TROOPS IN OPEN MUTINY.

Moscow, Dec. 17, by telephone to St. Petersburg.—There is intense alarm among the population here on news from St. Petersburg of the inauguration by the government of a policy of repression. Troops of the garrison are in open mutiny, and there are fears of a massacre by the "Black Hundred" Tuesday next.

WOLVES IN N. B.

Being interviewed a short time ago by a Herald representative, Mr. Henry Braithwaite, the well known woodsman and guide, stated that he did not place much credence in the reports that wolves had recently been seen in portions of Charlotte County. Mr. Braithwaite has spent the greater part of the last fifty years in the woods of this province, and he says that in all that period he has never seen even the track of a wolf. "I have always been of the opinion," he says, "that there are no wolves this side of the St. Lawrence River, and reports which have lately appeared in the newspapers have not caused me to change my opinion."

AGED LADY'S DEATH.

Mrs. Grace Ingraham, wife of Mr. John Ingraham, passed away at her home at Upper Queensbury last week at the advanced age of eighty-three years. She was formerly Miss Donald of the Miramichi, and was a very estimable lady, beloved by all who knew her. Besides a husband she is survived by a family of three daughters and two sons. The family consists of Mrs. A. C. Whitehead, of Queensbury, Mrs. Cornelius Moore, of Bear Island, Mrs. Judson Coy, of Prince William, Mr. Frank Ingraham of Queensbury and Mr. Ira Ingraham at home.

The average person places too much confidence in an apology.
