A man who depends on "Progress" clothes need not read fashion notes to find out what is new and proper to wear.

CANADIAN RAILWAYS.

Total Mileage Is Now Nearly Twenty Thousand Miles.—1904 Statistics.

During the year ended June 30, 1904, there were 534 miles of steam railway built in Canada, bringing the total mileage on the date mentioned up to 19,611 miles. The capital paid amounted to $1,186,546,918, an increase of $39,996,149. This amount includes Dominion and Provincial subsidies, and loans and municipal aid. The miles of railway in operation numbered 19,431, an increase of 443 miles, compared with the previous year. The gross earnings of all the steam railways aggregated $100,219,436, a gain of $4,154,909. The working expenses amounted to $74,563,162, an increase of $7,081,633, but the net earnings showed a falling off of $2,277,729, the total for the year being $25,656,274. The steam railroads carried 23,640,765 passengers, an increase of 1,492,023 and 48,097,519 tons of freight, a gain of 724,102 tons. Only 25 passengers were killed, being 28 less than in the year previous.

The returns of electric railways show that there are 767 miles of line, as against 759 in 1903. The capital, including Dominion and Provincial subsidies and municipal aid, was $80,453,609, an increase of $1,219,932. Working expenses were represented by the sum of $5,326,517, an increase of $853,659, when contrasted with the year previous. Net earnings totalled $3,125,092, or an increase of $366,273. There were 181,889,998 passengers carried, against 155,662,812 for the preceding year. Of freight 400,161 tons were carried, 28,876 more than in 1903. Ten passengers were killed and a like number in the previous year.

On Whom Is Blood Guiltiness?

Some one may have blundered at Port Arthur, as at Balaklava, but that some one lied is more evident. General Stoessel was made to believe that both General Kuropatkin and the Baltic fleet were close at hand, though in reality they were hopelessly far away. Such valor as that of the Russian garrison of Port Arthur needed no mendacious stimulus to provoke it to its highest power, but if false reports encouraged the Russians to hold out longer than they would otherwise have done the authors of them must bear a heavy burden of blood guiltiness.

The Coy Widow.

"I think," declared the little daughter of the widow to the millionaire who was calling, "that you are a charming and delightful man."

"How nice! What makes you say so?"

"Mamma told me to."

Russian Baby Baths.

The Russian peasant woman has a peculiar method of washing her baby. She fills her mouth with water and expertly sprays it over the object of her maternal solicitude. Flowers are often watered in the same manner.

Things Worth Remembering.

Do not forget that it isn't necessary to be disagreeable in order to disagree with the other man.

If we took as great pains to say kind things as we do to think unkind ones, life would be one long metaphorical May.
