

MILBURN'S Heart and Nerve Pills.

Are a specific for all heart and nerve troubles. Here are some of the symptoms. Any one of them should be a warning for you to attend to it immediately. Don't delay. Serious breakdown of the system may follow, if you do: Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Dizziness, Palpitation of the Heart, Shortness of Breath, Rush of Blood to the Head, Smothering and Sinking Spells, Faint and Weak Spells, Spasm or Pain through the Heart, Cold, Clammy Hands and Feet. There may be many minor symptoms of heart and nerve trouble, but these are the chief ones.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will dispel all these symptoms from the system.

Price 50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25.

WEAK SPELLS CURED.

Mrs. L. Dorey, Hemford, N.S., writes as follows:—"I was troubled with dizziness, weak spells and fluttering of the heart. I procured a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and they did me so much good that I got two more boxes, and after finishing them I was completely cured. I must say that I cannot recommend them too highly."

WOMAN WITH FORTUNE

Lived Like a Hermit--$6,000 in Cash, $20,000 in Bank Books Found in Room.

WITH CAT AND JANITOR FOR COMPANION, SHE NEVER MOVED FROM HER COUCH.

New York, Feb. 18.—In a dirty little room in the tenement which she owns at 743 Third Avenue, Mrs. Maria Kull, seventy-three years old, has for years lived the life of a hermit. She had a fat, lazy tomcat and a corpulent German janitor for companions. The German went out almost every day, and came back with a gallon of wine.

Mrs. Kull never moved from a ragged old couch which stood in one corner of the room. The only persons ever admitted with the owner's consent were the tenants who came every month with the rent. Mrs. Kull would take the money and add it to part of her hoard which she kept concealed in the filling of the couch. Before the police got through searching the room yesterday they found $6,000 in cash and savings banks books representing $20,000.

Mrs. Susan Mang of 1,448 Prospect Avenue, the Bronx, the old woman's niece, was responsible for the visit of the police. Mrs. Mang did not get on well with her aunt. In fact, nobody ever entered Mrs. Kull's room if he could help it, except those who brought the monthly contributions of rent money.

The last time Mrs. Mang went to see her aunt the old woman rose on her elbow on her couch and said she could get on just as well without anybody's help or visits. The German handy man told Mrs. Mang that he thought his mistress was ill. Then Mrs. Mang went to Capt. Lantry of the East Fifty-first Street Police Station. With some of his men he went around and got the old woman and sent her to Flower Hospital. It was there that she had a bad attack of gastritis.

Mrs. Kull didn't want to go. When she saw the police were in earnest she said she might go if they would remove her couch to the hospital. She said she couldn't be comfortable on any other. Capt. Lantry told it would be sent around with her.

But when the health department gets through with the room a bonfire will probably be made with the furniture.

After getting Mrs. Kull out, the police searched the room and unearthed deeds which showed that she owned the four-story brick tenement house where she made her home, and another at 821 First Avenue. Most of her savings are deposited in the German and Dry Dock Savings Bank.

Capt. Lantry arrested the German, Herman Weber, who said he was the janitor. He was locked up on a charge of intoxication.

The money found in the lounge was in bills of small denominations, tied up in fifty-dollar bundles. There was $3,800 hidden here. At the hospital Mrs. Kull told of $3,000 more hidden in the wardrobe. Capt. Lantry and Detectives Roach and Crotty made a second search of the room, bringing to light the $3,000 and the bank books. The cash was wrapped in layer after layer of old newspapers, sacks and rags.

Mrs. Kull's husband, John Kull, who died thirty years ago, was well to do. It was said that he was a director of the west side bank. They had no children and Mrs. Mang seems to be the only living relative. She will ask that a guardian be appointed to administer the estate of Mrs. Kull.

(Special Correspondence to the Herald.)

February, 14.—Snow high wind and intense cold has been the order of the day. The oldest inhabitants pronounce it one of the most severe winters in their recollection.

Mr. Sandy Campbell has returned from the lumber woods, we are always glad to see Sandy's smiling face in our midst.

Miss Alice McLaughlin has returned from Scotch Settlement where she has spent the last few months.

Rev. M. R. King failed to fill his appointment in the Union Church here on Sunday last.

Rev. J. J. Barnes failed to be present at his last appointment on account of bad roads.

Mr. George W. Brown had the misfortune to loose one of his horses a few days ago.

Mrs. Stirly Brewer and daughter Alta, are visiting friends at Jones' Forks and Dora Ridge.

Mr. John H. Moore has a crew in the woods cutting hardwood. He has engaged Dow W. Price with his team to haul for him.

The many friends of Miss Emma Miller of Caverhill, will regret to hear that she is not gaining any from her severe illness.

Mr. Leslie Staples who was suffering from rheumatism is much improved in health.

Mr. James Jones one of our oldest and most respected neighbours is in failing health.

Mr. Edwin Wiggins has completed his lumbering operation for this winter.

Our esteemed blacksmith and sled builder Mr. C. C. Wiggins is getting about through with his rush and hopes for a breathing spell before his springs work comes on.

Mr. Andrew Campbell who has been in poor health is some better.

CALOMEL RUINS THE SYSTEM

And should only be used under a doctor's orders. For a mild physic take Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut. No gripe, no pain, certain relief for headache, constipation and torpid liver. Use only Dr. Hamilton's Pills, price 25c.

Hon. J. M. Gibson, the ex-attorney general of Ontario, is slated for the position of chief justice of the Echequer division of the Ontario high court, so there will be compensation for his recent defeat and forced resignation as a minister of the crown.

Senator Wark will be one hundred and one years old tomorrow, and his numerous friends will be glad to hear that he is enjoying his usual good health.

A graceful word of thanks should always be said to the hostess on leaving. The only exception is at the large formal receptions or teas where the arriving guests take all the hostess' time.

Doctors Said That
Lumps and External
Swellings Would Turn to Running Sores.

Mrs. Jacob Kaehler, Zurich,
Ont., says that

Burdock Blood Bitters
Saved Her from Many Years of Suffering.

She writes:—"Now imagine how joyous and great was my surprise when a friend of mine told me that Burdock Blood Bitters would cure me, so that the lumps and external swellings, which the doctors told me would turn to running sores, would disappear. I took her advice, and can say that I have no doubt but that Burdock Blood Bitters has saved me from years of suffering. It is with the greatest of pleasure and with a thankful heart that I give this testimonial, knowing that Burdock Blood Bitters has done so much for me, and you are at perfect liberty to use this for the benefit of others similarly afflicted."

Burdock Blood Bitters is the best blood medicine on the market to-day, and is composed entirely of roots, herbs, barks and berries.
