

MUNRO--INGRAHAM.

Pretty Wedding Celebrated at Southampton--Great Array of Presents.

The prettiest wedding of the season, took place at the home of Charles Allan, on the eve of October 31st, when his sister, Annie G. Munro, of Portland, Maine, was united in marriage to Wellington Ingraham of Southampton, N. B. The house was beautifully decorated with potted plants, ferns and cut flowers. Rev. Wm. Ross of Prince William, was the officiating clergyman.

At 6:30 p. m., the ceremony was performed. The bride looked charming in a beautiful gown of white embroidered Brussels net over white silk, and carried a bouquet of maiden hair and ferns. After the congratulations the usual serenade was not forgotten, which was enjoyed by guests as well as masqueraders. When all were generously treated to the most appetizing things, with best wishes for the happy couple they bade their adieus. At 8 p. m., a recherche supper was served to fully one hundred guests.

The happy couple will spend their honeymoon at Niagara, Montreal and other places of interest, and on their return will reside at Houlton, Maine.

TIREDDNESS MEANS DANGER.

Indicates Faulty Blood and Wornout Nerve.

Build up, or Total Collapse will Surely Follow.

When you're tired all day, bothered by trifles, exhausted with nervousness, be sure there is something wrong.

You need bracing up, need more nourishment in the blood, need a powerful medicine to vitalize the nerves and distribute force and staying power to all over-worked organs.

The most marvelous success is Ferrozene, a nourishing tonic so scientific as to be the admiration of every physician. Ferrozene performs wonders for people in poor health; it acts directly on the blood, enriching it with strength and new life that is at once dispatched to all parts of the body. Ferrozene feeds the nerves and vital energies, supplies force, determination and joyous, buoyant spirits.

A case where there was lassitude and lack of strength is told by Mr. David Brown, of post-office box No. 30, Beeton, Ont.: "About a year ago my health commenced to fail. My hands and feet seemed always cold. I felt worn out and exhausted, weak as a little child. My face twitched. My limbs and arms commenced to lose their sense of feeling and finally my left side left. My appetite ran down. Ferrozene was the first to give me any help. I improved with it very quickly. It toned up the blood and started circulation, so that the numbness gradually disappeared. My condition was perfectly cured by Ferrozene, and I have been well ever since. (Signed) David Brown."

SPECIAL NOTICE.—To get satisfactory results be sure you get Ferrozene only. Fifty cents per box or six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont., and Hartford, Conn., U. S. A.

MAZERRALL SETTLEMENT.

Nov. 8.—Our farmers are all busily engaged ploughing, the snow that fell Saturday last having all gone off.

Several large flocks of wild geese were seen flying on their southward journey lately.

We are pleased to hear that Mr. Abraham Myshrahl, who was ill from the effects of blood-poisoning, is rapidly recovering.

Mr. Napoleon Thomas is renovating his house; the new cellar wall is a great improvement, we are getting rather suspicious Napoleon!

Mr. Alex Goodline, a noted sportsman, has succeeded in capturing one pair of partridge and two jacks.

The young people of this place spent an enjoyable evening at Mr. and Mrs. Alex Goodline's Halloween party. The evening was spent in games and dancing, and merry Halloween tricks were tried.

Nearly all our boys have gone to the woods, leaving many fearful maidens to mourn their absence.

Mr. Arthur Myshrahl intends to drive a snow-plough between this place and Hanwell this winter, travellers will be very much benefited thereby.

Miss Eliza Myshrahl is at home spending her vacation.

Mr. Ellingworth of Hanwell, intends to take up his abode at the Morris farm in the near future.

Messrs. Charles and Gilbert Burgoyne will soon begin their lumbering operations on Long's Creek, they expect to get about two million logs.

DO YOU GET BILIOUS?

No remedy could be more prompt and agreeable than Dr. Hamilton's Pills. No matter where you go you will hear of the grand cures they make. Writing from Ottawa Mrs. M. E. Legere says: "For people inclined to biliousness and such headache I don't think that there is a remedy to compare with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I formerly had bilious attacks about once a month—used Dr. Hamilton's Pills and obtained grand results. My stomach has been put in good order and my health improved." No medicine better for men, women and children. Try Dr. Hamilton's Pills—25c. per box or five boxes for $1.00 at all druggists.

MIDDLE SOUTHAMPTON.

Nov. 7.—The first snow of the season fell on Saturday the fifth, but the warm rain of the next day soon caused it to disappear.

