

OPPOSITION TO AYLESWORTH.

Tories of North York Put up a Candidate Against the New Postmaster General.

Public Rights Platform Strongly Endorsed by Mr. W. F. Maclean, M. P.

Newmarket, Nov. 2.—About sixty North York Conservatives responded to the call for a mass meeting yesterday and nominated Mr. Arch. McCallum, farmer and County Councillor of King township, to oppose Hon. A. B. Aylesworth in the coming bye-election. There were two rivals for the nomination, Mr. T. H. Brunton and Mr. Danford Roche of Newmarket, and only on the second ballot did Mr. McCallum receive a majority, when his opponents moved that the nomination be made unanimous. Mr. T. Herbert Lennox, M. P. P., was among the others nominated, but he declined to stand. Mr. W. F. Maclean, M. P., was also present, having arrived early this morning, and after Mr. McCallum had laid down a programme strongly suggestive of Mr. Maclean's speeches, the member for South York spoke in his support and promised to come into the riding to meet the Postmaster-General on telephone and other corporation issues. A series of public meetings covered the riding are to be held in Mr. McCallum's interests.

PLATFORM OF PUBLIC RIGHTS.

Mr. McCallum, in his speech of acceptance, said he had not intended being a candidate when he left home this morning. Mr. Aylesworth was a strong candidate, and when they remembered past experiences they might well feel "a little shaky" at the prospect. But if they all put their shoulders to the wheel the result would be his election. Reading his platform from notes in his hand, Mr. McCallum said he had "always been in favor of public rights as against corporation ownership." Mr. Aylesworth had been corporation solicitor in a good many cases, and for that reason his sympathies would naturally be with the corporations, while his own sympathies as a farmer would be for public rights. The government had been reckless in expending public money. He was in favor of the money being spent economically. Since the last election there had been a salary and pension grab.

"I am absolutely opposed to that act," said Mr. Callum. "If you elect me I will introduce a resolution or support any gentleman introducing such a resolution to have the act repealed—to have the pensions done away with." Mr. McCallum specially objected to young men receiving pensions on retirement. He did not think it was fair to those whom he was addressing. He was also opposed to the increase to the Senators—members of a body the Liberals had formerly wanted abolished. Another reform he desired was the regulation of the rates of express companies and the reduction of passenger rates to two cents a mile, as advocated by W. F. Maclean. Sir William Mulock had been an earnest advocate of public ownership of the telephone and telegraph. Mr. McCallum said if that could be done the rates would be cheapened, and if he was elected he would do what he could to secure it.

THE ISSUES DEFINED.

Mr. W. F. Maclean, M. P., for East York, who followed, felicitously congratulated the farmers on nomination.

MASSACHUSETT'S CAMPAIGN.

Fight Will Have a Whirlwind Finish—Polling on Tuesday Next.

Boston, Nov. 3.—A whirlwind finish by both Democrats and Republicans will bring the State campaign to an end. On Monday, before election Henry M. Whitney is to make a trip from Provincetown to Boston after the fashion of the famous trip of Governor E. Russell many years ago.

Mr. Whitney will go down on Sunday, and will be met on the way by a delegation of sea captains, who will be provided with a special car and will accompany him back to Boston. He will start from the Pilgrim monument at 8.30 a. m., reach Hyannis about noon, his special train stopping at every station long enough for the populace, which will have due notice of his coming, to turn out and greet him.

The train reaches Brockton at 4.15, and there an open air reception will take place. Soon after the arrival in Boston at 6 o'clock Mr. Whitney will be put in an automobile and whirled through the Boston wards.

The Whitney headquarters at the Adams House, where several rooms are in use, are a hive of industry. Several thousand photographic likenesses of the candidate for Lieutenant-Governor were shipped from there yesterday to various parts of the State, while a staff of newspaper artists were engaged in drawing cartoons to be displayed on lantern slides in the chief cities of the State during the remainder of the canvass. In addition to the cartoons, a number of legends have been put into the stereopticons, the following being samples:

"Vote for Bartlett. He stands for something besides hot air."

ating one of themselves. It would be a contest between Aylesworth, the friend of the corporations, and a farmer, with the interests of the people at heart. The day had come when the farmers and the people generally must get together and protect their interests against the encroachments of the corporations. The corporations owned the Laurier Government, and all their recent legislations had been in the interests of the corporations and against the interests of the people. Mr. Aylesworth must come there and justify the salary grab, and must come before them as the advocate of the Bell Telephone Company, as he was the man who appeared before the Parliamentary Telephone Committee and said the farmers had no right to have their private lines connected with the Bell telephone.

Mr. Maclean again denounced the "salary grab," and said that members of Parliament who had "taken the job at $1,500" were bound to resign or go back to their constituency and ask their consent. Over $300,000 annual increase had been voted for salaries and pensions, a sum sufficient to more than pay the interest on a nationalized telephone and telegraph service. "Let us do something for ourselves," said Mr. Maclean. "You have such a good candidate and platform that I am willing to come into this riding and help you in this campaign. We will make it an issue between the farmers and this corporation lawyer from Toronto. I want to meet Mr. Aylesworth on any platform in this riding on these questions."

LONG LIST OF CANDIDATES.

The first to be nominated was Major J. A. W. Allan of Newmarket, Chairman of the meeting, whose name was presented in a lengthy speech by Mr. F. J. Roche of Toronto, the candidate in the last election. The other nominees were: Arch. McCallum, J. D. McKay, W. F. Maclean, M. P., Mayor Daville of Aurora, John Currey, Danford Roche, T. H. Brunton, T. Herbert Lennox, M. P. P., T. J. Woodcock, Michael Hodgins, Titus Peregrine, and John Boaz.

