THAT ST. JOHN LANDSLIDE.

More Damage Result of Last Night's Tide.

St. John, Nov. 29.—(Special)—Last night's tide caused more damage at the scene of the landslide in the West End, and the fissures in Union street have widened considerably. The affected section has been fenced off, as the sidewalk is now on an angle of about 45 degrees. The shed at the back of the Smith house broke away last night and is now lying in a tangled mass on the mud and piles at the rear of the building.

Everything movable has been removed even the plate glass windows and doors being taken out.

The building will probably be burned by the city, as it is a menace to the public safety in its present condition.

THE SASKATCHEWAN ELECTIONS.

Winnipeg, Nov. 29.—(Special)—Ex-premier Haultain has issued an address to electors of Saskatchewan, in reply to attacks made upon him in a circular issued by Archbishop Langevin.

He comes out flatfooted in favor of national schools and definitely takes the ground that clerical interference in the educational affairs of the province must be resisted.

THE UNIVERSITY Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. of the University of New Brunswick at a cabinet meeting held last evening decided upon the following additions and alterations in their committees:

Membership.—MacBeth, Clarke, R. B. McLean, Clark, C. T. Bible Study.—Girwood, Jewett, Cronkhite, Cochrane, Mavor.

Missionary.—Orchard, Eastman, Sharpe, McGill, Firth.

Finance.—Dole, Bonner, Wood, Alexander, Saunders, Orchard, '05.

Devotional.—Manzer, Carr, Thomas Wetmore, Clarke, C. T.

Music.—Dole, Dunphy, Baird.

All the committees gave encouraging reports. In fact, there is a decided gain over last year in every department.

Out of 63 members of the association at least 50 are engaged in regular courses of Bible study, thus giving to U. N. B. the honor of leading the maritime colleges in this line of work. Besides these classes are a class of 16 Normal school students and a class of city boys both conducted by college men.

The enrolment in mission study classes is also unusually large, no doubt owing to the attractiveness of the courses on Japan and China which are being offered. Not less than 33 men are taking these courses about double of last year's number. Owing to the untiring efforts of the devotional committee the Sunday services have been above the usual standard, and we feel that special reference should be made to those conducted by W. H. Tinker, Rev. A. B. Cohoe and Rev. J. H. McDonald, the last mentioned being worthy of special notice from the standpoint of practical results. The attendance this year has been excellent with good prospects of an increase.

The finances of the association were in as good shape as is possible under the circumstances. The college men contribute a larger pro rata sum than in any of our sister colleges, but this being an undenominational institution we cannot appeal to any one religious body outside for assistance. The government, whose duty it is to assist in the character building of the students, as well as to provide for their mental development, have been approached on this subject, and we have been practically assured that the association in our state college will receive the financial support it needs to enable us to continue in the front rank with the denominational institutions with which we are in strong competition along this line. Just here it will not be amiss to express the thanks of our Y. M. C. A. to those citizens who have so generously aided us this year, including the following:

Helena A. Wark
F. W. Barbour
J. F. McMurray
Havelock Coy
J. H. Fleming
Col. Loggie
C. A. McVey

Vandine & Co.
A. W. Edgecombe
C. W. Hall
J. E. Page
C. W. Manzer
J. J. Weddall
James Lemont

It is conceded generally that the Northfield annual conference and the World's student conference which meets every four years, have been most productive of good to our association by training the delegates for leadership in the various departments of the work. With a view to still further increasing the efficiency of the workers we are striving to send three delegates to the World's conference at Nashville, Tenn., in February, upwards of 3,000 students, 200 missionaries, 200 college presidents and professors will be present and no less than 45 conferences will be simultaneously conducted during the five days of the meetings. The best men in the college from the lower classes will be selected as delegates, in case funds are forthcoming. From the encouragement and popularity among his acquaintances, was formerly on the staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, and is well and favorably known in this city and through-

BRILLIANT SOCIETY WEDDING.

Happy Nuptial Event at the Methodist Church This Afternoon.

