MONTREAL SHOOTING MATCH.

Man Under Arrest for Attempting to Murder Another With Whom he had Quarrelled.

Montreal, Nov. 18.—(Special)—Alphonse Normandin is under arrest, charged with attempting to murder Hermes Leduc a butcher.
The two men quarrelled yesterday afternoon. Last evening Normandin went to Leduc's shop, behind the counter Normandin drew a revolver and the next moment a shot was fired at Leduc by Normandin. No damage was done except to the wall. Leduc rushed at Normandin and the latter fired again and ran out of the shop pursued by his intended victim.
On the street Leduc caught his man and Normandin fired again at close range and the bullet grazed Leduc's hip, but did not hurt him much.

STEEL INGOT THEIR TOMB.

Miners Buried in Metal that Incinerated Them.

Philadelphia, Nov. 18.—(Special)—The strangest funeral services ever recorded occurred at the plant of the Midvale Steel Works today.

November 10 John Forkin and Joseph Gazda were engulfed in 82,000 pounds of molten steel flowing from a leaky furnace into a pit where they toiled. In the flash of an eye not a vestige of the two men was left and scarcely a puff of smoke arose to indicate their complete incineration.

In deference to the feelings of the members of the men's families the company buried eight thousand pounds of steel, supposed to be that part of the mass into which it is thought the bodies were absorbed, with all the formalities and rites usually attending an ordinary funeral.

NEW INSURANCE CO.

In Which Prominent Fredericton Men Are Stockholders.

A month ago The Sun mentioned the fact that there were in Ontario alone 85 mutual fire insurance companies, carrying risks amounting to $300,000,000. In the eastern provinces no fire insurance organizations of this class have been formed until recently, but at the beginning of November an association came into existence and began to do business in St. John.

W. I. Fenton, who has been a successful and reputable manager in another insurance field, undertook to organize a society in St. John on the same basis as those which had gained a foothold in Ontario and New England. The result is the Atlantic Mutual Fire Insurance Association, of which John D. Chipman of St. Stephen, is the president, H. B. Schofield of St. John vice president and James Jack secretary treasurer.

The main idea of this association is to take limited and isolated risks, the policy holders, who comprise the association, taking the profits in the form of rebates when the returns are in. A guarantee fund is provided at the start, which is deemed adequate to protect the persons insured.

The trustees of this fund are G. W. Ganong, M. P., St. Stephen, F. W. Sumner, Moncton, and John Palmer, Fredericton.

Until the policy holders meet to elect directors the following comprise the board in addition to the officers named: Miles E. Agar, J. A. Belyea, J. Morris Robinson, F. E. Sayre, all of St. John; John H. Harris, Moncton; H. McC. Hart, Halifax; G. W. Fowler, M. P., Sussex; J. Sutton Clarke, St. George; John L. Peck, Hillsboro; Frank Stanfield, Truro, and A. J. Gregory, Fredericton. Mr. Fenton takes the position of managing director.
For a fortnight the society has been in business with excellent success for a beginner. It is excluded by its programme from taking hazardous risks and expects to do business over a large area.

Mildred had been full of tricks and naughtiness all day. At bedtime she seemed in a somewhat chastened mood, and her aunt suggested that she should ask God to forgive her, whereupon Mildred exclaimed, "No, I won't! I can't be bothering God all the time!"

OLD TIMES RECALLED.

A Glance Into the Local News of Fredericton Twenty-six Years Ago.

(Farmer Files, Nov. 20th, 1879.)

The members of the B. Battery Social Club were kindly entertained to an oyster supper last night by Mr. Charles H. Hatt.

The woodboats have taken their flight for the winter and there are other signs of the approach of the close of navigation on the river. The David Weston, Fawn and Soulages have gone into winter quarters at Indian town. The May Queen is expected from St. John tonight. The Star left for St. John yesterday and will not return.

The teachers of Fredericton will meet Inspector Mullin on Saturday to hear explanations from him and Dr. Rand regarding the new course of instructions for schools recently adopted by the Board of Education.

Andrew Steen, of Douglas, was killed by falling from a staging of a house in course of erection at Hampton last week. He struck on his head and received such injuries that he lived but three days afterwards. The deceased was a man about sixty-five years of age and was highly respected in the community where he lived.

We had pleasure in visiting the studio of Mr. Gadsen a day this week and inspecting some of the large oil paintings he has in progress. Those of Mr. A. G. Blair, M. P. P., and Mr. F. P. Thompson, M. P. P., are particularly fine.

ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY.

At the annual meeting of the St. Andrew's Society the following were elected office bearers for the current year:

President—Hon. John J. Fraser.
1st Vice President—John McInnes.
2nd Vice President—J. R. Howie.
Secretary—Hugh Matheson.
Marshall—Robert Thorburn.
Piper—Daniel Hossock.

(Of the gentlemen named above only Mr. Howie and Mr. Hossock are now living.) It was decided to hold the annual dinner at the Waverley House on December 1st.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. A. Slason Thompson, son of Assistant Supt. of Education, George Thompson, has been appointed to a lucrative and responsible position in Chicago by the Associated Press. Mr. Thompson has for some time been connected with the United States press in San Francisco and New York and has achieved for himself a fine literary reputation.
The only extensive sales in country produce today at the market were of beef and fowls, which have advanced considerably in price since the first of the week. Market rates today were:

MARRIED.

At Christ Church Cathedral, this city, on the 13th inst. by Rev. Finlay Alexander James B. Coombes to Mary R. Ross, both of this city.

A DESTRUCTIVE DOG.

Locked up in a Church he Proceeded to Chew Things, but drew line at Methodist Hymn Book.

Sussex Record.—On Sunday, Nov. 5th, Rev. Frank Baird preached in the Presbyterian church at Waterford, and to that able discourse there was one listener unnoticed by the interested congregation, and who remained even through the vestry meeting which followed the service.

This visitor was of the canine species and belonged to Mr. B. F. Myles of that place. Just how or when the animal entered the church is unknown, but the fact remains that it was evidently well pleased with its surroundings, for it declined to leave when the congregation did and was consequently locked up.

As this charge is at present vacant the church is only opened on Sunday, and when Mr. J. A. Moore entered the church on Sunday morning last he noticed that things in general presented a rather dishevelled appearance. In the meantime Mr. Myles spent some busy days seeking the whereabouts of his dog, but all in vain. No one had seen it since previous Sunday.

Mr. Moore immediately sought out Mr. Loughery and together they proceeded on a tour of investigation, which resulted in the discovery of the lost dog, which was decidedly pleased at the prospect of being released, but which had, during its imprisonment, destroyed everything it could reach, including the Bible, hymn books, draperies, cushions, etc. The only article in the book left untouched, being a Methodist hymn book. The loss to the church is estimated at about $300.
