MILLVILLE NEWS.

Mr. Appleby's House Burned—Narrow Escape of the Inmates.

(Special Correspondence to the Herald).

Feb. 3.—To let the people of the nearby villages know that we are not snowed up, I will now give you a few items concerning the doings and sayings in this little town of ours.

Mr. Woodie Grant is clerking for Mr. Colter, and boarding at the Millville House.

Miss Veysey and her mother are at present visiting friends in this place.

Mr. T. A. Lindsey of Woodstock, registered at the Millville House on Tuesday.

The trains were delayed during the latter part of last week, but on Sunday there was a double dose of them, two up and two down.

Mr. Colter is having another car loaded with rock maple logs. This makes the third within two weeks which has been shipped from here. They go to the McFarlane & Neill Manufacturing Co. at Nashwaakisis.

Miss Pearl Palmer of Mapleton, spent a few days with her brother at this place.

The young people of this place have at last been aroused and their feelings stirred either by the cold weather or some other influence. Last Saturday evening a party of ten wended their way to the residence of Mr. James Hallett and gave the people of that home a surprise. The evening was pleasantly whiled away by music and games. As it was Saturday evening the lurch was passed around early, and the young folks returned home all voting their hostess to be "one of the right sort."

Mr. E. H. Estey has received word that his daughter Ada, who is attending Normal School this winter, is suffering from an attack of typhoid fever.

B. R. Bartt, who has been suffering with three broken ribs, is able to be around and visit his friends once more.

Last Monday morning the residence of Mr. Benjamin Appleby was destroyed by fire. The house was a comparatively new one, as Mr. Appleby was burned out about seven years ago. Mr. Appleby's mother, an aged lady, was forced to go out into a snow drift with nothing on but her night clothes. Charles McGuire, Mr. Appleby's step-son, a young lad of about seventeen, was badly burned about his hands and face in his heroic efforts to save his little brothers and sisters. He was brought at once to Dr. Owens' office and his burns dressed. He is at present doing very well. All the people of this place sympathize with Mr. Appleby as he is a kind and obliging neighbor and well liked by everybody.

As we saw an item in the Herald from Lower Haynesville about the mail, we will tell you what we think. If the people of that place wait for the new man to break his own roads or to travel on the lumber roads as the old one did, they will find that they have the wrong one to deal with.

HE DESERVED PITY.

His suffering from Sciatica was so great, but thanks to Nerviline he was cured. "I suffered for three years from sciatica," writes E. S. Jenkins of Portland, "and no man ever suffered more. I spent a small fortune on different remedies but the only one with real merit was Nerviline. I used a few bottles of Nerviline and was perfectly cured. I can recommend Nerviline as a sure cure for sciatica; it's excellent also for rheumatism and neuralgia." Try Nerviline, 25c. at all druggists.

Stole Off with Engine.

New York, Feb. 5.—A Houston, Tex., despatch to The Press, says:—Knocking the engineer of a locomotive unconscious with blows with scoop-shovels, two life prisoners, both murderers, named Tappin and Wilson, jumped into the cab, pulled wide the throttle, and sped out of the yard of the Huntsville Penitentiary Wednesday, amid a shower of bullets from the wardens. The convicts abandoned the engine after a wild dash of five miles, and were caught hiding in a thicket. One of the men was shot through the lungs, and his companion would not desert him.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Do you always keep an appointment or just claim to?

A woman always thinks her dress-maker keeps half the goods.

Nine-tenths of the things people quarrel over do not make any difference one way or the other.

When the doctor says to you, "Old man, I'm sorry, but you can't live an hour," how will you take it?

A boy is old enough to be welcome in the neighbor girl's parlor long before his sister thinks he is old enough to sit in the parlor at home.

Had the old fashioned children acted like the present generation there would have been no children. Their parents would have beaten them to death.

Every one has his vanity card to play. The preacher gets a man into the fold by telling him of the "great influence" he has upon others.

A Fish's Appetite.

A singular instance of tenacity in the digestion of fish is reported from Sheffield, England. The fish, which was a ling four feet long, had what appeared to be an abnormally hard liver. But the cutting up process revealed something far stranger. The supposed hard liver turned out to be nothing else but a piece of stout netting, over two yards long and fourteen inches wide, which had been pressed into the form of a football. How this great mass of indigestible material came to be swallowed by the creature is a mystery, and the suggestion that the fish caught in the toils of a fisherman's net solved the problem of how to escape by devouring his prison walls is not considered scientifically practicable.

Lovers' Hearts.

How old is the emblem of a lover's heart? In the days before metals were used weapons made of stone were formed by prehistoric men. Among the most notable of such ancient weapons are a number of beautifully chipped arrowheads which have been taken to be the work of fairies and have therefore been used as charms from very remote times. In Scotland they are called "elf bolts," and they are so shaped that when the central projection is broken off the semblance of a lover's heart remains.—London Answers.

Keeping Cider.

Where cider is used from the cask, to prevent spoiling in the partly empty cask pour upon the cider a quart of some tasteless oil, such as olive or peanut oil. The oil will form a thin film on the surface of the cider and prevent access of the acetic and putrefactive ferments always present in the air.—Southern Farm Magazine.

No Choice in the Matter.

"And what did Jane say about me?" "Well, I'd just as soon tell you. Jane said she thought you were strictly honest."

"That's nice of Jane."

"Yes. She said you didn't know enough to be anything else."

The Way to Dress.

"Now, then," said Mrs. Polk after dinner, "how shall I dress for the theater this evening?" "In time to see part of the first act," replied her husband mildly.—Exchange.

Frightful
Dreams.

Dull Headaches.

TERRIBLE PAINS AND A FREQUENT DESIRE TO URINATE. Such were the troubles of Mr. Joseph Leland, Alma N.W.T. He happily found relief in

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Here is what he says:—"I was troubled with dull headaches, had frightful dreams, terrible pains in my legs, and a frequent desire to urinate. Noticing Doan's Kidney Pills recommended for kidney trouble, I decided to give them a trial. I procured a box, and was very much surprised at the effectual cure they made. I take a great deal of pleasure in recommending them to all kidney trouble sufferers."

Doan's Kidney Pills help the kidneys to drain off the poisonous impurities which have collected, thus cleansing out the kidneys, bladder, and all the urinary passages. They correct inability to hold the urine, and thus obviate the necessity of getting up many times at night to urinate. Their good results will be immediately felt in all cases of kidney trouble.

Price 50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25. At all dealers, or will be mailed direct, on receipt of price, by THE DOAN KIDNEY PILL CO., TORONTO, ONT.
