THE ALBERTA ELECTIONS.

This was election day in Alberta, and Liberals anticipate hearing cheering news from the contest which has been a hot one. One of the members of the Rutherford government which is making its first appeal to the new province, is Hon. Dr. Debever, formerly of St. John, who is a candidate in Lethbridge. Other former New Brunswickers in the contest are Mr. R. B. Bennett, a native of Albert, Tory leader and candidate in Calgary, Rev. Dr. Gaetz and Mr. C. E. A. Simonds, Tory candidates respectively in Red Deer and Leduc. Dr. Gaetz will probably be elected, Mr. Bennett is up against Hon. Mr. Cushing, a member of the government and the result is uncertain, and Mr. Simonds, it is said, has not much prospect of success.

The result of the election will be watched with a great deal of interest all over Canada, as the federal government's school policy in the west was one of the important issues involved. Mr. Bennett, indeed, has made his campaign especially on the platform of alleged provincial rights, and a protest against the autonomy bill.

THE SUN'S FUTURE.

It looks as if there is really something in the rumor that the St. John Sun is likely to pass into the hands of the Liberal party. The statement is made, and the Sun itself does not deny it, that the Liberals have an option on the paper, and the price is mentioned at $100,000. Indeed Mr. Thorn, president of the Sun Publishing company rather indicated to a press interviewer that there was some foundation for the report.

The Sun was started in 1878 by the late John Livingstone, as a Conservative campaign paper, and has been an extreme partizan ever since, and its sudden turn to Liberal principles would create quite a sensation in political circles. It is a well edited and well managed newspaper and is widely read.

At the present time the Liberals have no morning paper in St. John, and are badly handicapped by the absence of such an organ. Efforts have been made to purchase the Telegraph and to start a new paper, but neither project materialized, and whether anything will come out of the present proposition will probably be known in a very short time.

NEW YORK MAYORALTY ELECTION.

It is probably a good thing for New York that Hearst was not elected mayor. Yet all honest people will sympathize with him and deplore the conditions if he is able to prove that he was cheated out of a plurality vote by gross frauds in the registration and polling of voters.

Although Mayor McLellan, the democratic mayor, was re-elected, his plurality is so small that the result is a black eye to Tammany, which has lost control of the board of aldermen. McLellan has been a good mayor and if he is permitted to occupy the office for another term he will be able to exercise an independence of Tammany influence which nearly cost him his election.

All men of honor must admire the splendid successful fight which Jerome put up for the district attorney ship, and with a man of his sterling character, high instincts and energetic action again in the office, an improvement in the morals of the great city will become apparent.

No reasonable argument can be advanced against the admission of Miss French to the New Brunswick bar. There are lady teachers, lady doctors and lady preachers and why not lady lawyers? The applicant has a strong and gallant friend in the attorney general, who urged her case before the Barristers' Society, and she will, no doubt, receive just treatment from the members of the bench who are noted for their gallantry to ladies.

Many friends of Mr. Edwin T. McKnight will be pleased to learn of his election to the Massachusetts legislature. Mr. McKnight is a type of an energetic New Brunswicker, who has forced his way to the front in his adopted home by sheer force of industry, ability and merit. He had a hard struggle to secure a liberal education and is a fine evidence of a self made man who made a good job of it.

Hon. James Gowan, an Ontario Senator, 90 years old, is the only Canadian to receive birthday honors from the King. He has been created a K. C. M. G., and in future will be known as Sir James Gowan.

King Edward was sixty years old today, and all his loyal subjects throughout the British empire will wish him many happy returns of the day.

Mr. Henry M. Whitney, the democratic candidate for the lieutenant governorship of Massachusetts, was defeated by less than 3,000 majority.

PRINCE'S MOVEMENTS.

Great Programme Arranged for his Entertainment at New York.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 8.—The British fleet under command of Lord of Battemberg, bound from Annapolis to New York, passed out of the Virginia Capes this afternoon. The trip from the Capes to New York is expected to be made in less than twenty hours.

No fixed programme has been announced for Prince Louis' first day in New York, as the exact hour of his squadron's arrival is uncertain. He will probably make an official call upon the commandant of the New York Navy Yard, and will probably receive welcoming visits from Mayor McClellan and Percy Sander-son, the British consul general at New York.

