The Banner of Honor and Victory.

AWARDED TO DIAMOND DYES.

By Five Continents and the Isles of the Sea.

Diamond Dyes, the only honest and perfect package dyes now before the women of the world for successful home coloring, have been awarded the banner of honor and victory by five continents and the isles of the sea, for purity and strength, brilliancy, beauty of colors and never-fading qualities.

Diamond Dyes with a record of twenty-five years of marvellous and delightful work in the homes of the world, have been imitated. The result is that many of our women and girls have frequently been deceived by having worthless packages of dyes forced on them, which have proved disastrous to good materials and valuable garments.

When buying package dyes, the exercise of a little care will save our women much trouble and annoyance. Ask for DIAMOND DYES, and see that the words "Diamond Package Dyes" appear on each envelope you are offered. Send to Wells & Richardson, Company, Limited, Montreal, P. Q., for valuable book on home dyeing, and card of 48 dyed cloth samples. Sent free to any address.

MUSKOKA LAKES.

This Muskoka region is steadily growing in popularity, says a correspondent of the Utica Observer. They are coming to it, with increasing numbers, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south. There is an island in Lake Joseph on which an English man from beyond the sea has built himself a cottage, and so enamored are he and his family with Muskoka that season after season they abandon England and come over here for their summer holiday. Presumably their motto is not "variety is the spice of life"—more likely it runs, "where you find a good thing hang on to it." But although Muskoka has secured a permanent place among summer resorts, it has as yet lost none of its original flavor, its fresh, primitive, untutored charm.

Emerson has sung that
If eyes were made for seeing
Then beauty is its own excuse for being.

The beauty of the woods and waters of Muskoka—like that of the woods and waters of Scotland—was made to be seen and enjoyed by human eyes. So the Grand Trunk Railway System for their labors in rendering this region readily accessible to the appreciative summer tourist are public benefactors. Nature was made for man, not man for nature.

ARE GOOD LOOKS VALUABLE.

If nature had her way every complexion would be clear and delightful. But many allow their blood to become weak, hence pimples, sallow skin, dark circles under the eyes. TRAVELLING VIA CANADA.

Baron Komura to Take C. P. R. Across the Continent.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 24.—Baron Komura the great Japanese statesman, is to make his homeward journey by the Canadian Pacific route. Sir William VanHorne, chairman of the board of directors of the C. P. R., has placed his private car Saskatchewan at the disposal of the Japanese envoy, and accompanied by Baron Kaneko and Mr. Sato, chief attaché of the Japanese legation at Washington, Baron Komura will leave New York on Wednesday morning for Montreal. The Saskatchewan will be attached to the Imperial Limited the same evening and proceed direct to Vancouver, arriving there on Monday, Oct. second, the sailing day of the Empress of India, on which vessel the two Japanese statesmen and their staff have taken passage. As Baron Komura is still in feeble health, it will not be possible for him to accept any hospitality or participate in any public function while in the Dominion. Indeed, as a precautionary measure he is to be accompanied to Vancouver by a New York physician and a trained nurse.

TALKS FOR 317 COLUMNS.

Premier Balfour the Most Loquacious Man in Parliament.

Who are the greatest Parliamentary talkers in England is shown by a booklet compiled in the press gallery of the House of Commons. Prime Minister Balfour heads the list at present.

In the whole Parliament there are only a half dozen men who have talked half as much as Balfour. He spoke 317 newspaper columns during the last session. Austin Chamberlain filled 237, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, 200, the Rt. Hon. George Wyndham, 180, and Arnold Forster, 169. D. Lloyd George's record was 166 columns, and T. Gibson Bowles was nearly as talkative, filling four columns less.

Next in order come Sir Charles Dilke with 157 columns, Winston Churchill with 143, and the Rt. Hon. Herbert Henry Asquith with 125. Only three others spoke more than 100 columns, even Lord Hugh Cecil contributing but fifty-two columns of talk.

Then there are many members of the House of Commons whose voices are never heard at all. Henry James Tollermeade of Eddisbury declared the other day that he has not spoken once in twenty-four years, and there are others whose voices are heard so seldom that they are not recognized when they do speak.

A Russian Custom.

"That man," said the photographer, "owes me $20 for a dozen cabinets. I wish I dared to treat him as he would be treated in Russia."

"In Russia if you don't pay your photographer's bill he hangs your picture in his window upside down. Every Russian photographer's window has five or six of these reversed pictures in it, and there is always a little crowd of people outside craning their necks and saying:

"'Oh, that is Vas'! Popoffsky. Won't he be ashamed?' And look at Anna Olinisky. You'd think she'd be able to pay.' Is that Senia Gogol there? It certainly is. What a pity!"

"Russian photographers, thanks to this unique method of theirs, have few unpaid bills. If only their method was in use here!"—Chicago Chronicle.

M. FICKLER & CO'S

Clothiers, Shoers and Hatters.

November.

November was styled by the ancient Saxons, "Wind-month," or the "wind-month," from the gales which are so prevalent at this season of the year, which obliged the early Scandinavian seamen to lay up their keels on shore and refrain from exposing themselves on the ocean till the advent of more genial weather in the ensuing year. It bore also the name of "Blotmonath," or the "bloody-month," from the circumstances of its being customary then to slaughter great numbers of cattle to be salted for winter use. The epithet had possibly some reference to the sacrificial rites practised at this time.
