YOUNG LADY KILLED.

Thrown From Pullman at Vanceboro and Died of Her Injuries at St. John

Vanceboro, Me., Oct. 20.—(Special)—An accident that will probably terminate fatally, occurred here this morning at 7.50 o'clock.
Miss Lillian Fraser, of Northport, near Amherst, N. S., who was on her way home from Boston, was thrown from the platform of the sleeping car by the cars coming together suddenly and had one leg cut off, the other badly injured, and received other injuries to her head and body.
She was dragged about fifty feet under the moving car.
She was taken to the St. John hospital accompanied by Dr. Young, of Vanceboro.
The injured lady is about 15 years of age, and is a school teacher.

MISS FRASER DEAD.

St. John, Oct. 20.—(Special)—Miss Fraser, the lady injured this morning at Vanceboro, died at the general public hospital at 2.15 this afternoon.

LAURIER'S ANNOUNCEMENT.

Premier says he will Stay in his Position Five More Years.

AND HOPES TO LIVE TO SEE TRANSCONTINENTAL RAILWAY COMPLETED

Quebec, Oct. 20.—(Special)—At the banquet last evening in honor of Hon. S. N. Parent, Sir Wilfrid Laurier intimated that he would remain head of the government for at least five years.
Referring to the Transcontinental railway the premier said he hoped to live to see it completed, and despite rumors to the contrary he would not resign his premiership at that time, if his life was spared, as his health permitted him to continue in the service of Canada.
The premier's remarks on this point were received by an enthusiastic burst of applause continuing some minutes.
Sir Wilfrid looked in the best of health and spoke with his usual force and eloquence.
The banquet was striking testimony to public appreciation of ex-premier Parent, who retired from political life to become chairman of the Transcontinental Railway Commission.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW BRUNSWICK.

Rev. A. A. Rideout's Lecture—Mount Allison Football team Here Thanksgiving Day—The Halifax Trip.

The University, Oct. 20th.
Rev. A. A. Rideout will address the College Y. M. C. A. on Sunday at 4 p. m. His subject will be "A Young Man Untainted Amid the Temptations of Social Life."
We have had the pleasure of hearing the Rev. Mr. Rideout in our Y. M. C. A. rooms on several occasions, and we trust that Sunday's lecture will be attended by a large and appreciative audience.
At a meeting of the U. F. A., this morning, Mr. Squires, manager of the football team, stated that the Mount Allison boys had agreed to our proposition and would play here on Thursday next.

MARITIME UNION.

Sunday School Associations of N. B. and P. E. I. United.

Moncton, Oct. 20.—(Special)—The New Brunswick S. S. Association decided two important matters at this morning's session.
The convention acted upon recommendation of the executive committee, to organize an adult Bible class department. The new department will be organized with Mr. J. N. Harvey, of St. John, Supt.
It was unanimously decided to unite the N. B. and P. E. I. Associations, to be called N. B. and P. E. I. S. S. Association.
Action in this direction was taken on the recommendation from a committee of both associations presented to the convention by Rev. Mr. Lucas.
The first clause declaring for union was adopted by a standing vote, the convention singing the doxology and prayer being offered by W. C. Pearce, International S. S. worker, Chicago.
The provisions of union provided for the time of the general secretary being divided proportionally, between the two provinces, and annual conventions to be held alternately in P. E. I. and New Brunswick.
The minimum amount to be contributed by P. E. I. Island to the association is $500.

IRVING'S ASHES.

London, Oct. 20.—(Special)—Beside that other actor, Garrick, and under the statue of Shakespeare, as interpreter of whose plays he won fame, the ashes of Sir Henry Irving today was given burial at Westminster Abbey.

Services were held in the presence of representatives of all walks of life. King Edward was represented by General Sir Dighton Probyn, keeper of the privy purse and the Prince of Wales by Lieutenant Colonel William H. P. Carrington, comptroller of the Prince's household, while cabinet ministers and ambassadors attended in person. Whitelaw Reid, the American ambassador, who was visiting in Scotland, came to London purposely to testify America's regard for the dead tragedian.

VERY SAD CASE

Truro, N. S., Oct. 20.—(Special)—A pitiful occurrence took place at the Indian reserve here this week.
A squaw, 18 years old, who had left camp at Dorchester, had been begging around for a few weeks. A day or two ago in the open air, near one of the camps, she birth to a child.
She is now housed in a rough shed and some of the nearby squaws look in on her occasionally.
When the child came into the world the mother was scantily clothed and had not an article of clothing for the newborn, and one of the reserve women has been begging the town for clothing.

STATE BALL FOR THE PRINCE.

Legislative Buildings to be Scene of Gay Function During His Visit.

