SIR HENRY IRVING DEAD.The Eminent English Actor Passed Suddenly Away at London.

London, Oct. 14.—The English speaking world has suffered an irreparable loss by the sudden death of Sir Henry Irving last night, who was so universally regarded as the most representative English actor of contemporary times.

Sir Henry died literally in harness. He was giving a series of farewell performances in the English provinces and this week was playing an engagement at Bradford, appeared in several favorite roles. Thursday he presented "King Rene's Daughter," and "The Bells," and appeared to be in excellent health, taking the exhausting part of Matthias in the latter play with all the vigor of youth. Last night before an enthusiastic audience he portrayed one of his most characteristically intellectual parts, the title role in his own stage adaptation of Lord Tennyson's "Becket" with marked success.

After the performance, Sir Henry returned to his hotel, reaching his rooms at 11.30 o'clock when it was observed that he was in great pain. Physicians were immediately summoned, but before they could arrive Sir Henry was seized by an attack of syncope and expired within a few minutes.

Sir Henry Irving was born at Kington near Glastonbury, on Feb. 6, 1838, and entered the dramatic profession at the age of eighteen. His early years on the stage were marked by a hard struggle and it was not until about the year 1866 that he came into prominence in London.

He was knighted by the late queen in 1895 and enjoyed the distinction of being the first member of the theatrical profession to receive the honor.

Irving's real name was Henry Brodribb and he assumed the name by which he was known by royal license in 1887. He first toured in America in 1883, and but for a serious illness, which overtook him a year ago, would have made a farewell tour on this continent last season.

Sir Henry married Florence, the daughter of Surg-General O'Callaghan.

SOME IMPORTANT DETAILS.

With Reference to the Spencer Star Course.

Course tickets are being sold freely for the Spencer Star Course which is being promoted under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., the first entertainment of which is the appearance of the celebrated Schuberts on the evening of Nov. 3rd. It would be wise probably at this time to make some plain explanations of the system which applies in this Course so that all may understand. The Course ticket which will be disposed of for the small sum of one dollar consists of five separate tickets admitting to each and all of the five splendid entertainments, without any additional charge. Those who wish the privilege of reserving a seat pay 25c additional for each event, and the plan will be exposed four days in advance of each entertainment. These tickets are transferable and can be used by anyone. If the seating capacity of the building is sold up in Course tickets as is anticipated, before the first entertainment, none but subscribers will be admitted to the concert. In the event of the sale of tickets not being quite so large, and there should be any available seats, these will be sold on the night of each entertainment for 75c. There is little doubt that the seating capacity of the building can be sold, as is the case in St. John where hardly a seat is now available for the entire season.

THE PRINCE'S VISIT.Governor Snowball in Consultation With Civic Authorities.

His Honor Lieutenant Governor Snowball arrived in the city last evening and this morning had a conference with His Worship Mayor McNally, in regard to the approaching visit to the city of His Serene Highness Prince Louis Battenberg. No definite plans for entertaining the royal visitor have yet been made, but it seems likely that there will be either a public reception or ball at the parliament buildings in the evening.

The Prince accompanied by his secretary and two servants, will arrive from St. John by the 9.20 a. m. train on Friday, October 27th, and will occupy rooms at the Queen Hotel. He will remain here until the following morning, when he will leave for St. Andrews, as the guest of Sir William Van Horne. He will be entertained to luncheon by Sir William, and it is his intention to return to Halifax the same evening.

Mayor McNally will likely request the citizens to decorate the exterior of their places of business in honor of the Royal visitor and the parliament buildings will also be decorated in his honor.

Some time ago the city council extended an invitation to the Prince to pay Fredericton a visit, and now that he has occupied no doubt the council will do their part towards extending to him a welcome worthy of the capital city.

Lieuten. Governor Snowball left for his home in Chatham this afternoon, and on Monday will confer with Premier Tweedie, and talk over plans for the entertaining the prince.

A POSSIBLE SENATOR.San Urges Claims and Qualifications of Mr. M. McDade.

San: While the N. B. senatorship waits, a new name is mentioned. The New Freeman, for obvious reasons, does not give the name of Mr. Michael McDade among those who are discussed in this connection. But on the streets it is said that Mr. McDade has done more work for the Liberal party in one year than some of the others mentioned have done in all their lives. It is pointed out that he has always been a strong supporter as well as a warm personal friend of the minister of railways, and has contributed by voice and pen to Mr. Emmerson's success in his campaigns. Nor is it forgotten that on one occasion Mr. McDade's personal efforts captured a St. John nominating convention for the candidate supposed to be favored by Mr. Emmerson. It is further maintained by those who have discussed the question, that Mr. McDade would be an active and effective member of any legislative body to which he might be called.

MR. EMMERSON'S MOVEMENTS.

Hon. H. R. Emmerson, minister of railways and canals, accompanied by his private secretary, Mr. Payne, arrived at Moncton yesterday from Ottawa. The Minister will remain until Monday next, when he leaves for Ottawa, enroute to the Northwest Territories and the Pacific coast. He will be accompanied by Mr. John T. Hawke, editor of the Moncton Transcript.

A special train with the minister of railway's car and several coaches left Moncton yesterday afternoon, conveying the Hon. H. R. Emmerson, Hon. F. J. Sweeney, General Superintendent, D. Pottinger and many others of the I. C. R. officials who attended the funeral of the late W. W. Price at Petitcodiac.

Sir William Mulock will be appointed Chief Justice of the Exchequer Division of the High Court of Ontario, carrying with it a salary of $10,000. That is apparently the well-founded belief in political circles at the capital.

Newton, Mass., Oct. 13.—The condition of Senator Geo. T. Fulford, of Brockville (Ont.), the Canadian legislator, who was injured Sunday in an automobile accident in which his chauffeur, Louis E. Zeriah, of Albany (N. Y.), was killed, took a change for the worse tonight.

At the Newton Hospital, where the senator is confined, it was stated tonight that his condition was critical. The extent of Senator Fulford's injuries has not yet been definitely determined by the attending physicians, but it is believed that he is seriously hurt internally.