The water in the river is rapidly coming up.

William Clark and family have gone to Boston for the winter.

Felix Billins and family have moved to Hartland. Alfred Moores has also left the place, to Hartland he has gone.

Melvin Way and family have gone to the west country, it is thought to be Michigan as none was aware of their going until they were gone.

Rev. Mr. Noble, preacher in the United Baptist church last Sunday to a crowded house.

There is some talk of a tri-weekly mail between Fredericton and Woodstock, as it is now a twice-a-week mail. The better plan would be to have three mails a week from Fredericton to this office, Middle Southampton, and a daily mail from Middle Southampton to Woodstock, this is what the people want, and have been working for four years, but even this plan could be greatly improved on, and that is, to have the mail matter for Southampton Parish to come to Millville Station, and a daily mail from Millville through Waterville, Hartfield, Clark's Corner, Campbell Settlement, Grand View, and the several post-offices along the river in Southampton to Lower Southampton, Rosville out to Temperance Vale road, back to Millville again, this plan would be the greatest benefit to the people. Of course this would require three mail drivers, one from Fredericton to Lower Southampton to connect with the mail from Millville to the Southampton route, and one to connect the Millville Southampton route with Woodstock, and it would cost but a very little more than it does at present, besides what a benefit it would be for the people would have a better service and a quicker one.

We are pleased to see A. C. Whitehead around again, after his recent illness.

Mr. Dunphy is visiting his daughters, Mrs. B. W. Akerley and Mrs. F. R. Brooks.

Mr. Bishop is also visiting his daughter, Mrs. N. W. Brown.

THE BARONY.

Nov. 6.—A social evening was spent at the residence of Fred Ebbett, on the 3rd inst., when the friends of Rev. A. A. Rutledge, presented him with a purse of $24. The reverend gentleman made a most fitting reply and was heartily applauded.

Dr. Campbell passed through this place today.

Mrs. J. C. Davidson of Woodstock, is at present nursing Mrs. Ernest Hall, who is rejoicing over the arrival of another son.

Mrs. Chas. Scott and Miss Ebbett spent Saturday with Mrs. C. L. Scott at Lower Southampton.

Wm. R. Scott and family have moved into the house owned by Le-Baron Anderson.

James Foster, who has a good position on the C. P. R., was visiting his parents here last week.

AN EASTERN WOMAN'S CHOICE.

A daughter of one of New York's wealthiest and most widely known hotel men, wearing moccasins on her feet and a parti-colored shawl over her shoulders and carrying a papoose strapped to her back—this is one of the curious spectacles that will be painted out to the thousands of land seekers from all parts of the country who will come into this region when the government opens the Shoshone Indian reservation to settlement next spring, says the Lander, Wyo., correspondent of the Chicago Chronicle.

It doubtless is perfectly safe to say that there are few white women in the world who for mere love of man would give up New York for an Indian reservation, 150 miles from a wealth for poverty, silks and satins for the coarse apparel of a squaw, but that is precisely what Grace Wetherbee did. She did it, moreover, not for love of a white man, but for love of an Indian mother of her child.

It is a strange tale, that of this daughter of a wealthy and widely known New Yorker and her red-skinned husband.

Grace Wetherbee's father was and still is one of the proprietors of the Manhattan Hotel in New York City which, until the Waldorf-Astoria was built, was the finest hotel in the metropolis.

Six years ago Miss Wetherbee came from New York out to Fort Washakie, eighty miles east of Lander, to visit the family of J. K. Moore, who was at that time post trader there.

At the home of Mr. Moore Miss Wetherbee met Sherman Coolidge, a full-blooded Arapahoe Indian, who was then, and still is, conducting a little Episcopal mission at the Shoshone reservation, a few miles from the fort.

It was a case of love at first sight of that sort of life that laughs at locks and keys and defies the whole world.

Coolidge called frequently at the modest home of the post trader to see Miss Wetherbee and openly and boldly paid court to her. Nor did she discourage his suit, as most daughters of wealthy New York hotel men doubtless would have done. Contrarywise, she encouraged it, and when, not long after the couple met, he asked her to become his wife, she promptly and unhesitatingly consented.

The engagement was a brief one. Arrangements were promptly made for the nuptials. The young Indian missionary and the daughter of the wealthy New Yorker presented themselves before the Rev. Mr. Roberts who was conducting a little mission at the Shoshone reservation and requested him to make them husband and wife. He declined to perform the marriage.

