H. Woods, of the class of 1906, Wolford.

ITS OLDEST READER.

Woodstock Sentinel: Of course we have one and for want of a better claimant we think the distinction rests with Mr. Robert Curry of Richmond Corner. That gentleman has read the Sentinel ever since 1837, the year it was founded. He says he distinctly remembers reading in it the account of the capture of the "Caroline" by the Canadians under Allan Macnab in the rebellion by McKenzie and Papineau. Mr. Curry is still a vigorous gentleman whose faculties are still with him in an unusual degree.

DOING WELL AT CRANBROOK.

Dr. F. Bruce Miles, who has been visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Miles of Margerville, is to leave Monday for his home in Cranbrook, B. C. Dr. Miles is building up a large practice in dentistry at Cranbrook, and is well satisfied with his lot. He says that lumbering and mining are the principal industries and the place has a very promising future before it. Two sons of Senator King of Chipman are located at Cranbrook, and one of whom is a member of the B. C. legislature.

A LORD HIGH ADMIRAL.

Montreal Standard—Although not serving in the Royal Navy, the Marquis of Donegal, son of the Marquess of Donegal, formerly Miss Violet Twining of Fredericton, N. B. is Hereditary Lord High Admiral of Lough Neagh. A very big lake it is covering over a hundred and fifty square miles, and is not only the largest in Ireland, but in the United Kingdom. No other lake has an admiral of its own.

A SMALL MARKET.

The market this morning was not as large as it usually is at this season of the year, the stormy weather no doubt keeping many farmers at home. Beef sold at five and six cents per pound, and pork brought eight and nine cents, turkey brought 18 and 20 cents per pound and geese $1 each. A few nice pairs of chickens were disposed of at 18 cents per pound.

MARRIED IN THE WEST.

Mr. W. Loudon, assistant auditor general of N. B., and brother-in-law of Premier Tweedie, was married at Huntington, Indiana, on Wednesday, to Miss Maud Hartt, eldest daughter of Mr. Odour M. Hartt, formerly of this city. The happy couple will arrive here about the middle of January, and take up their abode with Mrs. Colwell, Brunswick street.

SWEET FLOWERS FOR THE NEW YEAR.

We have still some nice tree azaleas, pots of sweet hyacinths, primroses, cyclamens, cinerarias, fine pink and white roses, also celery and parsley for New Years at J. Bebbington & Son.—d11.

Losing the temper takes the edge off any argument.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Many Changes and Improvements Being Introduced.

Many changes and attractions are being introduced at the Y. M. C. A. during the holiday season. Electric lights have been put in over the whole building and will be in use this evening for the first time. This adds much to the cheerfulness and attractiveness of the rooms.

Through the efforts of the social committee a fine new combination pool and billiard table was put in the rooms a few days ago and it has been in almost constant use since.

Yesterday they placed in the rooms a handsome shuffle board. This board is a new design and is the only one in the city or province and is sure to be a very popular game, since it is a game of skill. The large hall has been given over to social features and will be one of the best equipped recreation rooms to be found.

Membership in the association will be something worth while and it is expected that a large number of men will join in the near future.
