

Events of a Day.

After Vacation.

The public schools in the city and country will re-open on Monday next.

Big Snow Fall.

Visitors to the city today from points along the Nashua, say that twenty-two inches of snow fell in that section of the county during the late storm.

May Run for Mayor.

The Sun mentions Ald. T. H. Bullock as a probable candidate for the St. John mayoralty. Mr. Bullock's wife is a sister of Mr. C. Fred Chestnut of this city.

Ladies' Dressing Jackets.

They are selling at Edgcombe's a line of ladies' eider down dressing jackets at a discount of twenty-five per cent. to clear during stock taking. These are stylish garments and great bargains.—d.

Trains Delayed.

The Boston and Montreal trains were delayed today by the storm and were four hours late in reaching Fredericton Junction. The train on the Fredericton branch with the passengers and mails did not arrive here until four o'clock.

Coming to Normal School.

Miss Myrtle Bishop of Harvey, Albert Co., who has been on the staff of teachers at McAdam Junction during the past term and is spending her holidays with Miss Mamie Davidson at Rossville, York Co., expects to attend Normal School the coming term.

A Child's Death.

The death occurred this morning at her home on Regent street of Verona Lillian Pendelton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Pendelton, aged eight years. Bronchitis was the cause of her demise. Undertaker R. B. Adams has charge of the funeral arrangements.

Small Market.

The market this morning was rather slim, the heavy condition of the roads making it rather difficult for farmers to get into town with their products. Beef sold for 4 and 5 cents, pork for 5 and 6 cents, mutton for 6 and 7 cents, butter for 20 cents and eggs for 30 cents.

The Neptunes Won.

The first match in the New Brunswick hockey league series was played at St. John last evening between the Mohawks and the Neptunes and was won by the latter, the score standing 2 to 1 in their favor. The Mohawks are to play the Trojans here on Tuesday evening.

Natural History Society.

The next regular meeting of the Natural History Society will be on Monday evening next at 8 o'clock in the High School, when a lecture on the subject of the "Weapons of Birds" will be given by Mr. Moore of Scotch Lake, or in case of his absence, a talk upon "Shells" by Dr. Bailey. The meeting is free to all interested.

Y. M. C. A. Services.

At the Y. M. C. A. men's meeting tomorrow at 4 p. m., there will be a series of short addresses on "Prayer," by Messrs. A. H. Barker and Hill of the U. N. B., and Secretary Ley of the city association. Mr. A. E. Massie and Mr. Ley will render solos. All men are invited to this service which promises to be a very interesting one.

Rankine--Risteen.

Mr. Robert R. Rankine, son of the late Alexander Rankine of St. John, and a graduate of the U. N. B. and Miss Marion Risteen, daughter of Mr. J. C. Risteen of this city, and for the past few years a resident of Boston, were married at Brooklyn N. Y., Dec. 29. Both bride and groom are well known here and will receive the congratulations of a large circle of friends.

Curlers' Trip Abroad.

At the special meeting of the Curling Club last night, it was decided to send four rinks away on Monday to play outside clubs. The skips are President Hawthorn, H. C. Rutter, James Tibbitts, and

H. V. Bridges. The men will leave on the 9.50 a. m. train Monday, play Moncton that evening, St. Andrews club at St. John Tuesday evening, Thistles Wednesday and St. Stephen Thursday.

Mrs. R. H. Phillips, who was admitted to the Victoria Hospital on Thursday, suffering from cancer of the stomach, is resting easily today. An operation was performed by the physicians, but it was deemed inadvisable to remove the cancer.

The friends of the veteran Senator Wark, who will be 101 years old on February 19th, will be glad to learn that he continues to enjoy good health and expects to leave for Ottawa sometime in February to take up his parliamentary duties.

Week of Prayer.

The last meeting in the week of prayer series was held in the Baptist church last evening. Rev. A. A. Rideout was the speaker and discoursed very ably on the subject of missions. The chair was occupied by Rev. J. H. MacDonald. In keeping with the usual custom the pastors of evangelical churches will exchange pulpits on Sunday evening. Rev. Dr. Rogers will preach at the Baptist church, Rev. A. A. Rideout at St. Paul's church, Rev. J. H. MacDonald at the Free Baptist church and Rev. Wilard Macdonald at the Methodist church.

Laid to Rest.

The remains of the late Mr. George H. Palmer, who dropped dead at the Western Union Telegraph Office on Tuesday, were laid to rest in the Rural cemetery this afternoon. An impressive funeral service was conducted by Rev. Canon Roberts in St. Ann's church at three o'clock, the wife and family of the deceased and a number of old friends being present. The floral offerings included a wreath in the form of three links, from Victoria Lodge, I. O. O. F. of this city, to which the deceased formerly belonged.

St. Paul's Church Affairs.

The trustees of St. Paul's Church met last night and after transacting the ordinary business, decided to call for tenders for raising the Old Kirk two feet from the ground, putting a stone wall under it and making other improvements. The light committee was authorized to secure an estimate for lighting the new church by electricity, and an addition of $50 a year was made to the salary of Miss Bessie Everett, the efficient organist of the church.

Indian Chief to Wed.

Anthony Sacobi, the veteran chief of the Micmac tribe at St. Marys, has been giving his friends a tip to the effect that he is to be married next week to Miss Mary Paul, a young Micmac squaw, who lately arrived from Nova Scotia. Chief Sacobi is now in his 75th year and the prospective bride is a maiden of eighteen summers or thereabouts. The chief has already been married several times, but he doesn't think he is too old to try it again.
