

THE DEFIANT YANKEES.

Who Are Obstructing St. John River Navigation and Threatening Violence.

WILL BE CONFRONTED WITH THE LAW, AND ARMED FORCE IF NECESSARY.

Matter Will be Laid Before Local Government Tonight.

Grand Falls, June 1.—(Special.)—Mr. Pond's drivers at St. Leonards, opposite the Van Buren, Me., booms, expect trouble when he returns.

Talking with them last night, they said they had been intimidated by threats from the Americans, but would cut the booms if Mr. Pond ordered, and if attacked would defend themselves.

It is said that Mr. Pond will have with him an interim mandatory injunction order from the equity court directing the Van Buren Lumber Co. to remove its booms immediately, and that he will personally see that the order is carried out.

St. John, June 1.—L. W. Pond, the well known lumberman of Fort Fairfield, is at the Victoria here.

He corroborates the story the lumbermen told which appeared in The Telegraph this morning, and states that on his return he would attend to Allan Hammond, "King of Van Buren," as he is called.

Mr. Pond says that he has consulted his legal adviser, and that he has been informed that Mr. Hammond is liable to imprisonment in the penitentiary for a number of years for threatening murder. He intends to prosecute him to the full extent of the law.

Mr. Pond this morning made a statement to Judge Trueman concerning the trouble, and this will be prepared and presented at the meeting of the local government tonight.

Mr. Pond claims he is entitled to protection by the government, and will insist on being protected as the law provides.

It is believed that an armed force will be placed on duty in the region of the trouble.

Mr. Pond expects to return home tomorrow. He is suffering from a severe attack of lumbago and la grippe, and was very tired after his exertions of two or three hours talking this morning.

ALUMNI SOCIETY.

Officers Elected for the Ensuing Year—The Prize Winners.

The annual meeting of the associated alumni society of the U. N. B. was held at the college building last evening. The president, Dr. Murray MacLaren, occupied the chair, and about thirty members were present.

The secretary-treasurer, M. H. V. Bridges, presented his annual report, which was adopted.

The report of the examiners recommended that the alumni gold medal for the best Latin essay be awarded to Miss Edna Bell, of Moncton, a member of the sophomore class. It was also recommended that the Brydone-Jack memorial scholarship be awarded to Mr. David R. Smith.

The election of officers for the ensuing year was as follows: President—Dr. Murray MacLaren. Vice-Presidents—B. C. Foster, Dr. W. C. Crockett, John T. Jennings. Secretary-Treasurer—H. V. B. Bridges.

THE U. N. B. SENATE.

Resignation of Prof. Clawson—Prof. Jack's Successor Named.

The annual convocation meeting of the University Senate was held at the education office yesterday afternoon. Those present were Dr. J. R. Inch, Premier Tweedie, Dr. Harrison, Hon. George F. Hill, H. H. Hagerman, Inspector Bridges and Judge Barry.

The report of the examiners of degrees was read and adopted.

The resignation of Prof. W. H. Clawson from the chair of English and French, was read and accepted. It will go into effect at the close of the present term. It is understood that the professor intends continuing his studies at Harvard University.

The vacant chair of engineering was filled by the appointment of Prof. Edwards of the school of applied science at McGill University.

It was decided to recommend that the honorary degree of Doctor of Science be conferred on Prof. John Brittan, superintendent of school gardens.

A WESTERN VISITOR.

Dr. W. Brydone-Jack, of Vancouver B. C., son of the late Dr. Brydone-Jack, at one time president of the U. N. B., is on a visit to his old home, and is stopping at the Queen. Dr. Brydone-Jack enjoys a large practice at Vancouver, and takes a prominent part in political and social life of that city. One object of his present visit in Fredericton is to attend the convocation of the U. N. B., from which he graduated in 1879. He is receiving a very hearty welcome from his many old friends. Mrs. Brydone-Jack, who accompanied him on his trip to the east is at present visiting friends in St. John.

THE STORES CLOSED.

The half holiday movement inaugurated by the merchants and clerks a short time ago, went into effect this afternoon. All except the hardware and shoe stores were promptly closed at twelve o'clock today. M. Fickler & Company, who handle large quantities of shoes, closed their establishment today, but it is not their intention to live up to the agreement unless the other shoe dealers fall into line. Most of the merchants and clerks attended the baseball match at Scully's grove this afternoon.

GOVERNMENT MEETING.

The local government held a meeting here this morning with Hon. Messrs. Tweedie, Pugsley, LaBillios, Farris, Jones and Sweeney in attendance. As far as can be learned there was no business transacted outside of the regular routine. Another meeting is being held this afternoon. Premier Tweedie is to leave for Sussex this evening to continue the dairy investigation.

CUSTOMS RETURNS.

The value of imports to this city during the month just ended was $47,778, and the duty collected was $3,353.05. For May, 1904, the imports amounted to $51,971, and the duty to $2,867.53.

A PARALYTIC STROKE.

Mr. Robert H. Rainsford, was stricken with paralysis this morning and his condition is considered quite critical.

A GOOD MONTH.

The total amount collected in fines at the Fredericton police court during the month of May was $316.

EARLY CLOSING.

Commencing today, (June 1st) G. T. Whelpley will close his store at 6 p. m.

Mrs. Winslow, of Woodstock, and Mrs. Herbert L. Wallace, of Houlton Me., mother and sister of Miss M. M. Winslow, U. N. B. student, are here to attend the convocation at the University.

Rev. W. J. Armitage of Halifax, who received the degree of M. A. at the University this afternoon, is at the Queen.

JAPS LOSSES SLIGHT.

Only Three Torpedo Boats Went Down in the Great Naval Battle.

Tokio, June 1.—(Special.)—Admiral Togo reports that two hospital ships which accompanied Admiral Rojstovsky's fleet in Korea are suspected of violation of the Hague convention. Owing to the great necessity for protection he declined them and temporarily conveyed them to Sasebo, May 28th.

By direction of the Emperor Admiral Ito has instructed Admiral Togo to allow Vice Admiral Nebogotoff and other Russian officers to transmit a report of battle, a list of casualties and prisoners to the Emperor of Russia.

Officers of the battleships Orel, and Nicholas I., and the coast defense ships Admiral Apraxine and Seniavin are to be permitted to return to Russia on giving paroles.

The damage to the Japanese fleet Admiral Togo says, is slight. Only three torpedo boats were lost. No warships or destroyers were sunk.

Horse Wanted.