MR. H. LeROY SHAW AND MISS SARAH S. THOMPSON THE PRINCIPALS

One of the most brilliant society weddings that Fredericton has seen for many months, took place in the Methodist church at 3.45 o'clock this afternoon in the presence of a large gathering of interested spectators, the spacious edifice being crowded to its fullest capacity.

The contracting parties were Mr. Harold LeRoy Shaw, of Montreal, secretary treasurer of the Imperial Life Insurance Company of Canada, and Miss Sarah Snowball, second daughter of Hon. and Mrs. Fred P. Thompson, Canadian Senator, and niece of His Honor, the Lieutenant Governor of New Brunswick. The pulpit platform was banked with potted plants, such as palms, sword ferns and rubbers in honor of the happy occasion and presented a very attractive appearance.

The guests arrived some minutes before the appointed hour for the ceremony, and occupied seats reserved for them near the front of the church. Included in the list was the beautiful Marchioness of Donegal, who very naturally, came in for a great deal of attention.

The ushers were Messrs. C. H. Allen, F. E. Winslow and Alex. J. Thompson.

There were two bridesmaids, Miss Nan Thompson, the bride's sister, and her cousin, Miss Laura Snowball, of Chatham, while Mr. Thomas B. Blair, manager of the Royal Bank at St. John, was the bridegroom's best man.

As the bride entered the church, leaning on the arm of her father and preceded by the bridesmaids, the choir, under the leadership of Mr. Frank Harrison, who presided at the organ, rendered with splendid effect the beautiful wedding hymn, "The Voice that Breathed Over Eden."

Rev. Dr. Rogers, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony and at its conclusion the choir sang the hymn, "How welcome was the call."

THE COSTUMES.

The bride looked very charming in a beautiful costume of white lace, with trimmings of hand made Brussels applique, and white tulle veil with orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet was of white roses and lilies of the valley.

The bridesmaids were becomingly costumed in green broadcloth, Irish lace trimmings and crimson hats. Instead of the customary pink bouquets, they each carried large crimson muffs, trimmed with natural flowers.

Mrs. Thomson, the bride's mother, wore black moire antique, with purple velvet hat and diamond ornaments.

The Marchioness of Donegal wore a very handsome costume of grey silk, trimmed with lace, diamond ornaments, and black feather hat.

Miss Margaret Thomson, the bride's youngest sister, wore pink crepe du chene, with large white picture hat.

Mrs. J. L. Black, of Sackville, the bride's aunt, wore a handsome gown of black silk velvet, trimmed with real lace, and a black and white toque.

Miss Frances Snowball wore a stylish costume of amethyst silk, with bands of chiffon velvet and cream lace with touches of gilt. She also wore a large cream picture hat, with ornaments of pearl.

Miss O'Brien, (Ireland), wore brown crepe du chene, with Persian trimmings, and large brown picture hat.

At the conclusion of the impressive ceremony, the bridal party moved down the aisle and left the church to the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. They were driven to the home of the bride's parents, Regent street, where luncheon was served, and a reception held.

The bride, who is one of Fredericton's most charming, accomplished and lovable young ladies, was the recipient of a host of magnificent wedding presents, the remembrances of relatives and friends in this city, St. John, Montreal, Chatham, the United States and England.

The bridegroom's present was a gold bar pin, with diamond, turquoise and pearl settings. The gift of the bridegroom's father, Mr. A. McN. Shaw, of Montreal, was a check for $1,000. The Lieutenant Governor presented a check for $50, and other cash gifts from relatives totalling $300. The present of the silverware, and a similar gift was received from Mr. and Mrs. Willard Kitchen. The remembrance of the Marchioness of Donegal was a Japanese fan, handpainted and jewelled. From her Sabbath school class, the bride received a silver tray.

The bridegroom presented each of the bridesmaids with a gold bracelet.

The bridegroom, who is a bright, promising young man, and popular among his acquaintances, was formerly on the staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, and is well and favorably known in this city and through-
