Stanfield's Unshrink- able Underwear

THE UNDERWEAR IN DEMAND

We have a very large stock—the largest in fact.

This Underwear is made of pure Nova Scotia Wool.

The Yarn is hard twisted which gives an elasticity not found in many garments.

Stanfield garments conform to the shape of the body.

This gives comfort to the wearer and life to the garment.

Stanfield stands behind his "Unshrinkable." If a garment shrinks, bring it back to us and get another.

TWO ST. JOHN WEDDINGS.

Daughter of Dr. Thomas Walker Led to the Altar by a Brookline Gentleman.

St. John, Oct. 18.—(Special)—An event which has been looked forward to with great interest in St. John social circles took place at St. Paul's (Valley) church at 3 o'clock this afternoon, when Jessie Walker, third daughter of Dr. Thomas Walker was married to Calvin Lord, of Brookline, Mass., by the Rector, Rev. A. G. Hamilton Dicker, assisted by the bride's uncle, Rev. Milidge Walker, of Florida.

The bride entered the church on her father's arm and looked charming in a costume of cream crepe de chene over white tulle, with trimmings of brussels lace, and a white veil. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Miss Madeline Barker and Miss Madge Robertson, the bridesmaids, wore pale yellow silk with white felt hats, shaded with yellow velvet and feathers, and carried bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom was supported by Edwin Goodrick, of Syracuse, N. Y. The bride was given away by her father. The ushers were Harold Wright, of Somerville, Mass., Dr. T. Dyson Walker, of St. John, and Edwin Blake Walker, of Ayr, Ont.

The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of relatives and friends. After the ceremony luncheon was served and a reception held at the residence of the bride's parents.

HAMILTON—GRAY.

St. John, Oct. 18.—(Special)—A pretty house wedding was celebrated this morning at the residence of Wm. Gray, Main street, when his daughter, Louisa Gray, was married to William James Hamilton, formerly of St. John, who came here from the Philippines to claim his bride.

The wedding took place at six o'clock, the officiating clergyman being Rev. Dr. Fotheringham.

The bride was unattended, and wore a navy blue tailor made travelling costume.

At the conclusion of the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, and the happy couple left for Fredericton, accompanied by relatives.

After spending a few hours at the house of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton will proceed to Winnipeg and Vancouver, and thence to Hong Kong, and will spend a fortnight there before taking the journey to Manila, where they will reside the groom being a member of the firm of Hamilton & Borror of that city.

PROVINCIAL RIGHTS INVOLVED.

In the Dispute Between the Rival Grand Falls Power Companies.

Ottawa, Oct. 18.—The dispute between the two Grand Falls power companies of New Brunswick over both having the same name was heard before Hon. R. W. Scott yesterday afternoon.

One of the companies was incorporated by the provincial government, the other by the dominion. The provincial company asked that the name of the dominion company be changed because it was first adopted by the applicants. A memorial was filed by the dominion company in answer to this and a counter memorial was presented by the provincial government.

A. P. Barnhill, K. C., of St. John, was heard on behalf of the provincial company, claiming that as the provincial company was incorporated on the 24th of March, 1905, and whereas the dominion company was not incorporated until the 25th of March, 1905, there was at the time of the incorporation of the dominion company, within the meaning of the dominion act, another company having the name of the Grand Falls Power Company, Limited.

He also asked that the name of the dominion company should be changed because in July, 1903, the persons composing the provincial company had given notice that they would take the name of the Grand Falls Power Company, Limited, so that the name was that of an existing company.

Hon. A. G. Blair, in support of the dominion company, contended that as there was in existence at the time of the incorporation of the provincial company a company having the name of the Grand Falls Water Power & Boom Company, which company was controlled by his clients, his company had a perfect right to use the name of the Grand Falls Power Company, Limited, and that the name ought not to be granted to another company.

Premier Tweedie, for the province, held that provincial rights were involved to a large extent as the work of development of the power of the Grand Falls depended very much upon the decision in the case. The provincial company was incorporated by the lieutenant-governor-in-council and as a matter of provincial rights it ought not to be interfered with by any company incorporated by the dominion.

Mr. Scott reserved his decision.

A SUCCESSFUL OPENING.

A Large Number of Ladies Admire Fall Millinery at Miss Morgan's.

The fall millinery opening at Miss Morgan's parlors, York street, was held yesterday, commencing at three o'clock. A large number of ladies were present and were apparently delighted with the display of latest designs in fall millinery which were shown.

Miss McCarron and her head milliner, Miss McCarron, with an obliging staff of assistants, were kept busy during the afternoon and evening, waiting on the numerous customers, and were the subject of many well deserved compliments on the fine display of millinery, as well as the neat appearance of the store.

Miss Morgan's display comprises a carefully selected stock of millinery goods and furnishings in all its forms, and everything is up-to-date.

PREMIERS' CONFERENCE.

Montreal, Oct. 18.—(Special)—Premier Gouin of Quebec is in the city on his way to Toronto and Winnipeg, to confer with Premiers Whitney and Roblin in provincial matters, principally with respect to increase of provincial subsidies. Afterwards he will visit the maritime provinces on a similar errand.

BRIDAL PARTY WELCOMED.

On their return home from their wedding trip last week Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Treadwell were received at the home, "Willowdale," in Upper Maugerville, by about fifty of their friends, including a large number from this city and surrounding districts who gave the happy couple a rousing welcome. A supper was served in the dining room and during the progress of the reception a large bonfire blazed on the lawn. After some hours spent in social enjoyment the assembled guests departed for their respective homes, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Treadwell every success and future happiness. The bride received a large number of useful and handsome presents.

THANKS.

