

Why An Emulsion?

Because an emulsion (Scott's) of cod liver oil is agreeable to the taste, while the plain oil is repulsive. Because Scott's Emulsion is easily digested, while the plain oil is not. Because Scott's Emulsion enters the system quickly and without effort, while the plain oil is a burden and a tax on the stomach. Because Scott's Emulsion remains sweet after entering the system, while the plain oil is likely to ferment because of its slow action. Because contains not only the best of the pure oil but other valuable properties, while the plain oil offers nothing but the crude properties of the raw oil. Because Scott's Emulsion is always the same in purity, strength and composition, while the plain oil is apt to vary in all three of these particulars. Because Scott's Emulsion is a hundred times more beneficial and desirable than any plain oil could be.

TERRIBLE TALES OF WOE.

From the Land of the Russian Czar.

PLUNDER THE RICH AND GRIND THE POOR.

Under a Constitutional Government, inspired by a liberal view of the duty of a great empire at home and abroad, Russia could be a mighty force for good. In what condition she will come out of her present coil is beyond prediction; though the fire through which she is passing has been forecast many a year back by all sorts of people.

It is almost impossible to comprehend the misery of ordinary life in Russia that has led to the present outbreak, says a writer in the People, London. Despite the censorship, the gloom of the literature and the sombre, though beautiful character of much of it music suggest the universal sadness. Without cessation, even from the earliest days of Czarism to the present tragic moment in her history, the highest officials, from princes down to the most ordinary, have traded upon the ignorance of the people, plundered the comparatively rich, ground under the heel of a despotic boot the needy and the poor, exiled, knouted and murdered men and women whose hearts have been stirred by the wretchedness of their neighbors to lighten their burdens by material aid or by encouraging the hope of better days.

GOVERNMENT AGENTS OF VICE.

Systematic government encouragement of drunkenness and immorality among students is practised with diabolical ingenuity. Education is regarded as only tending to make men discontented with the government. Mr. E. B. Lanin, in his "Russian Characters," gives chapter and verse and ample Russian authority for his account of the "beasties" appointed to watch over the morality of the students and neutralize the pernicious influence of the professors—too liberal in their political sympathies. Loath to believe the stories of the beasties or spies, and their subtle traps of debased pleasures and drunkenness, one of the professors, a friend of Mr. Lanin, sent for the beasties and interviewed them. They unblushingly avowed everything.

THE CRIME OF BIBLE READING.

A system of devilry such as this may well be accompanied by its possible even worse corruption in the public administration of affairs, the subordination of justice to official theft and cruelty, and the repression of every decent aspiration of student and professor alike. "Any man seeking to better the lot of the masses, even to teaching them the truths of Christianity, the rudiments of morals, and the elements of reading and writing, is a public enemy, whom no amount of influence, or number of past services, can save from condemnation."

punishment." A little more than a dozen years ago Col. Paschko, a personal friend of the Emperor, and a near relation to the Minister of the Interior, was banished for reading the Bible to the peasants. "Read the Bible to your servants or your friends," says Mr. Lanin—and he has the most complete and undeniable authority for his words—"and you are punished more severely than a forger or a murderer, but open brothels, kidnap young girls, demoralize tender children, and you may be the chosen friend of princes and ministers, a pillar of society, the trusted instructor of youth."

TORTURED TO MADNESS.

Here is a story selected from scores of similar cases, in which men by dint of tremendous energy and perseverance have obtained something like an education. In one of the mines of the government at Ufa there lived and labored a man named Semeonoff, "whose life and character," says Lanin, "Dr. Smiles, had he known him, would have gladly described in one of his admirable books. The son of a workman, Semeonoff had passed successfully through the seven classes of the gymnasium, and had obtained a prominent position in the mining works. He was entirely approved by his superiors until a new governor was appointed. Saturated with the spirit of oppression, he sent for Semeonoff. "Well, you blackguard, what are you doing here, he inquired of him. "I beg your pardon," said Semeonoff in a tone of respect and conciliation. "What do you mean by 'I beg your pardon,' you bog trotter?" "Why do you call me names?" "That's the sort you are, is it. To the watch with him. I'll teach him. Imprisonment for three days." "He's an educated man," urged the outgoing governor, in a whisper. "Oh, he's educated, is he. Imprison him for three weeks. I always give educated people the first knout. I'll show you how to manage the rascals."

Soon afterwards Semeonoff was despatched to the police with sealed letter to this effect: "Give the bearer twenty-five lashes." The punishment was duly inflicted. Two days later the brutality was repeated. Three times the next the same thing was repeated. Then the poor wretch ran away. He was captured, and again sent to the prefect of police to be flogged. Humane nature at last broke down under the fiendish infliction; Semeonoff went raving mad. The authority for this and even worse revelations is in the Russian work, "Kama and the Ural," by Nemirovitch-Dantschenko, who adds: "There are legions of Semeonoffs here."

