A NATIVE OF GIBSON.

Remains of Dr. R. F. McLachlan Brought Here for Interment.

Mrs. Andrew McLachlan of Boston, formerly of Gibson, arrived here on the noon train yesterday in charge of the remains of her son, Dr. Robert Fulton McLachlan, who died at Holbrook, Arkansas, on March 4th. The deceased removed to Boston with his parents some years ago and studied medicine at Harvard University, graduating with the degree of M. D. in 1902. He practised his profession for a time in Dakota, but a few weeks ago was compelled to give up work and go south for the benefit of his health. He was a sufferer from lung trouble, and death followed a severe hemorrhage, which came on while he was getting into a carriage. He was twenty-seven years of age and unmarried.

The late Dr. McLachlan, was a bright and promising young man, and his untimely death will be sincerely mourned by a large circle of friends. The deceased was a Free Mason, and the funeral was under the auspices of Hiram Lodge of this city, at three o'clock this afternoon. Undertaker John G. Adams had charge of the arrangements.

LOCAL LEGISLATURE.

of British Columbia, while the representation of that province can never be reduced. If the population of the territories and of British Columbia had been excluded New Brunswick would not have lost a representative. The leader of the Opposition has twitted me on my views not being accepted by the privy council, but he should know that sometimes the best opinion does not always prevail and that the decisions of eminent judges are sometimes overruled by other judges who are not so eminent.

One reason why the house should give attention to this matter is that in the Alberta and Saskatchewan bills the same words are to be found that were in the British Columbia act, giving these territories the same standing as if they had been original members of the confederation. I cannot see why it was necessary to insert these words in the British Columbia act, or why it is necessary now; but I do say that whatever our legal rights may be at present, they ought to be preserved, and I hope as a result of this discussion that members of parliament who are friendly with us, will stand up for our rights, and try to do away with injustice which we have suffered in the past. I have no jealousy of the Province of Quebec. I desire to see it grow and prosper, because I think the interests of Quebec are largely allied to our own. Therefore, when we raise the question of representation, it is not that we are opposed to Quebec, but that we desire to preserve our rights, and retain some degree of political influence in the east. When New Brunswick joined the confederation, the territory of Quebec was not much more than half of what it is today. It was bounded on the north by the height of land which divided it from the territory of the Hudson Bay Company. The boundary line of Quebec was well recognized, and is laid down in Arrowsmith's map published in 1815. It is referred to in the work of Bouchette, the surveyor general of Lower Canada, which was published in 1812. This is a book of the very highest authority, and it shows that the northern boundary of Quebec was long recognized to be the height of land which divided the waters flowing into the St. Lawrence from those flowing into the Hudson Bay. Now, it might have made a very great difference in the willingness of the people of New Brunswick to join the confederation if Quebec had then been as large as it is now.

I submit that when our people entered into the union they agreed to go into the confederacy with Quebec as it was, and that the boundaries of that province ought not to have been altered without our being consulted and our interest safeguarded. As already stated by the Premier the Imperial Act of 1871 provided that when the area of a province was extended the rights of the other provinces should be properly guarded. Yet in 1898 without this legislation being consulted, the late Dominion government agreed with Quebec to extend that province to Hudson's Bay, thus adding to it a territory which will soon be traversed by the Grand Trunk Pacific and which in time will become populous. The bill to carry out this agreement was introduced on the second of June, 1898, by Mr. Sifton. It was introduced in blank and treated as a mere formal matter. On the 8th of June it was read a second time and passed. So far as the records of parliament show there was no debate whatever on the subject, and this large area was added to Quebec without the maritime provinces being consulted. It does seem to me that in view of the legislation which has already taken place so seriously affecting our interests and in view of what is now being done in connection with the legislation for the Northwest Territories this government is but doing its duty in asking the legislature to express its views and to endeavour to undo the great wrong. As I have some other views of the subject to present to the house, I will move the adjournment of the debate.

Debate adjourned until today. House adjourned at 5.30.

MEDICINES LOADED WITH ALCOHOL.

Think of it! The Danger You Run—Drink Habit is Easily Acquired, but Hard to Cure.

Careful analysis shows that many so-called tonics contain little else but whiskey—the rankest, poorest kind of whiskey. You may unconsciously be using an alcoholic liquid remedy. Some member of your family may be doing so. Your duty is plain; stop it at once. The test of a tonic is the permanency of its cures. To become strong, you must build up the blood—alcohol weakens it. You must increase your nerve force—alcohol steadily devours it. Give up the liquid tonic before you become its slave. The true medicine for the run-down, depressed and nervous is Ferrozone. It is nothing but concentrated cure in tablet form. It stimulates the appetite, aids digestion, fills the blood with iron; builds up in nature's way. Never known to fail.

Whether weak from worry, overwork, thin blood or ill-nourished nerves, Ferrozone will quickly make you well. It is safe and harmless, undoubtedly the best tonic and rebuilding medicine made. We recommend you to use Ferrozone if in poor health.

Ferrozone, known as the great food tonic, costs 50c. per box, or six for $2.50, at all dealers, or by mail from N. C. Polson & Co. Kingston, Ont., and Hartford, Conn. U. S. A.

INTERESTING LETTER

WRITTEN BY A NOTABLE WOMAN

Mrs. Sarah Kellogg of Denver, Colorado, Bearer of the Woman's Relief Corps, Sends Thanks to Mrs. Pinkham.

The following letter was written by Mrs. Kellogg, of 1628 Lincoln Ave., Denver, Colo., to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.: Dear Mrs. Pinkham: "For five years I was troubled with a tumor, which kept growing, causing me intense agony and great mental depression. I was unable to attend to my house work, and life became a burden to me. I was confined for days to my bed, lost my appetite, my courage and all hope. "I could not bear to think of an operation, and in my distress I tried every remedy which I thought would be of any use to me, and reading of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to sick women decided to give it a trial. I felt so discouraged that I had little hope of recovery, and when I began to feel better, after the second week, thought it only meant temporary relief; but to my great surprise I found that I kept gaining, while the tumor lessened in size. "The Compound continued to build up my general health and the tumor seemed to be absorbed, until, in seven months, the tumor was entirely gone and I a well woman. I am so thankful for my recovery that I ask you to publish my letter in newspapers, so other women may know of the wonderful curative powers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

When women are troubled with irregular or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, flatulence, general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such trouble.

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Health is too valuable to risk in experiments with unknown and untried medicines or methods of treatment. Remember that it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that is curing women, and don't allow any druggist to sell you anything else in its place.

INTERPROVINCIAL BRIDGE.

The matter of the interprovincial bridge over the Restigouche river at Metapedia, was considered by the local government at a recent meeting, and it was decided that the government would prepare the approaches on the New Brunswick side, providing that the Quebec government would do the same on the Quebec side of the river. The steel superstructure for this bridge was donated by the Dominion government.

While men invariably shake hands when introduced to each other, women only do so when they desire to be especially cordial.

One Came Out After The Other.

Suffered with Boils for Six Months.

Mr. Elie Braizeau, Meadowside Station, Ont., tells of his experience with Boils and Burdock Blood Bitters.

He says:—"In the Spring of 1889 I was continually troubled with boils—one coming after another for about six months. I suffered terribly, and was in a very bad condition. In August I got a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and began to feel better after taking it. I kept on until I had used five bottles, and can truthfully say that I was cured, and have remained so ever since. I have not had the least sign of a boil."

There is nothing like Burdock Blood Bitters for bad blood, boils, pimples, dyspepsia, indigestion, or any trouble arising from the Stomach, Liver, Bowels or Blood.