Nothing daunted the lovers thereupon set out by stage to Casper, in this state, nearly 200 miles distant from the fort, resolved to have the knot tied there. When Mr. Roberts saw, however, that they were determined to carry out their purpose to become husband and wife he relented, called them back and performed the ceremony at his home.

Since their marriage ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge have lived happily together and a child has been born of their union—the papoose which the mother carries strapped on her back as squaws carry their infants.

Despite the fact that she is the daughter of a wealthy and cultivated New York man, the refinement and civilization and the luxuries of wealth, despite the fact that she was reared amid the refinements of civilization and the luxuries of wealth, despite the fact that she was given all the educational and social advantages that money and thoughtful parents of fond parents could supply, Mrs. Coolidge has fallen into many of the customs and habits of the red people among whom she has lived during the last six years. She dresses more like a squaw than a white woman, she is careless of her personal appearance, she is undignified in her bearing, she is undisciplined in her conduct and destitute of those social graces which constitute the chief charm of the city-bred young woman of the class to which she belonged before her marriage.

Her choice of a husband and of a life has involved the sacrifice of these things which the average daughter of wealthy, well-bred parents value most highly, but this sacrifice seems not to have made her in anywise discontent. To all appearances she is devoted to and happy in the love of her red-skinned husband and her half-breed child, and in the devotion of her husband's people, among whom she is regarded as a sort of saint. She has faithfully and zealously assisted her husband in trying to uplift his people morally and to enlighten them spiritually and her labors have not been fruitless.

The life of Sherman Coolidge has been singularly rich in incident and measurably rich in achievement.

Out here in the west years ago an Arapahoe village was attacked and destroyed by a band of hostile Sioux and a brother and sister of tender years belonging thereto were taken prisoners.

Word of the attack upon and destruction of the village was sent to the nearest military post and Captain Coolidge, who was in command there, promptly set out with a detachment of soldiers to run down and capture the offending savages and recover from them the two little prisoners. He accomplished his purpose.

Captain Coolidge took a fancy to the little Arapahoe boy who had been taken a prisoner by the Sioux and decided to rear and educate him. While not legally adopted, the boy was treated by the officer as a son, and a deep, warm tender affection bound them to each other. The boy took the name of Coolidge and he justified the faith his benefactor had in him. Captain Coolidge gave him the rudiments of an English education at his home and then sent him away to college.

The young Arapahoe decided to enter the ministry and accordingly he graduated from Seabury, an Episcopal theological school at Fairbault, Minn. Then he returned to his own people as a missionary and for a number of years he has had charge of the Episcopal mission at the Shoshone Reservation. Near the reservation he has a ranch on which he lives with his wife and child.

Coolidge is a large, corpulent man and by no means ill-looking. He wears the conventional clerical garb. He is popular among his own people and has done much for them.

Robert Findlay of British Columbia and Charles Grant, of Pictou, N. S., the Canadians who were taken prisoners when the Russians captured the Japanese sealing schooner, have arrived in London, bringing a letter to Lord Strathcona from the British Consul at St. Petersburg, Lord Strathcona, as both are penniless. The men tell of a life of privation and neglect, loss of money and goods. They were compelled to pay their own passages from St. Petersburg, where their claim for compensation was ignored. They will renew their claim through the Canadian Government.

TERRIBLE PAINS ACROSS BACK

SUFFERED EIGHT MONTHS WITH KIDNEY TROUBLE.

WOULD HAVE TO STAY IN BED FOR THREE DAYS AT A TIME

Doan's Kidney Pills CURED HIM

Mr. Thomas Fitzgerald, Hazeldean, Ont., writes us as follows: "I was a great sufferer from kidney trouble for eight months. I had terrible pains across the small of my back. I would have to stay in bed for three days at a time and could not do any work. I tried several remedies but of no avail, and also plasters but they were of no use."

One day a neighbor of mine advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I was so much discouraged I told him I was tired of trying remedies, but he urged me to try one box so I purchased one, and before I was through using it, I found a change for the better so I got five boxes more, and I have had no trouble with my kidneys since. I would not be without Doan's Pills in my house."

It is really not difficult to cure kidney trouble in its first stages. All you have to do is to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial. They are a never-failing cure for all forms of kidney trouble. They quickly relieve the congested, overworked kidneys, and gradually bring them back to health.
