WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP RULES.
Cincinnati, O., Aug. 23.—The rules for the world's championship baseball series, to be played in the fall between the pennant winners of the American and National leagues were announced yesterday. The rules and regulations adopted by the National Commission and approved by the National and American leagues, provide, among other things, that the game shall be played under the supervision and control and direction of the National Commission. In accordance with this authority the commission has adopted the following rules to cover the contest.

Rule 1.—A player to be eligible to participate in the world's championship series must be a bona fide member of the club he represents, regularly under contract, and said contract must be approved and promulgated by the president of the League of which his club is a member on or before the thirty-first of August of each year.

The secretary of the commission is directed to immediately transmit a copy of this note to the president of the National and American leagues, to the secretary of the National Association, and to the president of each major league for their information.

THE RING.

HART TO FIGHT AGAIN.

While waiting for a fight with Gus Ruhlin, Marvin Hart of Louisville will engage in a mill with Jack Jeffries, brother of Jim Jeffries. A dispatch from Los Angeles states that the two have been matched to meet in a twenty-round bout before the champion's new athletic club, which is now in course of construction at Los Angeles. The date of the mill has not been decided upon as yet, but in all likelihood it will take place during the latter part of next month. The boiler-maker thinks that his brother is good enough and possesses the requisite ability to succeed him as champion. Jack has taken on a lot of weight in the last few years, and under Jim Jeffries' coaching has developed into a fair boxer.

In the meantime the Colma A. C. folks are trying their utmost to bring about a finish mill between Hart and Ruhlin. Hart says that nothing will suit him better than a mix-up with the Akron Giant. Ruhlin is still in California waiting to hear from Hart and the Colma club. Billy Madden, Ruhlin's manager, has had several talks with Matchmaker Jimmy Coffroth about the battlefield and something definite may be done in a little while. Ruhlin has been asked to try out Al Kaufmann, the newly discovered heavyweight of San Francisco. He says he will cheerfully do so if it is made worth the while. As Kaufman is well liked in San Francisco the bout should attract a crowd of no mean proportions.

AUTOMOBILING.

A WORD TO AUTO DRIVERS.

Missionary work as applied to trade propagation is of various sorts, and often though directly beneficial to the industry at large, reflects with credit on the originator and thus rewards him in a cumulative manner which in the end brings a return in dollars and cents. Illustrative of the principle is the case of a foreign firm of makers which has put into the hands of all its employees who are entrusted with the handling of its cars and has given out as well to its customers the following code of road rules the enforcement of which in the one case and natural result in the other from having attention called to the matter cannot but act beneficially to the world of motorists and also to the company itself.

"The following instructions must be rigidly adhered to by all drivers in our employ, and every accident, of whatever nature and however trivial, must be reported at once.

"1. No corner must be rounded at a fast pace under any circumstances. Quite irrespective of the legal limit, corners should be taken at not more than six to eight miles per hour at the outside. But in narrow streets or roads or where there is much traffic, his speed should be reduced to practically walking pace. In all cases the car should be kept well in hand when turning a corner.

"2. All crossings should be passed at a steady pace, with the car well in hand.

"3. The horn should be sounded whenever approaching crossroads.

"4. If pedestrians, in crossing the road or otherwise, show signs of undue fear and panic, pull up at once and impress them with the fact that your car is under full control, thus proving how little cause there is for panic. Most accidents are caused by other users of the road losing their heads, and it is advisable to reduce the tendency to do this as much as possible.

"5. Though drivers of horses may be in the wrong, pull up and show them every consideration, if necessary. In the present state of popular prejudice, accidents are to be avoided at all costs, and however unjust it may be to the motorist, it is useless at present to insist on due and proper rights. Endeavor always to protect the foolish and incompetent from themselves; it will pay in the long run.

"6. In judging pace, remember that the car is a fast and smooth running car, that you may be traveling faster than it feels. Compare your pace, therefore, with horse drawn vehicles traveling in the same direction.

"7. Always allow for drivers or horses and pedestrians doing the wrong thing. They will rarely disappoint you, and you will then be prepared.

"8. Give cyclists as much room as possible. Though you are sure of your own steering, remember that the close proximity of a large car may make the cyclist nervous."

THE TURF.

GREAT RACE MEETING.

Readville, Mass., Aug. 23.—Three well fought harness races for three famous stakes, the $10,000 Massachusetts, the $5,000 Neponset, and the $3,000 Tyro, closed the grand circuit meeting at the Readville track today. Sadie Mac took the first, in record time for the event. Allerton won the second after six heats had been run off, while Katherine L. captured the third. Miss Wilks of Galt, Ont., is the owner of Sadie Mac, and Katherine L., while Allerton is the property of W. H. McBoel of Chicago.

Sadie Mac's victory was expected, and the mare would have won in straight heats but for tripping her toe at the distance flag in the second heat, when she had a safe lead. The time in the initial heat, towered the record for the stake a full second from Billy Buck mark.

The Neponset dragged along for six heats and saw the contestants so weary at the end that the time fell back from 2:05 to 2:13. It was generally conceded that Ed Geers would win with Walter Direct, but the stallion was plainly unfit for so hard a contest.

Directum Miller was withdrawn after winning the third heat, as he was so lame he could barely walk. Jas. Brady drove Allerton a very clever race.

The Tyro saw the largest field of youngsters that has faced a starting judge in several years. Again was Miss Wilks the fortunate owner of the first horse, as her filly Katherine L. held the field at her mercy. All previous records of the season by the three year olds were broken by more than a second. Summary:

2. Messrs. Merritt and Angus vs. Messrs. Stewart and Allison, 1-6, 6-8.

Semi-Finals.

3. Messrs. H. M. Wood and W. T. Wood vs. Messrs. Jost and Trites, 3-6, 6-3, 4-6.

The Sun speaking of yesterday's play says:

Another good contest was in the men's doubles, where Turnbull and Harrison of Rothesay faced Allen and Babbitt from the capital. Two sets went 6-1 and 1-6, and in the third the luck swung strongly around again as the Rothesay men took a love set. The games themselves were close, and it was only in the last sets that the peculiarity in the winning streak of each team was shown.

The mixed doubles between C. H. Allen and Miss Helen Babbitt on one side and J. C. Harrison and Miss Mabel Thomson on the other was a splendid exhibition of tennis playing. The teams split even on the first two 7-5 sets, but in the third the Fredericton representatives won out with a 6-8 score.