The Chairman explained that only those present could be nominated, and in Mr. Boaz's absence his name was struck out. All the others retired except the three mentioned above, each speaking briefly in doing so.

Mr. Woodcock took exception to Mr. Aylesworth because he was "tainted" by his connection with the Ross Government as counsel. Mr. Lennox took a hopeful view of the party's prospects in view of his own election last January, and said he would not support any candidate who did not pledge himself to introduce or support legislation to repeal "that disgraceful bill giving pensions to those men who were not entitled to them." (Applause.)

Mr. Currey told the delegates that Mr. Aylesworth would not be there but that he had been commanded to go there by The Toronto Globe.

After a speech on general political issues by Mr. T. H. Brunton, the meeting closed shortly after 5, with cheers for the King and the candidate.

"Vote for Bartlett and Whitney and your homes."

"Henry M. Whitney stands for the whole State of Massachusetts."

"Ask the next Republican you meet 'How about raw materials?'"

"Reciprocity not a political, but a business question."

"Bartlett and Whitney mean reciprocity and prosperity."

"Don't be fooled by Republican oratory; listen to the foremost business man in New England, Henry M. Whitney."

"President Roosevelt in an interview with Henry M. Whitney said: 'I believe in continental reciprocity.'"

There is an old adage that you can't heat one side of a kettle without making the other side warm, too. Republican managers have by no means gone to sleep. The Republican Club of Massachusetts is sending out great posters to call the attention of the voters to the candidacies of Messrs. Guild and Draper and what they represent from the Republican standpoint.

Senator Lodge will be on the stump every night for the remainder of the campaign.

A "WHEEZY" CHEST.

Means your trouble is deep seated. To delay is dangerous. All the inflammation will be drawn out in one day by applying Nerviline. It penetrates through the pores of the skin, relieves inflammation and thus sore throat, weak chest and tendency to colds, no prescription is necessary. Nearly fifty years it has been Canada's great household remedy. Twenty-five cents buys a large bottle.

"CANADIAN RUBBERS"

"The mark of quality" on "Canadian" Rubbers means the highest rubber excellence. "Canadian" Rubbers have the quality that alone stands the changeable Canadian climate.

THE MARK OF QUALITY.

WILD CAT IN A CAR.

The Other Occupants Do Not Enjoy the Trip.

London, Ont., Nov. 3.—Conductor William Algie, Messenger Mathewson and an Owen Sound traveller had an exciting experience in a Grand Trunk baggage car with a wildcat en route from Owen Sound to London.

The cat was a monster, having been captured in Lion's Head, near Warton, a year ago, and used for advertising purposes by a collar manufacturer of Owen Sound.

The feline was held prisoner in a heavy wire cage. It became very savage, and in a frenzy of rage endeavored to liberate itself.

Conductor Algie's attention was drawn to the matter, and he secured the attendance in the car of the traveller in charge of the animal. With the aid of a heavy stick the cat was quieted.

Suddenly the occupants on the car were startled by the cry of the messenger, "The cat's out, boys." The cat had wormed its way through the meshes of the cage and was perched on the safe beside the messenger, at work at his desk.

Instantly the three men sought safety on piles of baggage, and the cat was monarch of all he surveyed. Growling fiercely and sliding almost from end to end of the car in a vain effort to find escape, the infuriated cat kept up a reign of terror.

The messenger secured his revolver, but the traveller begged that he would not kill his property. Conductor Algie ordered that the door of the car be opened and the animal allowed to escape, and finally this was effected and the cat, with the train travelling at fifty miles an hour, slunk out upon the platform and leaped from the car. With mighty springs it crossed fences and fields and was soon lost in the woods about Chesley.

WHY SO WEARY?

Always Restless and Weak Isn't Natural—But It's Dangerous.

You have to work hard. This uses up lots of nerve force and tears down the body faster than it can build up.

The result is a half dead feeling that you can't shake off. Somehow you must get more vitality. The water in your blood must be turned into nutriment and building material.

This is just what happens in using Ferrozone, which renews the blood and nerves, and makes each organ do the work that nature expected of it. Ferrozone quickly increases your weight, brings appetite and healthy color, instills a reserve of vigor into the system that defies weariness, exhaustion, debility or sickness of any kind.

The enormous strengthening power of Ferrozone is proved in the case of Mrs. Edward Hill, 91r Lake, Ont., who says:

"Two years ago I had a nervous breakdown. At night I tossed restlessly in bed, unable to get any rest from sleep. In the morning I suffered from over powering weakness. My appetite was poor. I grew pale, thin and despondent. A slight hacking cough also added to my burden."

"My doctor said to try Ferrozone, and it did me good in a few days. I increased in strength, the nervous sensations disappeared, and with my appetite came back my color and my good spirits. I have gained over 10 pounds in weight, and as my age is over 65, I consider that Ferrozone is a marvel." (Signed.) Mrs. Edward Hill.

REMEMBER THIS: Ferrozone is a true tonic—not an alcoholic stimulant. Fifty chocolate coated tablets in a box for fifty cents, or six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U. S. A., and Kingston, Ont.

WHEN SEVEN MEN DIE.

You know at least one of them had consumption. At first it was catarrh—but it was neglected. When "Catarrhazone" cures so quickly it's foolish to suffer—it's a shame to keep on sniffeling and hawking. Catarrhazone goes direct to the cause of the disease,—that's why it's so dead certain to cure. It stops the cough, prevents that disgusting discharge, clears phloem out of the throat in five minutes. Very pleasant, and safe too; get Catarrhazone from your druggist today.