IS YOUR DOCTOR BILL LARGE?

Best way to keep it small is not to call the doctor, but use Nerviline instead. For minor ailments like colds, coughs, chills, cramps, headache and stomach trouble Nerviline is just as good as any doctor. It breaks up a cold in one night, cures soreness in the chest, and for neuralgia, toothache and rheumatism you can't get anything half so good as Nerviline. The fame of Nerviline for cramps, colic and pain in the stomach extends far and wide. Good for everything a liniment can be good for and costs but 25c. for a large bottle.

Happiness is founded on friendship, hence a solid foundation is the first essential of a substantial superstructure.

THE SMALL-POX QUESTION

Any intelligent physician will admit that you don't catch smallpox because someone else has it, but because your condition favors it. Low vitality always encourages sickness and at this season especially, everyone should take Ferrozone, which destroys disease germs and makes the system so strong and healthy that sickness can't exist. Ferrozone is a vitalizing tonic that makes rich, red blood, builds up the nerves, cures nervousness and drives away tired, languid feelings. To get strong and keep strong use Ferrozone; it assures health and costs but 50c. at all drug-gists.

As a general rule the things that are easily gotten are hardly worth having.

BLOOD WILL TELL.

Rich, Pure Blood Will Drive out the Most Obsolete Cause of Rheumatism.

Growing pains, aching joints, stiffened muscles, tender, swollen limbs that's rheumatism—a blood disease that causes ceaseless agony and cripples thousands. It is acid in the blood that causes rheumatism. Liniments may ease pain temporarily—but they never cure. To cure rheumatism you must remove the acid in the impure blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills positively cure rheumatism, acute or chronic. They act directly on the blood, driving the acid out. They make new, warm, pure blood and send it throbbing through the heart and lungs and limbs. This new blood banishes every ache and pain—brings good health and full activity.

Mr. T. H. Smith, Caledonia, Ont., says:—"For a number of years I was so crippled up I could scarcely do any work. I tried quite a number of medicines, but they did not help me. Then I saw Dr. Williams' Pink Pills advertised for this trouble, and I got a number of boxes. Before I had used the third box I found myself improving. I continued the use of the pills throughout the winter and they have completely cured me. Coldest day without a coat and not I got so that I could work on the farm a twinge of the trouble. I have told quite a few of my neighbors about the pills, and they are a popular medicine here."

It is because Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make new, pure, warm blood that they have such great power to cure disease. They positively cure rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, St. Vitas dance, partial paralysis, kidney and liver troubles, anaemia, and the ailments which women alone suffer from. The purchaser must be careful to see that the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" is printed on the wrapper around each box. Sold by all medicine dealers or sent by mail at 50c. a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by writing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

After all, it's the woman who knows how to dress well who compels admiration at home and abroad. And if she knows how to dress economically the admiration is doubled at home.

MARYSVILLE NEWS.

Royal Templars' Anniversary—Social and Personal Notes.

March 14.—Next Wednesday evening No Surrender Council, No. 132, Royal Templars of Temperance, will celebrate the sixth anniversary of its organization by entertaining its friends in the town hall. As on all occasions of this kind there will be a jolly good time spent by all present, as the Royal Templars are excellent entertainers. The committee is composed of the following: Misses Mary Young, Nettie Cadwallader, Laura Brewer and Mr. John Bradley, which in itself is a guarantee of an enjoyable evening.

The residence of Alex. Gibson, sr., presented a brilliant appearance last Monday evening, when Miss Mary G. Merritt entertained about twenty of her little friends to a cob web party, the occasion being her ninth birthday. After the cob web had been untangled the little ones adjourned to the dining room where a bountiful supper was served. The table decorations were blue, there was suspended over the table a horse shoe of blue and silver containing nine lighted candles. The centre of the table was adorned with a beautiful birthday cake. Through the evening ices and confectionery were served.

BOY AND THE PRESIDENT.

Trouble After Youth's Comment on The B. T. Washington Luncheon.

Washington, March 14.—The local school authorities have been considerably exercised in trying to find the proper punishment for Reginald Hodgson, a pupil in the Western High School.

When Hodgson's class was writing sentences on the blackboard to illustrate the meaning of various words, the word "debased" fell to Reginald, and he wrote this sentence: "Roosevelt debased himself by eating with a nigger."

Thus occurred about two weeks ago and the authorities have been wrestling with the case ever since. The principal, Miss Edith C. Westcott, demanded that Hodgson be expelled from the school. The case was presented to Director Hughes, who decided against that course, but directed that Hodgson be deprived of the privilege of marching in the inaugural parade.

The principal refused to reinstate Hodgson. He appealed to Director Hughes, and the case was taken to Superintendent Stewart, who held that it would have a bad effect on public sentiment to expel the boy for this cause, and Miss Westcott was compelled to take him back. Hodgson is a Virginia boy.
