USELESS SNEERS.

The Sun is very much distressed lest Premier Tweedie, Attorney General Pugsley, and Chief Commissioner LaBillois, should be regarded as good and faithful members of the Liberal party, and makes an appeal to Liberals not to harbor these gentlemen or to support their government.

The Sun's condition in the matter is amusing if nothing else. Possibly the Tory organ, may recall the splendid provincial Liberal convention in St. John in the winter of 1904, when all these gentlemen were present and delivered eloquent speeches defining their positions as members of the great Liberal party. The Sun will also be able to recall services which all the gentlemen named have performed for the Liberal party since that date.

These services are appreciated by the Liberals at any rate and the party is glad to number in its membership such able advocates of the cause.

When Dr. Stockton and Dr. Alford renounced their Liberal allegiance for reasons that need not be discussed here, no Liberal desired to deny the Tories the pleasure and satisfaction they pretended to feel at the accession of such important gentlemen to Tory councils, and why should the Sun seek to minimize the association of Messrs. Tweedie, Pugsley and LaBillois with the Liberal party, or deny that their professions are sincere.

The Liberals of New Brunswick are glad to recognize these gentlemen as prominent and influential members of the grand old party, and all the sophistry and sneers of the Tory organ will not depreciate them in Liberal estimation, nor will it attract to the local opposition, Liberals who have had to meet Mr. Hazen and his lieutenants in recent electoral contests. The Liberals of this province owe Mr. Hazen and his party nothing, but a well sustained desire to prevent them from reaching the treasury benches, and in that laudable ambition the Liberals have hitherto been most successful.

THE TAX COMMISSION.

If a tax commission was really necessary, no serious fault can be found with the gentlemen selected by the city council for that purpose.

Mr. Allen, we presume, is to represent the income man, and Sheriff Sterling and Mr. Palmer the real estate interests, and Mr. Allen and Mr. Palmer are both ex-mayors who naturally, are familiar with the present assessment law and its weak spots. The city clerk will be secretary of the commission whose expenditure is limited to $600, so there will be no princely salaries for the members of the body.

There are gross inequalities in the way the present assessment law is administered and it may be possible to greatly improve the law itself, and thus we take it that it is the object of appointing the commission.

Men whose income is known to the assessors through official sources are taxed up to the limit, while professional and business men escape very lightly on income tax. A clerk who is earning a fair salary is liable to be assessed as much on income as a professional man whose emoluments run into the thousands. This is more the result of faulty administration of the law than because of the law itself, and it is a serious grievance to a large class of people.

The St. John Globe speaks in very kindly terms of the coming Fredericton Exhibition and advises the people of that city to generously patronize the big show, remarking that "Fredericton is a good neighbor and a good customer of St. John." We trust the Globe's advice will be followed and the exhibition management will feel grateful for the kind words. It is a fact, however, that past exhibitions, particularly the last one in this city received but scant patronage from St. John, both in exhibits and attendance, but we hope for better things this year.

Things will not look so roseate to the September bridegroom when he has to put up $5.50 per cord for furnace wood and visit the furnace six times a day to keep the house warm.

The formal entry of Saskatchewan into the confederation was royally celebrated Monday at Regina. Lord Grey and Sir Wilfrid Laurier were there and received the enthusiastic homage of the people. The Sun complains because Mr. Haultain was not officially recognized in the day's proceedings, but as the ex-premier of the Territories is now only a Tory candidate seeking a seat in the new legislature, there was no particular reason why he should have had a part in the celebration beyond that open to any loyal citizen of the new province.

Rev. G. O. Huestis, whose death is announced today, was a sturdy preacher of the Gospel for nearly half a century and many men and women were converted to Christian lives by his sturdy stirring eloquence. Fredericton has a local interest in the announcement of his death from the fact that for two years he served as the pastor of the Methodist church in this city, and renewed his acquaintance here three years ago.

Mr. James Clancy, a former member of the Ontario legislature and the House of Commons, has been appointed auditor general of Ontario. Mr. Clancy ran for Parliament last November and was defeated, and he met a similar fate in the Ontario local elections a few months later. Now Mr. Whitney has taken care of him.

The new governors of Alberta and Saskatchewan, are beginning their duties promptly. Governor Bulyea of the former province has summoned Mr. A. G. Rutherford, ex-M. L. A., of Strathecona to form a ministry, and Governor Forget of Saskatchewan, has issued a similar request to Mr. Walter Scott, M. P., of Regina. Both governments will be straight Liberal.

Moncton had a labor parade Monday in a downpour of rain, and at its close the men were addressed by Hon. H. R. Emmerson, minister of railways and canals.

Now that he has gone down in a submarine, and made peace between Russia and Japan, President Roosevelt is said to be planning an unopposed re-election for himself in 1908.

The London, G. B. Star, gravely announces that the late Senator Wark represented New Brunswick in the United States Senate.

F. C. SPENCER'S PLANS.

Delightful Series of Entertainments During the Coming Winter.

About this time it is of interest to very many to ascertain what is to be offered for the public entertainment during the coming season, and in this connection the mention of some of Mr. F. C. Spencer's plans which have just been learned, will show this successful caterer of public entertainments has as usual gotten hold of something that is likely to prove a big success.

Mr. Spencer has arranged for a course of high class entertainments through the coming winter, and for which a regular course ticket will be sold admitting to all events for a figure low enough to be within the reach of all.

America's greatest male quartette, the Schuberts, of Boston, with a lady reader is scheduled to open the course on the evening of Nov. 5th, and this will be followed at intervals of one month by the following splendid attractions:

A. W. Hawks, the laughing philosopher, or more familiarly known as Sunshine Hawks, one of America's ablest entertainers; the Boston Concert Company, consisting of Helena Wetmore soprano, Clarence Chute basso, and Catherine Halliday cellist. Then along comes the prince of actors, Edwin P. Elliot, who will be heard in his wonderful presentation of David Harum. The last entertainment in the series will be the appearance in March of a great novelty in the person of Valentine Abt, the premier harpist and mandolinist of America, supported by a splendid company. Mr. Spencer has selected these artists only after having visited across the border and satisfied himself personally as to their qualifications and he has doubtless struck the popular chord in this as in all his previous undertakings. Mr. Spencer would like to hear from several young ladies with reference to canvassing the city for the sale of course tickets. This course of entertainments will be promoted in a number of cities in the provinces under the same management.—St. John Globe.

Fredericton will be favored with an opportunity to patronize this same course as Mr. Spencer has closed with the Y. M. C. A. management to bring the attractions here.

Turkish and crash towels are not intended for the face. The best towel for the complexion is one of fine, soft linen. Spanish women use towels of the softest linen, and with mighty good results.

CROCKET--STEVENSON.

York's M. P. Married at Coaticook, Quebec. Today.

Coaticook, P. Q., Sept. 6.—(Special.)—St. Stephen's Episcopal church was the scene of a happy event at 12.30 o'clock today, when Miss Clarine Stevenson, daughter of Dr. Charles Stevenson, was led to the altar by Mr. Oswald S. Crocket, M. P. for York, N. B.

The wedding was a quiet one, only relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties being included in the list of invited guests.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Stevens, pastor of the church.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Hilda Stevenson, while the bride's cousin, Mr. Leslie Lilly, of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Montreal, was best man.

After partaking of luncheon at the home of the bride's father, the newly wedded couple left for New York on their honeymoon. They will make their future home at Fredericton, N. F.