Mr. F. B. Edgecombe who is attending the annual meeting of the Ticket Agents' Association at Portland, Me., has the Herald's thanks for Portland papers containing an account of the splendid banquet at which the visitors were entertained in that city Monday evening.

GOOD BIRD SHOOTING.

Dr. C. H. Gardener, of Providence, R. I., who has been hunting woodcock in this vicinity for the past week, left for home last evening. In six days he bagged fifty-seven woodcock and nine partridges, a total of sixty-six birds. Mr. Thomas Phillips acted as guide for the doctor.

STREET EXTENSION.

Work to be Undertaken at Once Under Direction of Prof. Perrott.

The road committee of the city council has decided to employ Prof. Perrott of the U. N. B., to superintend the work of laying out the new streets at the rear of the city. The work is to be done this fall.

Westmorland and Northumberland streets are to be extended to meet two new streets being run at the rear of and parallel with Aberdeen street. These will probably be called Argyle and Grey streets and they will run from York to Smythe streets.

Carleton street is to be extended from Charlotte through to meet an extension of Aberdeen street.

The lane running between the residence of Thomas Wandless and the College field will be widened so as to run from Union street at Church street to the I. C. railroad tracks.

Union street is to be extended through to University Avenue and a new street will be run through from Waterloo Row to University Avenue with a cross street from Landsdowne street.

The surveys for these streets will be made at once and the streets will be opened as soon as practicable.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE WORK.

Hon. L. P. Farris was in the city yesterday on his way home from a trip to the Tobique. In company with N. S. Dow, he addressed institute meetings at Andover, Kintore and several other points. The hon. gentleman left for his home in Queen's county this morning to spend a few days, at the end of which time he will pay a visit to the North Shore counties. Hon. Mr. Farris' department has arranged for one hundred and fifty institute meetings to be held during the autumn months.

A SUCCESSFUL SPORTSMAN.

Mr. J. R. King of Indianapolis, who has been hunting on the Miramichi for the past month, with Mr. Bemmiah Norrad of Boiestown, as guide, arrived in the city by the I. C. R. at noon today. He had a most enjoyable outing and secured a moose with an antler spread of fifty inches and also a caribou. He saw altogether during the trip twenty-eight moose. This is Mr. King's second trip to New Brunswick, he having hunted on the Miramichi four years ago.

NOT YET RECOVERED.

No information has been received here as to whether or not the body of the late Mr. John Brown of Maugerville, drowned in the Winnipeg river, a short time ago, has been recovered. The deceased belonged to Court Maugerville, I. O. F., and at a recent meeting of that organization a committee was appointed to take charge of the body on its arrival home.

SUCCESSFUL SPORTSMAN.

Mr. C. W. Clark of Boston, who has been hunting on the Miramichi, with Mr. William Carson as guide, returned to the city today. He shot a nice moose and also a large deer, bringing the carcass of the latter out whole with him.

"You may refuse me now," said the persistent suitor, "but I can wait. All things come to him who waits."
"Yes," replied the dear girl, "and I guess the first thing will be father, I hear him on the stairs."

N.B. S.S. ASSOCIATION.

Annual Meeting in Progress at Moncton.

Moncton, Oct. 18.—(Special)—The Provincial S. S. convention settled down to work this morning.

After devotional services conducted by Rev. G. O. Gates, the convention divided into three conferences, pastors' conference, superintendents' conference and primary institute.

W. D. MacFarlane presided at the Supt's conference and addresses were delivered on different phases of Supt's work by Robert Reid, of St. John, C. G. Turnbull of Philadelphia, and G. J. Oulton of Moncton.

In the pastors' conference Rev. A. Lucas presided, and Rev. J. L. Fash was secretary.

Rev. W. A. Ross gave an address on pastor and teacher training. Rev. Geo. Steel delivered an address on the pastor during the session. Rev. W. Camp gave an address on co-operation of pastor and teacher in securing church membership, and Rev. T. F. Fotheringham of St. John, gave an address on "After church membership, what?"

The primary institute was conducted by Mrs. Barnes, the international primary Supt. Those taking part were Miss Margaret Wathen, Mrs. H. H. Pickett and Miss Mary McCarthy.

Moncton, Oct. 18.—The 21st annual convention of the New Brunswick Sunday School Association met here last evening in the Central Methodist church, which was crowded to the doors. Vice-President Robert Reid of St. John presided in the absence of President Spurden.

After devotional exercises led by Rev. Dr. Gates of St. John Vice-President Reid delivered an address, in the course of which he stated that in 1885, just twenty years ago, this association had made a visit in Moncton and again in 1898.

Of the officials of the association twenty years ago only one was present last night, T. S. Simms, who was the first president.

In 1885 there were only 569 schools represented, with an attendance of 12,000, no teachers in the training department, no home department, no cradle roll. Today there are over a thousand schools, of which nearly 700 are evergreen, with over 6,600 teachers and officers and 51,000 scholars. Mr. Reid proceeded to speak of the advanced methods along Sunday school lines of the present day as compared with the past.

At the close the chairman addressed the meeting and appointed a nominating committee consisting of Rev. A. Lucas, Mrs. R. A. d'Olliqui, H. S. Denier, Miss Colwell, Rev. B. H. Nobles, S. McLean, J. E. Vanwart, D. C. Fritter, R. M. Currie, J. V. Lynn. Resolutions—Rev. C. W. Hamilton, Rev. B. Glover, J. N. Harvey. Addresses were then given by Mrs. J. W. Barnes, international superintendent, of New Jersey, on primary department work and by C. C. Trumbell of Philadelphia on What is Sunday school. The active work of the convention opened today.

BAD NEWS.

Mr. F. B. Street, on his return to the city this afternoon from Chatham, received a telegram announcing the death of Mrs. Street's brother at New York.
