BARRISTERS SOCIETY MEETING.

A Lively Discussion Over the Case of Miss Mabel French

THE ST. JOHN YOUNG LADY WHO IS SEEKING ADMISSION AS AN ATTORNEY.

Her Cause Ably Championed by the Attorney General And Recorder Skinner.

COUNTY COURT JUDGES MAY BE CALLED UPON TO DO THE WORK OF J. P.'S.

The annual meeting of the New Brunswick Barristers' Society was had undertaken. He could not say held last evening in the supreme the same for men. The least that room. There was an exceptionally the Society could do was to construe large attendance. A. B. Connel, K. the law in its widest sense, though C., president of the Society, occupied he thought with the attorney general the chair, and among those present that the law as at present existed were Attorney General Pugsley, was fully ample.

Messrs. Skinner, Curry, Barry, Mott, Phinney, T. C. Allen, G. W. Allen, Stevens, Jonah, Slipp, Carter, LaForest, Powell, Fenety, Teed, McCready, Hanson, Lawlor, McAlpine, McLellan, McKay and Taylor. Hon. P. W. Dyer of Portland, Me., who is here to argue a case before the bench, was also present.

For over two hours the Society discussed the case of Miss French, who recently passed the examination for attorney as to whether or not under the existing law the court has power to make a female an attorney of the court.

The attorney general, who spoke first on the matter, said that he regretted that the question should ever have arisen. Miss French had been admitted three years ago as a student, qualified to study law and no objection had been then taken. He reviewed at length the rules of the Society and said that as he considered these rules he thought that Phinney, which was carried by a the case of Miss French was entirely similar vote, the president of the Society, and that she having passed, she was authorized to appear before the necessary examinations, and having before the court and presents the law all the qualifications, should be and authorities on the question of the recommended to the court to be sworn admission of women to the legal profession as an attorney.

Recorder Skinner expressed in the Mr. Allen, the secretary of the So-strongest language similar views. He stated that he had been in-cited the case of Miss Harrington, admitted by Miss French that she former student. The privileges of would be represented by counsel when women were advancing. They had the case came up for argument before the court.

A number of members thought that the counsel for Miss French should be paid by the Society, but after discussion it was decided that there was no power to make such a grant. This closed the discussion and the case will come up for argument before the supreme court on Friday.

TO ABOLISH J. P.'S. COURT.

The attorney general stated that he had two matters to bring before the Society. The government had asked the opinion of the profession throughout the province as to the desirability of introducing a judiciary act. The great majority had replied in favor, but before the government took any action it would like the opinion of the Society. Another matter engaging the attention of the government was the administration of justices' courts. The administration was not satisfactory, and it was thought that it would plan to overcome this difficulty by putting the jurisdiction with the county court judges. The procedure would be just as cheap. A judge could visit each of the parishes in his jurisdiction say once a month, and hear cases. It might be that one or two more county judges might have to be appointed, but the result would be satisfactory. A clerk of court could be appointed to issue processes, the fees would be about the same except that the fees of a magistrate would be saved. The plan was a general one, and had not been worked out in detail.

The Society seemed to look very much with favor both on the judiciary act and the proposed change in regard to justices' courts, and it was decided to consider these matters at another meeting of the Society to be held in St. John at a later date.

AFTER MRS. DEAN.

Nurse in Dress Suit Case Believed to be Hiding in Nova Scotia.

Boston, Nov. 9.—"Mary S. Dean", or Mrs. Dr. Gilchrist, the nurse who had charge of the house, 68 Winton street, Roxbury, where Susie Geary died, is said to have fled to Hammond Plains (N.S.). The Boston police got this information late yesterday, and wired the chief of police at Halifax to send there and arrest her.

When she left Boston she went to Portland, but she later returned to Boston, and her subsequent movements were somewhat cloudy until information came that she had crossed the border and gone to Nova Scotia. She will be extradited and brought back to this city.

Suspicion was directed to Nova Scotia from the fact that several bodies of supposed victims of criminal malpractice were registered in the death certificates that were obtained as being residents of Nova Scotia. More than that, after the bodies were prepared for burial, they were shipped to Nova Scotia and there turned over to a local undertaker for interment.

These certificates were not questioned at the time, but the probabilities are that the scope of the investigation will be broad enough to include them and perhaps bring in to undesirable prominence the doctors giving them such certificates of death.

Halifax, N.S., Nov. 9.—The police have no further information than what is contained in the Boston despatch and no clue to the woman's whereabouts. She is said to have arrived in Halifax last Friday and gone to the suburbs, but nothing definite as yet is known.

F. MacRae, D. R. Fraser, Jonah, Cameron, forwards.

All-Halifax—McDonald (Wanderers) full back, Campbell (Dalhousie), Gorham (Wanderers), Doyle (St. F. X.), Bourne, (Turro), three-quarters, Rankine and Dickie, halves, F. Dyer, Fenety, Baillie, Wanderers; Bruce, Corston, Jas. Rankine, Dalhousie; F. Macdonald, G. Archibald, (Turro), forwards.

The second Dalhousie quarter will be either Sweet or Fraser, and he will be decided upon after the practices in Boston.

ANOTHER LUMBER DEAL.

Newcastle Advocate.—During the past week the Advocate has heard of a big deal which is said to have been put through or will be closed in a short time.

When John McKane was here a few weeks ago, he was very much interested in the lumber business, and it is said that he made the Edward Sinclair Lumber Company a fine offer for its property at Bridgetown and timber limits in northern New Brunswick, and that he will return next spring and take a hand at managing the business, making large additions and improvements to the already prosperous industry and embark in the lumber business on a large scale.

The Advocate endeavored to get some particulars, but was unable to procure any information, as William and E. H. Sinclair are both away at present.

Hon. C. H. LaBelle, chief commissioner of public works, is among the guests at the Queen.
