Truro, N. S., Aug. 22.—(Special)—Joseph St. Amour, of Visitation St., Montreal, was killed last night near Truro, while attempting to steal a ride on No. 9 train.

There were three men, all beating their way on the train, and when Londonderry was reached two of them who were caught, informed the train hands that the other man had fallen off near Truro.

The third man was discovered just after the train left Truro, with one arm and one leg severed from his body. He was cared for at the hospital but died this morning at 6.05. He leaves a wife and three children.

An investigation will be held in Truro this afternoon by Dr. Youson on the arrival of the maritime express with the train hands who were on board at the time.

THE PEACE CONFERENCE.

Next Session May See Agreement or End of the Gathering.

SOME PRETTY PLAIN TALK FROM TOKIO--NO MEETING TODAY.

Portsmouth, Aug. 22.—(Special)—It has been decided to postpone until tomorrow the meeting of the peace conference which was to have taken place this afternoon.

The failures of the secretaries to complete protocols is the given reason.

Tokio, Aug. 22.—(Special)—Jiji commenting upon the proceedings at the Portsmouth peace conference today says: "The cessation of Island Sakhalin and reimbursement of the cost of the war are vital points in our demands, and leave no room for compromise."

The moderation and reasonableness of these demands will be admitted by France.

Should an attempt to promote peace fail, the responsibility will rest with Russia not Japan. If Russia refuses to accept the proposed terms it will be advisable for our delegates to withdraw and tell them that the next meeting will be at Tokio.

Asahi says: "The war has won a constitution for the Russian people," and declares that Japan in fighting the Russian government does not entertain any ill-feeling toward the oppressed subjects of Russia, and expresses the belief that all true Russians must hold some appreciation for what Japan has accomplished for them.

C. OF E. PICNIC.

Vacation's near over. Soon pupil and teacher. Over studies will be intent. This last week of pleasure the prominent feature.

Is the C. of E. gala event. Aug. 24, Taylortown.

4 trips going. 3 trips returning. A meeting of the general committee of the Church of England picnic was held last evening. All were filled with enthusiasm regarding the prospects for a banner outing. Preparations upon a generous scale are making for the entertainment of friends who accompany the school and the ladies who have in charge the dinner and tea tables are anticipating a house full of company on that day. As this is the last week of the season for the mid-week holiday it is expected that a very large number will take advantage of the four o'clock trip of the Majestic, take supper on the grounds, enjoy the evening band concert and return on the ten-thirty boat. Owing to a mistake on the part of the advertising committee some misunderstanding has arisen regarding the prices of tickets. Popular prices will prevail, the tickets for the trip being, gentlemen, fifty cents; ladies and children, twenty-five cents; for either of the special trips, twenty-five cents.

Mr. Sydney Fleet, a prominent journalist of Lowell, Mass., and Mrs. Fleet, formerly Miss Agnes Barker of this city, are here on their annual vacation trip, and are heartily welcomed by their numerous friends.

THE LAST TRIBUTE.

Remains of the Late Senator Wark Will be Laid to Rest Tomorrow.

The funeral of the late Senator Wark will be held from his late home on York street at 2.30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, to Forest Hill cemetery. The services, which will be of the simplest character, will be conducted by Rev. Willard MacDonald. The choir of St. Paul's church will be present and render the hymns, "Asleep in Jesus, Blessed Sleep," "Forever with the Lord," and "Jesus the very Thought of Thee." The trustees and session of St. Paul's church will attend the obsequies in a body, and it is likely that a member of the Senate and members of parliament, will be present to pay a last tribute of respect to the deceased.

The body of the deceased has been encased in a beautiful casket of solid mahogany, with column corners and silver mountings. On the name plate is inscribed the words, "David Wark, born February 19th, 1804; died August 20th, 1905."

Hundreds of people have visited the Wark homestead since yesterday, and gazed upon the remains of the departed legislator. All were impressed with the well preserved and remarkably life like appearance of the features, which indicate that his last days on earth were free from suffering and his end was peace.

Among the visitors who called this forenoon was Mr. John Brown, the colored centenarian, who at one time worked for the late Senator Wark.

Miss Wark is in receipt of many messages of condolence from friends residing in different parts of the county. The list included telegrams from Hon. R. W. Scott, secretary of state, Hon. H. R. Emmerson, minister of railways, and Hon. R. Dandurand, speaker of the senate. Hon. Mr. Scott expressed regret that he would be unable to attend the funeral of his old friend.