The Lieutenant Governor and members of the executive government have decided to give a state ball at the parliament buildings in honor of His Serene Highness, Prince Louis of Battenberg, who is to visit Fredericton on Friday if next week.
The Prince is to arrive in St. John on Thursday with a portion of his fleet, and will come to the capital by special train on the following day. He will likely be accompanied by his secretary, Mr. Edward S. Shearman, R. M., and by Flag Lieutenant, Gerald Sombery. They will arrive here about noon and will occupy rooms at the Queen hotel.
The state ball, which commences at 9.30 in the evening, promises to be the most elaborate function the city has seen for many years. Several thousand invitations will be sent out to all parts of the province, and it is likely that a large number of people will attend.
Lieut. Col. McLean, A. D. C., to the Lieutenant Governor, held a conference here last evening with Private Secretary Barker, and Secretary Winslow, of the Board of Works, when plans for the proposed function were outlined. It was decided to insert a notice in the St. John daily papers, calling upon those who wish to attend to send in their names before next Tuesday, so that invitations can be forwarded to them.
Yesterday afternoon Private Secretary Barker sent notices to every member of the New Brunswick legislature, requesting them to send a list of the names of people in their respective districts, who would probably wish to do honor to the royal visitor.

DROWNING OF JOHN BROWN.

Mr. C. L. B. Miles, C. E., in a Letter to His Brother Tells of the Tragic Death of Young Mauderville Man.

Mr. A. R. Miles of Upper Mauderville, has received the following letter from his brother, Mr. C. L. B. Miles, giving further details of the drowning of Mr. John Brown, son of the late Mr. Hanford Brown of Upper Mauderville, in the Winnipeg river, New Ontario, on Oct. 13th.
"The men were moving camp. I loaded a canoe with stuff and came ahead to find a new camp chance with two men. My transit man Mr. Moffitt and five others, Brown, Porter, Larsson, Crookes and Gibson, started in a Peterborough canoe that we have often had seven men in, leaving two canoes to bring loads of camp stuff. We had four canoes all told. I saw the Peterborough come out when we were a mile up river and until we went around an island it was in sight. By some means they swamped it when half way up and were about 300 feet from shore. They were all good canoe men and have been using them much every day since May except Brown, Larsson, a Norwegian, and an expert swimmer immediately abandoned the canoe and struck out failed to reach it is very mysterious for shore, and why in the world he—a young man 23 years of age, full of strength and vigor, and not a bit afraid of the water. He wore a coat and sweater and long tarrigans, and it must be that the clothing put down the man. Moffatt and Crookes followed him, when Moffatt fearing he could not make shore turned and swam back to the canoe to which Porter, Brown and Gibson were trying to hold on. They would press it under and sometimes it was four feet under water. Moffatt pulled Brown up once, and Porter also, and put them on the canoe. Crookes also turned back from trying for shore and seemed to have lost his wits as he swam past the canoe and turned again and was swimming again beside it when he went down. All the time the wind and their efforts were working them towards the shore, but Porter an elderly man and slight, sank, and then Brown, Moffatt and Gibson held on and got to the rocks and crawled out, but neither could stand and to their great surprise Larsson had not reached shore. He was an expert swimmer, could swim a mile easily when naked, yet could not make that 300 feet with his clothes on.
I have sent to Kenora for boats and drags and expect them this morning and will make every effort to find the bodies.
4 p. m.—Have been dragging river all day without success. Will wire if we find him."
(A telegram was received Tuesday, saying Larsson's body had been found, but Brown's has not yet been discovered.)

ROOSEVELT'S SOUTHERN TOUR.

Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 20.—The president's train arrived here over the Southern railway at 7.10 o'clock on schedule time, and during the 30 minutes of his stay here last evening he had from 25,000 people a reception of the most enthusiastic character.
Through a brilliantly lighted street he was rapidly conveyed in a motor car to Vance park, where he spoke for fifteen minutes. The crowd was so great that fully 10,000 were denied the privilege of hearing him. He created the wildest enthusiasm by referring to the Mecklenburg declaration of independence, to Mrs. Jackson, widow of General Stonewall Jackson, and Lieut. Wm. E. Shipp, a monument to whom he passed en route to the park.
The feature of his visit was his meeting with the widow of the great confederate leader. Mrs. Jackson lives within a stone's throw of the station, and when the train pulled in she was present at the head of a committee of ladies appointed by Mayor McIninch to receive Mrs. Roosevelt. When the president was introduced he took her hand and remained talking for fully five minutes.
"Mrs. Jackson, you do not know how glad I am to meet you. What, the widow of the great Stonewall Jackson. Why it is worth the whole trip down here to have a chance to shake your hand."
He referred to her grandson, Jackson Kristian, whom he appointed to a cadetship at West Point. "He's a mighty fine fellow. Mrs. Jackson; a mighty fine fellow, by Jove."
The citizens' committee stood in waiting while he escorted Mrs. Jackson to Mrs. Roosevelt and introduced her.
While the president was speaking in the park, Mrs. Jackson entertained Mrs. Roosevelt at her home, and a hundred Charlotte women helped to entertain her. After Mrs. Roosevelt had returned to the car she sent a handsome bouquet of American beauty roses and a note to Mrs. Jackson.
Lieut. Governor Winston, acting for Governor Glenn, who is attending his brother's funeral, Senator Simmons, and prominent North Carolinians were invited to remain on the president's train while in the state,