In the evening the Prince will be the guest of St. George's Society at the society's annual dinner.

General Grant will be the Prince's host at a luncheon on Nov. 10, and a reception at Rear Admiral Coghlan's will follow. In the evening the Naval Academy alumni association will entertain the Prince and his commanding officers at dinner. An excursion to West Point is scheduled for Nov. 11 and that evening Col. Robert M. Thompson, President of the Naval Academy alumni association, will entertain Prince Louis at dinner. The Prince will spend Sunday Nov. 12, as he wishes, and in the evening will dine with Mayor McClellan. On the following day he will be the guest of the New York Chamber of Commerce at a luncheon, and in the evening will attend the dinner at Coney Island, which the American bluejackets are to give to their "British cousins."

The Prince will give a grand ball on board the flagship Drake on Nov. 14. On Nov. 15, the last evening of his visit, he will be given a dinner by the Pilgrims' Society of New York.

The next day his squadron will sail for Gibraltar.

FILTHY POST OFFICE.

Believed Death From Diphtheria Due to Unsanitary Condition of St. John Office.

St. John, Nov. 9.—(Special)—It is possible that the post-office building here may be quarantined as the result of a death which it is thought resulted from diphtheria. It occurred this morning in the family of the janitor.

The sanitary condition of the building is reported as being most filthy, and it is expected that more cases of the disease will develop. An examination of the child is being made, but there is little doubt that diphtheria was the cause of death. The child was aged 10 years, a granddaughter of Geo. Harrison, janitor, and daughter of Mrs. E. A. Friars. The board of health will investigate.

SUPREME COURT.

A United States Attorney Argued a Case This Morning.

The attention of the supreme court was taken up this morning in hearing argument in the case of Papageorgiou vs. Turner. Plaintiff in the case is a Greek resident of St. John, who some time ago brought action against United States Immigration Inspector Turner for false arrest and detention at Portland, Me. The case was tried before Chief Justice Tuck at St. John, a short time ago, and resulted in favor of the defendant. Appeal was taken to full bench with the object of having a verdict entered for plaintiff. Attorney General Pugsley who represented the Greek, argued that his client was the victim of gross conspiracy and was certainly entitled to damages from United States Immigration authorities. A majority of the judges seemed to share the views of the attorney general, and were quite outspoken in condemnation of methods resorted to by Turner and a Greek detective named Seraphic to get the plaintiff over board that he might be held as witness in an alien smuggling case. Hon. P. F. Dyer of Portland, Me., who with L. A. Cursey, K. C. appears for defendant, was permitted out of courtesy to argue the case for defendant. He did not attempt to defend the acts of Detective Seraphic, but contended that Turner, knowing Papageorgiou had illegally entered the United States, was justified in having him deported. He (Dyer) as prosecuting counsel was responsible for the Greek's detention at Portland, and Turner had nothing to do with it.

Mr. Dyer made a good argument and was listened to with much interest by the judges and members of the bar. The argument was unfinished when the court adjourned at noon.

BITS OF NEWS.

Sir George Williams, founder of the Young Men's Christian Association and President of its London headquarters for twenty years, died Monday. He was born in 1821. Sir George was knighted by Queen Victoria in 1884 for his services in behalf of the Association.

Mrs. Ruth Eaton, a colored woman aged about 70 years, died of carbolic acid poisoning Wednesday morning in her home at St. John. Mrs. Eaton was found by her daughter lying on the floor of one of the rooms down stairs. By her side was an empty bottle labelled carbolic acid. Neighbors were hurriedly notified and a physician was summoned, but within a few hours Mrs. Eaton was dead. It was a case of suicide.

Julius Epsory, 31 years of age, a Toronto street railway conductor, was instantly killed last night. Epsory alighted from a car just opposite his house and passing behind it was run down by a car going the opposite direction and almost decapitated. Mrs. Epsory, the victim's wife, left for a visit to her former home, Big Pond, N. S., Tuesday night.

Five persons were killed, ten seriously injured and a score slightly hurt in a head-on collision between a passenger train and a coal train on the Delaware, Lackawana & Western railroad near Hunlocks Creek, Pa., Wednesday afternoon. All of the killed were train men. The injuries to the passengers were caused by the terrible force of the trains coming together, the engine on the passenger train being forced almost through the baggage car.
