Mr. Shute went to Cuba some years ago in the employ of the Royal Bank of Canada. Last fall he left the employ of the bank and entered a large banking firm in Santiago, where he has a splendid position. Mr. Shute's friends will all be glad to see him again after his year's absence.

LEAVE ON SATURDAY.

Mrs. Wadmore and the Misses Wadmore have received word from Halifax to leave Fredericton for that city on Saturday next, June 24th. Colonel Wadmore left some time ago, and since then his family have been holding themselves in readiness to leave at a moment's notice. They have made a great many friends during their two year's stay in Fredericton, and will be greatly missed. Their friends wish them all good luck in their new home.

TARTARS' FESTIVAL.

Tomorrow evening, Wednesday, June 21st, will be the time when the Tartars Baseball Club, will hold their festival in Scully's grove. The boys are working hard in order to make their affair a success, as they are greatly in need of money to pay for their new uniforms; and it is the duty of every citizen of Fredericton to help them out. There will be ample room for dancing, with games and refreshments of all kinds on hand, so that everyone, big and small may enjoy themselves to the full.

TARTARS' NEW UNIFORMS.

The next time that the Tartars appear on the diamond they will be attired in fine looking new uniforms. They have ordered an entire new outfit for the team from W. W. Kerr of Montreal, and they will have them for July 1st, when they will meet one of the fastest teams of Eastern Maine. It is not yet known exactly what team will play here but correspondence is being carried on now with that end in view. The new suits will be of a steel grey color, with blue trimmings and will cost about $75. If suits have anything to do with it, the Tartars should win all their games easily during the rest of the summer.

VICTORIA TOMORROW.

Tomorrow the Star Line Company will place their palace steamer

Victoria on the route between here and St. John.

She will come up from the latter city tomorrow instead of the Pokanocket, which will go off for a few days to have her bottom scraped. When this is done she will be put on with the Victoria for the rest of the season. The Majestic will also have her bottom scraped and will then be put on the Gagetown route. The two steamers, Victoria and Pokanocket, running alternately, should do much toward increasing tourist travel along the St. John river this summer.

DONEGALS AT A FAIR.

Marchioness and Her Young Son conspicuous in London Society.

London Daily Chronicle, June 6.—A grand Noah's Ark bazaar was opened yesterday at Prince's Skating Rink (kindly lent by the Duke of Bedford) in aid of Our Dumb Friends' League. The opening ceremony was performed by the Duchess of Portland, who looked very lovely in pale blue-green chiffon and cloth, with a large picturesque white hat, and a bunch of red roses fastened in her bodice. She made a pleasant and kindly little speech, in which she said how much pleasure it gave her to be present, and she was presented with a bouquet of pink carnations by the young Lord Donegal, a little fellow in a white and blue frock who had previously been offering a toy dog to any other children he could see in the audience.

The London Daily Telegraph of the same date says:—In a felicitous speech urging the encouragement of kindness to animals, the Duchess of Portland inaugurated a "Noah's Ark Bazaar" in aid of Our Dumb Friends' League at Prince's Skating Rink, in which were arranged tastefully decorated stalls. Among those who took part in the sale were the Princess Alexis Dolgorouki, the Duchess of Bedford, the Dowager Duchess of Newcastle, the Marchioness of Donegal, the Countess of Shaftesbury, the Countess of Yarmouth, Countess Fitzwilliam, Viscountess Wolseley, Viscountess Bridport, and many other well known ladies.

WEDDED AT WOODSTOCK.

Miss Gertrude O'Brien of this City Married to a Truro Gentleman.

St. Luke's Anglican church, Woodstock, was the scene of a quiet wedding Monday morning, when Robt. P. Cunningham, of the I. C. R. service at Truro, N. S., and Miss Gertrude O'Brien, daughter of Mr. Dennis O'Brien, of this city, were united in marriage. Von Archdeacon Neales was the officiating clergyman. A few of the friends of the bride, who was given away by Wm. Dickinson, manager of the Royal Bank, were present. The official witnesses of the ceremony were Mrs. J. G. McDonald, of Truro, and Miss Mary A. Clark of Woodstock. The young couple took the early train for an extended tour, which will include a visit to Toronto and other cities.

Miss O'Brien was three years in charge of the Sloyd school in Woodstock, was a very efficient teacher, and during her stay in Woodstock made hosts of friends, who extend to her the very best wishes for her future happiness in which her Fredericton friends join.

Quite a few friends who had word of the affair were at the station to bid the young couple good luck.

A KINGSCLEAR WIZARD.

Mr. Robert Elliott, of Lower Kingsclear, who has more than a local reputation as a wizard and foreteller of events, was in conversation with a party of gentlemen at Kerner's departmental store yesterday afternoon, when one of them asked if he could tell who the unfortunate woman was whose body was found at Kingarth. "Well," said Mr. Elliott, "as near as I can tell, the lady's name was Mrs. A. E. Wortman, of Tobique, her age was 32 years. She fell in the Tobique river at Watson's Rocks, about thirty miles up that river. The teeth she had were made by a Dr. Jewett, of Woodstock." Mr. Elliott stated also that the woman had dark hair and had a gold watch in her possession when she fell into the water.

MORE LOCAL IMPROVEMENT.

Improvements going on in the city are not limited merely to the front street and river bank, but even along the back streets are signs of beautification. Work has been going on for some time along the Brunswick street part of the old burying ground which will in time add greatly to its appearance. The strip along Brunswick street is being raised and levelled until it is on an equal height with the street. Previous to this it always was much lower than the sidewalk, and in an unkempt state, but after the earth has been levelled and the whole raised, such as is being done now, it will have a much better appearance.

Mrs. W. B. Jack, is here from St. John visiting her friends.

FISHING PARTIES.

Several fishing parties are passing through the city these days on their way to the waters where they are looking for sport. Mr. Fulton, a New York gentleman, arrived at the Queen yesterday and this morning left with Harry Love as guide for a two weeks' fishing trip. They intend going up the Tobique and down through the Bathurst Lakes. Another party of Boston and New York gentlemen and ladies are expected here tomorrow to start out on a camping and fishing trip.
