

Upper Queensbury.

(Special Correspondence to the Herald.)

Dec. 30.—The lumbermen who are still yarding their lumber are progressing finely with their work, the scarcity of snow, however, prevents them doing any hauling as yet.

Several of our progressive farmers were to Fredericton last week with their produce to attend the Christmas market, while others expect to go this week to supply their customers for New Years.

Miss Mary Ingraham arrived home from Fredericton last Saturday, where she has been attending Normal School.

Mrs. Willie S. Parent left yesterday for a month's visit among relatives and friends at Middle Simonds, Car. Co., and vicinity.

Miss Jennie Cronkhite, who has been attending the Business College, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. W. F. Ingraham.

Willis and Owen Manuel, who are working in Houlton, spent Christmas at home.

Miss Bessie Whitehead is filling the position of book keeper for the Fox & Allen Co., at Hawksshaw.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ingraham of this place, was the scene of a very happy event on the 28th instant, when their second daughter, Beatrice Frances, was joined in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Ward Everett Hagerman. The nuptial knot was tied at 4 o'clock by the Rev. A. A. Rutledge in the presence of about thirty invited guests. Though the weather was very inclement, all was gay within and the guests all being made to feel at home enjoyed themselves immensely. The music for the occasion was furnished by Mrs. W. S. Parent and Mrs. Edith Bartlett alternately.

The bride was very charmingly attired in a costume of white nuns veiling, trimmed with white satin ribbon and lace, and wore a white bow in her hair. The rooms were very handsomely decorated throughout with evergreens and roses and the ceremony was performed under a large white pendant of tissue paper and silk ribbon. After the congratulations the company repaired to the dining room where a bountiful repast awaited them. A variety of fruit, candy and nuts were plentiful and were served at intervals throughout the evening.

The presents received by the bride were both numerous and costly and testify to her popularity and the high esteem in which she is held.

The groom is one of our most highly respected and popular young men. He is one of the most well-to-do farmers, and also engages extensively in the lumber business. Mr. and Mrs. Hagerman are prominent members of the Baptist church and we are very pleased that they are to make their permanent home here. They have the best wishes of a host of friends in this section and elsewhere who will wish them a long, prosperous and happy wedded life.

Central Keswick Ridge.

(Special Correspondence to the Herald.)

Dec. 18.—The fine cold weather has been succeeded by quite a heavy fall of snow accompanied by a very heavy wind which moderated considerably.

Despite the bitterly cold weather on Christmas day quite a number got out to enjoy the Christmas turkey.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McKay, Mr. and Mrs. George McKay and Miss Fannie McKay of Kingsclear, spent the day at the ridge the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. L. Jewett.

Arthur Gordon came home from the woods to spend Christmas with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James Grant and five children spent the day with Councillor and M. A. McKean.

N. P. Estey and wife and W. W. Estey and family drove to Queensbury, and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cliff.

Harvey Mitchell and wife of Sussex spent Christmas on the Ridge. Mr. Mitchell returned on Monday leaving his wife to spend a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Colter.

Mr. and Mrs. George N. Taylor, of Nova Scotia are spending the holidays with Mrs. Taylor's mother, Mrs. Henry McCollough.

The closing exercises of our school terminated in a pie social and concert which was a success in every way. The proceeds which are to be used for building a fence around the school grounds, amounted to thirty-six dollars, thanks to Mr. Barker's energy, and his assistant Miss Mitchell. Mr. Barker has taught school for two terms with acceptance, and has been engaged for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jewett went to Caribou, Maine, to spend Christmas with their daughter, Mrs. Charles Roberts.

Ambrose Jewett and his sister, Miss Mildred, went to Granite Hill to spend Christmas with their sister, Mrs. E. C. Parent.
